Graphic Excursions--American Prints in Black and White, 1900-1950 Dave Williams, 1991 A sumptuous collection of American prints

Graphic Excursions--American Prints in Black and White, 1900-1950 Karen F. Beall, David W. Kiehl, 1991 North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century Jules Heller, Nancy G. Heller, 2013-12-19 First Published in 1997 North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century A Biographical Dictionary was created to fill a gap of there being a comprehensive reference work like this available even though the bibliography in English on various aspects of the history of women artists has grown exponentially during the past ten years As researchers the editors have been frustrated many times by being unable to locate basic information about many of the artists included in this volume especially those working outside the United States This leads directly to another reason for producing this particular kind of reference book to try and create a better understanding between and among the artists and art audiences in these countries

American Printmakers, 1880-1945 Lynn Barstis Williams Katz, 1993 Provides a means of finding photographic reproductions and biographical critical information on 1429 printmakers and their work a useful one of a kind contribution to art reference literature WILSON LIBRARY BULLETIN A very useful work that will save research time CHOICE

Progressive Printmakers Warrington Colescott, 1999 An important verbal and visual document of a great period of American printmaking Gordon W Gilkey Pacific Northwest College of Art and Curator of Prints and Drawings Portland Art Museum A superb chronicle of a unique period in the development of printmaking in the U S in the post World War II years This is an excellent history of a gifted group of artist professors who through their creative and innovative approach to the teaching of printmaking helped to initiate a renaissance in printmaking that has become a singular addition to twentieth century American artistic expression Clare Romano Pratt Institute and John Ross Manhattanville College Printmaking exploded on the American art scene after World War II rapidly expanding from New York to the Midwest and beyond Central to this movement and its development was the University of Wisconsin Madison where a group of talented young artists was making prints and developing a print curriculum Progressive Printmakers documents in words and stunning pictures the breakthrough aesthetics and technical innovations that made the Madison printmakers a force in the art world In lively memoirs and analyses the artists tell the story of the evolving print program at Madison The distinguished print historian the late James Watrous provides an introductory overview placing the program s development in the national context of the American print renaissance A concluding chapter traces the founding of Tandem Press an exciting extension of the Wisconsin print curriculum As Watrous notes the University s commitment has been renewed again and again during a half century when printmaking flourished in America as never before Artists featured Alfred Sessler Dean Meeker Warrington Colescott Raymond Gloeckler Jack Damer Walter Hamady William Weege Frances Myers David Becker The Cultivated Landscape Craig Pearson, Judith Nasby, 2008-08-11 By the late twentieth century idyllic depictions of eighteenth century

manorial landscapes had become artistic expressions of dislocation Western agricultural paradigms had shifted as had the relationship between art and agriculture The Cultivated Landscape uses over seventy illustrations to look at the development of Western agriculture from feudal times to the present Artists & Prints Deborah Wye, Starr Figura, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2004 Volume covers the Collection of Prints and Illustrated Books not the collection of artists books

American Prints from Hopper to Pollock Stephen Coppel, Jerzy Kierkuc-Bielinski, 2008 Outside the United States the British Museum has the most comprehensive collection of American prints of the first half of the twentieth century American Prints from Hopper to Pollock reproduces 147 outstanding prints by 74 leading American artists including George Bellows Edward Hopper Grant Wood Josef Albers Alexander Calder Louise Bourgeois and Jackson Pollock American Printmakers of the Twentieth Century Donald E. Smith, 2004 Radical Art Helen Langa, 2004-03-25 Publisher Description Labor's Canvas Laura Hapke, 2009-03-26 At an unprecedented and probably unique American moment laboring people were indivisible from the art of the 1930s By far the most recognizable New Deal art employed an endless frieze of white or racially ambiguous machine proletarians from solo drillers to identical assembly line toilers Even today such paintings particularly those with work themes are almost instantly recognizable Happening on a Depression era picture one can see from a distance the often simplified figures the intense or bold colors the frozen motion or flattened perspective and the uniformity of laboring bodies within an often naive realism or naturalism of treatment In a kind of Social Realist dance the FAP s imagined drillers haulers construction workers welders miners and steel mill workers make up a rugged industrial army In an unusual synthesis of art and working class history Labor s Canvas argues that however simplified this golden age of American worker art appears from a post modern perspective The New Deal s Federal Art Project FAP under the aegis of the Works Progress Administration WPA revealed important tensions Artists saw themselves as cultural workers who had much in common with the blue collar workforce Yet they struggled to reconcile social protest and aesthetic distance Their canvases prints and drawings registered attitudes toward laborers as bodies without minds often shared by the wider culture In choosing a visual language to reconnect workers to the larger society they tried to tell the worker from the work with varying success Drawing on a wealth of social documents and visual narratives Labor s Canvas engages in a bold revisionism Hapke examines how FAP iconography both chronicles and reframes working class history She demonstrates how the New Deal s artistically rendered workforce history reveals the cultural contradictions about laboring people evident even in the depths of the Great Depression not the least in the imaginations of the FAP artists themselves American Printmakers, 1946-1996 Betty Kelly Bryce, 1999-05-13 Offers a comprehensive index of prints during this prolific and experimental period in printmaking providing complete information on published visual images of American prints during the period as well as biocritical information on printmakers Useful for artists students teachers and researchers of art history and American intellectual history Bryce is a reference librarian associate professor and fine arts selector at the University of Alabama
