Granta 17 While Waiting For A War Granta Viking:

Granta 17 Graham Greene, 1986-02      The Third Spring Adam Schwartz, 2005-02 This book is the first detailed examination of these four authors as part of a Roman Catholic counter modern community of discourse It is informed by extensive research in the writers works scholarship on them and their personal papers      Graham Greene's Thrillers and the 1930s Brian Diemert, 1996-08-27 Diemert traces Greene s adaptation of nineteenth century romance thrillers and classical detective stories into modern political thrillers as a means of presenting serious concerns in an engaging fashion He argues that Greene s popular thrillers were in part a reaction to the high modernism of writers such as James Joyce Gertrude Stein and Virginia Woolf whose esoteric experiments with language were disengaged from immediate social concerns and inaccessible to a large segment of the reading public Graham Greene s Thrillers and the 1930s investigates some of Greene s best known works such as A Gun for Sale Brighton Rock and The Ministry of Fear and shows how they reflect the evolution of Greene s sense of the importance of popular culture in the 1930s      How Will the Heart Endure? Heather Bryant Jordan, 1992 The career of Elizabeth Bowen 1899 1973 has been hard to categorize As an Anglo Irish writer a follower of the modernists but not technically one herself as an independent woman writer but not by her admission a feminist and as a creative writer in time of war she has eluded compartmentalization In How Will the Heart Endure Heather Bryant Jordan provides a new assessment of Bowen s achievement arguing that Bowen s response to war is the best lens for elucidating the relation between art and life expressed in Bowen s work Bowen created novels short stories essays and autobiographical works in a war torn world that saw successively the Troubles in Ireland the Irish Civil War World War I and World War II The strains she felt as a result of these experiences were expressed in the intensely personal vision of loss and betrayal that her fiction conveys Jordan s study combines historical and literary analysis and incorporates new archival research on Bowen s correspondence and on her war reports to the Ministry of Information How Will the Heart Endure offers not only a new reading of Bowen s work but an insightful look into the wartime publishing climate in which Bowen and her circle which included Virginia Woolf T S Eliot John and Rosalind Lehmann Cyril Connolly Evelyn Waugh Graham Greene and Stephen Spender operated It will be of interest to specialists in modern British fiction women s studies Irish studies and Anglo Irish literature BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      A Purgatorial Flame Sebastian David Guy Knowles, 1990 In this study of a significant period of modern British literature Sebastian D G Knowles argues that Modernism did not expire in 1939 to return as Contemporary Literature in 1945 Rather than marking a hiatus in British literature the Second World War continued the march of literary ideas and provoked an astonishingly cohesive response to a common catastrophe A Purgatorial Flame centers upon the artimes work of seven British modernists Woolf MacNeice Eliot Tolkien Lewis Williams and Waugh ALthough none of these is generally considered a wartime writer all wrote their finest or most mature work under the shadow of the Second World War Whether waiting for war to be declared waiting for it to start in earnest or waiting for bombs to fall all expressed that waiting through the image of purgatory A Purgatorial Flame draws these writers together in an attempt to extend the accepted range of Modernism The Second World War is in danger of becoming a memory of a memory its literature ensures that it will never be so This book provides a critically needed reassessment of that literature serving as both a reminder and a celebration A Purgatorial Flame will be of interest to scholars and students of modern British literature Choice ,1986 Science Bill Buford,1985 For the last thirty or forty years it has been a commonplace that science and literature don t mix But recently science writing has undergone a revival and has come to constitute a literature in itself What accounts for its sudden appeal The attraction of facts Or the possibility that facts are themselves inventions of the most spectacular kind This issue is devoted to representing part of this revival In Excesses Oliver Sacks describes individuals suffering from not only too much personality but too many In Amazon Eugene Richards and Dorothea Lynch document the terrible mystery of illness and the body The sexuality of tortoises the lunacy of invention the bizarre mating habits of a tropical rodent the zoo like existence of the young scientists of Reagan s Star Wars all invite us to understand science not simply as the study of fact but also as another way not unlike the novel of describing the mystery of the world Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09 Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 American Novelists Since World War II.
