Chi,2008-02-01 Educational policy controversies in the United States invariably implicate legal issues Policy debates about testing and school choice for example cannot be disentangled from legal rights and mandates The same is true for issues such as funding campus safety speech and religion rights as well as the teaching of immigrant students Written for a general audience this new twelve chapter book explores these compelling educational policy issues through that legal lens building an understanding of both law and policy The book s editors are Kevin Welner associate professor of educational policy at the University of Colorado at Boulder and Wendy Chi a doctoral candidate at Boulder Both Welner and Chi are lawyers as well as educational scholars Rethinking Religious Education and Plurality Robert Jackson,2013-02 This book offers a critical view of approaches to the treatment of different religions in contemporary education in order to devise approaches to teaching and learning and to formulate policies and procedures that are fair and just to all Political Secularism, Religion, and the State Jonathan Fox,2015-04-27 This book examines how the competition between religious and secular forces influenced state religion policy between 1990 and 2008 While both sides were active the religious side had considerably more success The book examines how states supported religion as well as how they restricted it International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza,Gloria Durka,Kathleen Engebretson,Robert Jackson,Andrew McGrady,2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it as today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world

The Religion of Law S. Jivraj, 2013-09-10 How is religion particularly non Christianness conceptualised and represented in English law What is the relationship between religion race ethnicity and culture in these conceptualisations What might be the socio political effects of conceptualising religion in particular ways This book addresses these key questions in two areas of law relating to children The first case study focuses on child welfare cases and reveals how the boundaries between race and theological notions of religion as belief and practice are blurred Non Christians are also often perceived as uncivilized but also at times racial otherness can be erased and assimilated The second examines religion in education and the increasing focus on common values It demonstrates how non Christian faith schools are deemed as in need of regulation while Christian schools are the benchmark of good citizenship In addition values discourse and citizenship education provide a means to de racialise non Christian children in the ongoing construction of the nation Central to this analysis is a focus on religion as a socio political contingent fluid and invented concept

Hartas, Barrie A. Irving, 2019-05-23 First published in 2005 this timely volume challenges those who see faith schools as contributing positively to the well being of society and responding to parent choice to think through the implications of September 11 for our multi ethnic and multi faith society without taking a position on the ultimate necessity of faith schools The authors conducted research in several faith based schools representative both of older religious traditions in England and Wales and of those which have been more recently established The focus was on state funded faith based schools but a range were visited to provide an overview of issues facing all faith based schools as well as those specific to newly funded institutions
