Anthropomorphic Images in Rock Art Paintings and Rock Carvings Terence Meaden,Herman Bender,2020-02-27 In rock art humanlike images appear widely throughout the ages The artworks discussed in this book range from paintings engravings or scratchings on cave walls and rock shelters images pecked into rocky surfaces or upon standing stones and major sacred sites in which exists the possibility of recovering the meanings intended by the artists The Performance of Trauma in Moving Image Art Dirk Cornelis de Bruyn,2014-10-02 With reference to recent neurological research into Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD using new imaging technologies and models of implicit and explicit memory systems developed from this research The Performance of Trauma in Moving Image Art examines the capacity of an artist s cinema of experimental and avant garde film to perform and communicate traumatic experience De Bruyn analyses key films from the 1940s to the present that perform aspects of overwhelming experience through their approach structure content and perceptual impact mapping a trajectory from analogue to contemporary digital moving image practice He argues for the inclusion of Peter Gidal's 1970s conception of materialist film into the genre of trauma cinema through its capacity to articulate unlocatability and perceptually perform disorientation and a flashback effect all further identified here as key characteristics of digital moving image practice The discussion explores the following questions Can materialist film model traumatic memory and perform the traumatic flashback Does the capacity to articulate trauma's unspeakability and invisibility give this practice a renewed relevance in digital media's preoccupation with surface and the impact of information overload De Bruyn's phenomenological traumatic reading of materialist film steps beyond Gidal's original anti-illusionist rationale to incorporate critiques effectively mounted against it by the founders of a 70s feminist psychoanalytic counter cinema This contemporary re-reading further re-evaluates the Minimalist turn in painting and sculpture after the Second World War arguing that this development is not essentialist or visionary but makes visible the implicit mechanisms of denial and erasure at the core of traumatic remembering For de Bruyn the initial traumatic impact of industrialization on the body's perceptual apparatus traceable through the advent of cinema and train travel is communicated by such moving image art The development of digital technology marks a new cycle of such perceptual re-balancing for which materialist film is uniquely positioned and which it critically addresses

Cognition of the Literary Work of Art Roman Ingarden, 1973 This long awaited translation of Das literarische Kunstwerk makes available for the first time in English Roman Ingarden's influential study Though it is interdisciplinary in scope situated as it is on the borderlines of ontology and logic philosophy of literature and theory of language Ingarden's work has a deliberately narrow focus the literary work its structure and mode of existence The Literary Work of Art establishes the groundwork for a philosophy of literature i.e. an ontology in terms of which the basic general structure of all literary works can be determined This essential anatomy makes basic tools and concepts available for rigorous and subtle aesthetic analysis The Arts J. Mills, Colin Ball, 2011-12-22 The Bliss Bibliographic Classification Association is an association of users and supporters of the Bibliographic Classification The association promotes the development and use of classification publishes official amendments enables users to keep in touch and exchange experience and gives them a say in the future of the scheme It is a non profit organization founded in 1969 with members all over the world Each of the following schedules is the result of a rigorous and detailed analysis of the terminology of the field in question using the techniques of facet analysis Education ,1910 Practices of Abstract Art Wiebke Gronemeyer, Isabel Wünsche, 2016-12-14 Recent decades have seen a renewed interest in the phenomenon of abstract art particularly regarding its ability to speak to the political social and cultural conditions of our times This collection of essays which looks at historical examples of artistic practice from the early pioneers of abstraction to late modernism investigates the ambivalent role that abstraction has played in the visual arts and cultures of the last hundred years In addition it explores various theoretical and critical narratives that seek to articulate new perspectives on its legacy in the visual arts From metaphysical considerations and philosophical reflections to debates on interculturality and global perspectives the contributors examine and reconsider abstraction in the visual arts from a contemporary point of view that acknowledges the many social economic cultural and political aspects of artistic practice As such the volume progressively expands the boundaries of thinking about abstract art by engaging it in its increasingly diverse cultural environment The Human John Lechte, 2018-06-14 Why is it important to consider the human today Exploring this question John Lechte takes inspiration from the interplay of two of Giorgio Agamben's concepts ways of life and bare life Stateless people those who do not have a political community such as asylum seekers and refugees are no less human However the European tradition represented most clearly in Hannah Arendt's thinking of the opposition between the oikos as the satisfaction of basic needs and the polis as the realm of freedom and glory proposes the opposite of this Arendt's famous phrase the right to have rights means that freedom and full human potential can only be realised in the context of civil society in short that only citizens can be fully human Because Arendt's view is so influential yet often not acknowledged it is necessary to undertake a full investigation of the nature and meaning of the human to establish that it is not reducible to the citizen but is always characterised by a way of life life mediated by language The human is never reducible to bare life a life with no other significance than physical survival The implications of bare life are investigated through important themes in relation to the human such as freedom and necessity the animal animality as nature inclusion and exclusion in politics the sacred death and dying technics and nature the Same and the Other the everyday as extraordinary Journeying through Agamben Arendt Bataille Derrida Hegel Heidegger Husserl Levinas Schelling Simondon and Stiegler this is a profound search to reveal the truly human The Pacific Islands Moshe Rapaport, 2013-05-31 The Pacific is the last major world region to be discovered by humans Although small in total land area its numerous islands and archipelagoes with their startlingly diverse habitats and biotas extend across a third of the globe

