Grass Sandal:

The Pastor's Sandal Path Father Henry C. Schmid, 2010-04-16 The Pastors Sandal Path relates my envisioning of God in nature I was privileged to grow up with my sister and five brothers on a farm where our parents instilled in us the presence of God in our daily lives as well as in the majesty of Gods nature My early schooling took place in a one room country school where our fantastic teacher incorporated the beauty of God and nature in the classroom and on field trips In the upper grades the Dominican sisters assisted my parents in laying a solid faith foundation After graduation I entered St Mary of the Lake Seminary Mundelein where my faith was deepened my love of Jesus increased and Gods presence in nature more keenly perceived I hope my perceptions of God in nature will help the reader to encounter God in their ordinary experiences of life

Asian Martial Arts, Monks, and Ways of Thought Michael DeMarco, 2020-11-10 Many know of the legends concerning the Shaolin Temple as the font of Asian martial arts However this was not the only temple with deep associations with combatives This anthology dives deep into the historic significance of the relationship between temples monks and martial arts As a transporter of culture it seems logical that the Indian monk Bodhidharma brought more than just Buddhist texts to the Shaolin Temple India has a wonderful tradition of martial and healing arts that he would have shared at the temple His rich story throws light on how and why monks throughout Asia have often blended martial arts with their spiritual lives Asian countries have unique histories and societies but also share important elements A major thread is religion and the mixing with ancient native shamanism and mysticism We find a blend of Buddhism Daoism Confucianism Hinduism and Islam in Asian cultures which are strongly based in monastic centers The spread of religious thought is coupled with the spread of knowledge about martial arts It is part of human nature to find sources to enforce the spiritual mental and physical condition Temples and martial arts are certainly valued for these reasons In the first chapter Michael Spiesbach details the story of Bodhi dharma His piece couples nicely with Stanley Henning s observations from a visit to the Shaolin Temple Dr Charles Holcombe details the historic connections Daoism has with martial arts while Mark Hawthorne discusses the recent state of Daoism and its prospects for the future Jerry Shine s chapter on the sohei shows the influence these warrior monks had in Japanese history Ken Jeremiah s chapter looks at the extreme asceticism Japanese monks and warriors practiced to reach their individual goals Mark Wiley s chapter deals with mystical elements as sources of power in Indonesian martial arts In the final chapter Mark Kelland brings the religious and martial traditions into our present everyday lives The Atlantic Monthly, 1878
