Tricks of the Light Vicki Hearne, 2008-11-15 From The Horse That Trotting The horse that trotting with open heart Against the wind achieves bend and flow Will live forever So far so good But they never do until too late Bend properly and time spreads from The momentary hesitations Of their spines circles their tossing necks Falls from their teeth like rejected oats Litters the ground like penitence This is where we come in where the drop Of time congeals the air and someone Speaks to the discouraged grass Tricks of the Light explores the often fraught relationships between domestic animals and humans through mythological figurations vibrant thought and late modern lyrics that seem to test their own boundaries Vicki Hearne 1946-2001 best known and celebrated today as a writer of strikingly original poetry and prose was a capable dog and horse trainer and sometimes controversial animal advocate This definitive collection of Hearne's poetry spans the entirety of her illustrious career from her first book Nervous Horses 1980 to never before published poems composed on her deathbed But no matter the source each of her meditative metaphysical lyrics possesses that rare combination of philosophical speculation practical knowledge of animals and an unusually elegant style unlike that of any other poet writing today Before her untimely death Hearne entrusted the manuscript to distinguished poet scholar and long time friend John Hollander whose introduction provides both critical and personal insight into the poet s magnum opus Tricks of the Light acute vibrant and deeply informed is a sensuous reckoning of the connection between humans and the natural world Praise for The Parts of Light Hearne strives to capture exactly what she knows she can t the intense immediacy of animal consciousness a consciousness free of the moral vagaries and intellectual preoccupations that pockmark human experience Her style smooth in some places choppy in others reflects both the wholeness of animal presence and the jarring fragmentary nature of human reason and reflection Hearne s poems demand participation refuse passive enjoyment she dares the reader to stay in the saddle