This revised edition of a popular text explores the diverse landforms climates and ecosystems of the Pacific island region Multiple chapters written by leading specialists cover the environment history culture population and economy The work includes new or completely revised chapters on gender music logging development education urbanization health ocean resources and tourism Throughout two key issues are addressed the exceptional environmental challenges and the demographic economic political challenges facing the region Although modern technology and media and waves of continental tourists are fast eroding island cultures the continuing resilience of Pacific island populations is apparent This is the only contemporary text on the Pacific Islands that covers both environment and sociocultural issues and will thus be indispensable for any serious student of the region Unlike other reviews it treats the entirety of Oceania with the exception of Australia and is well illustrated with numerous photos and maps including a regional atlas Contributors David Abbott Dennis A Ahlburg Glenn Banks John Barker Geoffrey Bertram David A Chappell William C Clarke John Connell Ron Crocombe Julie Cupples Derrick Depledge Colin Filer Gerard J Fryer Patricia Fryer Brenden S Holland E Alison Kay David M Kennedy Lamont Lindstrom Rick Lumpkin Harley I Manner Selina Tusitala Marsh Nancy McDowell Hamish A McGowan Frank McShane Simon Milne R John Morrison Dieter Mueller Dombois Stephen G Nelson Patrick D Nunn Michael R Ogden Andrew Pawley Jean Louis Rallu Vina Ram Bidesi Moshe Rapaport Annette Sachs Robertson Richard Scaglion Donovan Storey Andrew P Sturman Lynne D Talley James P Terry Randolph R Thaman Frank R Thomas Caroline Vercoe Terence Wesley Smith Paul Wolfram

The Partisan Counter-Archive Gal Kirn, 2020-07-20 Mere decades after the dissolution of Yugoslavia the promise of European democracy seems to be out of joint What has become of the once shared memory of victory over fascism Historical revisionism and nationalist propaganda in the post Yugoslav context have tried to eradicate the legacy of partisan and socialist struggles while Yugonostalgia commodifies the partisan socialist past It is against these dominant archives that this book launches the partisan counter archive highlighting the symbolic power of artistic works that echo and envision partisan legacy and rupture It comprises a body of works that emerged either during the people's liberation struggle or in later socialist periods tracing a counter archival surplus and revolutionary remainder that invents alternative protocols of remembrance and commemoration The book covers rich counter archival material from partisan poems graphic works and photography to monuments and films and ends by describing the recent revisionist undoing of the partisan past It contributes to the Yugoslav politico-aesthetical history of the oppressed as an alternative journey to the partisan past that retrieves revolutionary resources from the past for the present
