Graphic Design Paul Jobling,David Crowley,1996 This is an inventive a well researched study which explores the production and consumption of graphic design in Europe The Art of Persuasion Luciano Chelos (ed),Lucio. Sponza (ed),2001 Writing for art is a concise introduction to the subject of ekphrasis and the first study to offer a useful general survey of the larger philosophical and theoretical questions arising from the encounter of literary texts and artworks Stephen Cheeke offers close readings of poems and prose from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries alongside a generous amount of illustrations covering a broad range of writing and theory about the relation of literary texts to the visual arts and extending the subject of ekphrasis to include literary works on photography as well as celebrated prose descriptions of artworks Collecting Prints, Posters, and Ephemera Ruth E. Iskin,Britany Salsbury,2019-12-12 Why did collectors seek out posters and collect ephemera during the late nineteenth and the twentieth centuries How have such materials been integrated into institutional collections today What inspired collectors to build significant holdings of works from cultures other than their own And what are the issues facing curators and collectors of digital ephemera today These are among the questions tackled in this volume the first to examine the practices of collecting prints posters and ephemera during the modern and contemporary periods A wide range of case studies feature collections of printed materials from the United States Latin America France Germany Great Britain China Japan Russia Iran and Cuba Fourteen essays and one roundtable discussion all specially commissioned from art historians curators and collectors for this volume explore key issues such as the roles of class politics and gender and address historical contexts social roles value and national and transnational aspects of collecting practices The global scope highlights cross cultural connections and contributes to a new understanding of the place of prints posters and ephemera within an increasingly international art world The Available Means of Persuasion David M. Sheridan, Jim Ridolfo, 2012-03-19 From the beginning rhetoric has been a productive and practical art aimed at preparing citizens to participate in communal life Possibilities for this participation are continually evolving in light of cultural and technological changes The Available Means of Persuasion Mapping a Theory and Pedagogy of Multimodal Public Rhetoric explores the ways that public rhetoric has changed due to emerging technologies that enable us to produce reproduce and distribute compositions that integrate visual aural and alphabetic elements David M Sheridan Jim Ridolfo and Anthony J Michel argue that to exploit such options fully rhetorical theory and pedagogy need to be reconfigured

Advertising in the 60s Hazel G. Warlaumont, 2001 The 1960s provides Warlaumont with the backdrop for examining the struggle of advertising during the anti establishment movement in one of America s most colorful but turbulent decades Targeted by the counterculture threatened with government regulation criticized as a waste maker by social critics weakened by internal strife between the liberal and traditional forces within the industry and faced with the consumption weary public advertising faced one of its most challenging times Yet surprisingly it made history with its unprecedented creativity and innovation during the 60s Distancing itself from the Establishment advertising as a wolf in sheep s clothing joined the cultural revolution changed the way it related to its audience and attempted to seduce consumers with humor resonance candidness and a power to the people approach Masking its ultimate goal to maintain preserve and promote the consumption ethic and business elite advertising joined an infectious wave to overturn the old and stodgy ways Becoming a turncoat by appearing to abandon its traditional materialistic and authoritarian stance even mimicking it in some instances advertising became a cause celebre with its colorful and humorous campaigns validating itself while under fire Using the 60s as a backdrop Warlaumont examines the struggle of a traditional institution during one of America s most turbulent decades Scholars students and researchers involved with business communications and advertising history as well as the general public interested in the 1960s will find this study fascinating Proceedings of the 2nd International and Interdisciplinary Conference on Image and Imagination Enrico Cicalò, 2020-03-17 This book gathers peer reviewed

Buyways Catherine Gudis, 2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Aphoristic Modernity, 2019-10-01 For the first time in scholarship this essay collection interprets modernity through the literary micro genres of the aphorism the epigram the maxim and the fragment Situating Friedrich Nietzsche and Oscar Wilde as forerunners of modern aphoristic culture the collection analyses the relationship between aphoristic consciousness and literary modernism in the expanded purview of the long twentieth century through the work of a wide range of authors including Samuel Beckett Max Beerbohm Jorge Luis Borges Katherine Mansfield and Stevie Smith From the romantic fragment to the tweet Aphoristic Modernity offers a compelling exploration of the short form s pervasive presence both as a standalone artefact and as part of a larger textual and cultural matrix

Liberating Histories Claire Norton, Mark Donnelly, 2018-07-11 Liberating Histories makes an original scholarly contribution to contemporary debates surrounding the cultural and political relevance of historical practices Arguing against the idea that specifically historical readings of the past are necessary or are compelled by the force of past events themselves this book instead focuses on other forms of past talk and how they function in politically empowering ways against social injustices Challenging the authority and constraints of academic history over the past this book explores various forms of past talk including art films activism memory nostalgia and archives Across seven clear chapters Claire Norton and Mark Donnelly show how activists and campaigners have used forms of past talk to unsettle common sense thinking about political and social problems how journalists artists curators filmmakers and performers have referenced the past in their practices of advocacy and how grassroots archivists help to circulate materials that challenge the power of authorised institutional archives to determine what gets to count as a demonstrable feature of the past and whose voices are part of the historical record Written in a lucid accessible manner and combining insightful critical analysis and philosophical argument with clear consideration of how different forms of past talk influence the narration of pasts in a variety of socio political contexts Liberating Histories is essential reading for students and scholars with an interest in historiography and the ethical and political dimensions of the historical discipline
