Granville Island Market Cookbook:

The New Granville Island Market Cookbook Carol Jensson, Judie Glick, 2012-06-05 Vancouver's Granville Island Public Market established in 1979 is one of Canada's largest and most popular public markets. Featuring over fifty food retailers, day vendors, and crafts, the Public Market is the main draw at Granville Island. Galleries, retail shops, a live theatre, and a hotel, an art school, as well as a functioning cement company, make Granville Island one of the biggest tourist attractions in a city that is regularly ranked as one of the world's top destinations by Condé Nast Traveler. The New Granville Island Market Cookbook features a bounty of recipes using fresh produce, gourmet meats, wild seafood, artisanal cheeses, and other goods found at this or any public market offering quality, healthful food products. Full color throughout, the book also includes lively food photos, market snapshots, and profiles of the market's dedicated vendors. Taking off from the original best-selling Granville Island Market Cookbook in 1985, this brand new book comments on changes to food culture since the first edition and features such market fresh recipes as barbecued leg of lamb, penne with spot prawns, Niçoise sandwich, orange and pomegranate salad, and roasted figs. This beautiful cookbook offers readers delectable, fresh, and healthy recipes for every month of the year while providing vibrant and engaging portraits of life at the market. Judie Glick and Carol Jensson were among Granville Island's first merchants. Judie, as co-owner of the Fraser Valley Juice and Salad Bar, and Carol, as owner of the Blue Parrot coffee bar. Carol is now a food stylist for Vancouver's film industry, while Judie, co-author of the original Granville Island Market Cookbook, has been writing about food since 1968.

The Granville Island Market Cookbook Judie Glick, Fiona McLeod, 1985

The Farm Market Cookbook, 1991 Judith Olney's Farm Market Book is a complete sourcebook on a subject that must be of primary interest to anyone concerned with the survival of our land, our food supply, and our rural heritage. Includes growing hints and cooking tips from the farmers themselves, over 125 recipes, a listing of mail order sources for market items, and a geographical index to markets across the country. 16 pages of full color photographs.

The Holy Crap Cookbook Corin Mullins, 2016-11-19 When Corin and Brian Mullins started their company HapiFoods in 2009 with just 129, they had no idea that in less than a decade they would be shipping millions of bags of cereals around the world. They just wanted to make a nourishing product that would both taste good and be compatible with Brian's food allergies, and perhaps sell it locally for a bit of extra retirement income. After much experimentation, Corin came across the tiny black chia seed, a complete protein rich in omega-3 fatty acids, as well as minerals, antioxidants, and fibre. Corin blended chia with nutrient-rich buckwheat and hulled hemp seeds, and inspired by an enthusiastic comment from one of their first customers, she and Brian decided to label their first creation Holy Crap, the World's Most Amazing Cereal. Thanks in part to an appearance on the hit CBC show Dragons Den, their products gained the attention of Canadian consumers, many of whom became loyal customers. Starting with HapiFoods cereals and adding other healthy ingredients, this inspirational cookbook emphasizes a plant-based, gluten-free diet and includes over 60 simple-to-prepare but simply awesome recipes that harness the power of superfoods.

From protein packed breakfast fare like refreshing smoothies and perfect pancakes to satisfying savory dishes and decadent desserts that don't sacrifice nutrition for flavour all the recipes in The Holy Crap Cookbook are in keeping with the Holy Crap philosophy what you eat should be good for you and taste great Picture Cookbook Joyce Dassonville, Ehren

McDow, 2008-06 There has never been a cookbook like this nor has there been a book that could improve the lives of families with special needs members more than this book has the potential to do After a futile search to buy a book for teaching her daughter to cook the author eventually wrote the book she had sought to buy The first in a series of four cookbooks for budding chefs with special needs including autism attention deficit disorder Down's Syndrome Alzheimer's disease illiteracy advanced or young age THE PICTURE COOKBOOK is the result of the author's four years of efforts teaching her own autistic daughter to cook and bake The title says it all but the book is more than a series of step by step pictures leading the chef to a proud completion All aspects of avoiding injury and ensuring success have been cleverly thought through Using modern kitchen tools the authors have written recipes that are safe for anyone to use be they young children confused adults or people with special needs Furthermore for the benefit of teachers and caregivers instructions on the process of teaching someone to use the cookbook are detailed as well as discussions of issues that can arise The picture index allows cooks to easily spot their favourite recipes without the need to read or understand names The book boasts lay flat binding extensive colour coding and beautifully laid out colour photography Canadian Book Review Annual, 1988 The Rough Guide
