Gravity And Grace Reflections And Provocations A New Edition:

Gravity and Grace Joseph Sittler, 2004-11-15 This newly revised edition provides insights from one of the leading Lutheran theologians of the twentieth century The essays and reflections gathered in this volume provoke readers to think about and discuss topics such as risk and faith nature and grace the Word of God and genuine theology real education the beauty and meaning of language necessary personal choices aging and social issues Study questions are provided to encourage group discussion     The Eloquence of Grace James M. Childs, Richard A. Lischer, 2012-10-12 Joseph A Sittler 1904 1987 was one of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century distinguished for his pioneering work in ecology and for his preeminence as a preacher He gave both the Beecher Lectures at Yale and the Noble Lectures at Harvard As the preacher s theologian Sittler approached the interpretation of Scripture with a clear understanding of current critical scholarship but also in the freedom of the gospel at the center of Scripture and with the humility of a theologian of the cross In following the trajectory of the text into the preaching situation he gave a lively timeless and eloquent expression to the fact that the interpretation of texts is in the service of proclamation This collection of readings from Sittler s rich legacy contains a great many presentations and sermons that have never before appeared in print Theologically serious preaching close attention to language engagement with the best of sacred and secular culture and a deep respect for the text all characteristics of Sittler s work are the sort of features that continue to edify They remain as benchmarks for good preaching even as styles and contexts evolve     Eco-Reformation Lisa E. Dahill, Jim B. Martin-Schramm, 2016-10-31 In 2017 Christians around the world will mark the five hundredth anniversary of the Reformation In the midst of many appeals for reformation today a growing number of theologians scholars and activists around the world believe Reformation celebrations in 2017 and beyond need to focus now on the urgent need for an Eco Reformation The rise of industrial fossil fuel driven capitalism and the explosive growth in human population endanger the fundamental planetary life support systems on which life as we know it has evolved The collective impact of human production consumption and reproduction is undermining the ecological systems that support human life on Earth If human beings do not reform their relationship with God s creation unspeakable suffering will befall many especially the weakest and most vulnerable among all species The conviction at the heart of this collection of essays is that a gospel call for ecological justice belongs at the heart of the five hundredth anniversary observance of the Reformation in 2017 and as a if not the central dimension of Christian conversion faith and practice into the foreseeable future Like Luther s Ninety Five Theses this volume brings together critical biblical pastoral theological historical and ethical perspectives that constructively advance the vision of a socially and ecologically flourishing Earth     Living in the Kingdom Alvin N. Rogness, This revised and updated classic by beloved theologian Alvin N Rogness explores questions like What does it mean to be a responsible citizen of God s kingdom And how do the teachings of the Bible and the church help us meet the often perplexing problems of life Presenting clear and concise responses to dozens of questions this resource is equally valuable for adults and youth May be used in adult education confirmation and new member classes

God's Struggler Darren J. N. Middleton, Peter Bien, 1996 Argues that while Nikos Kazantzakis may have occupied the so called borderlands between belief and unbelief throughout much of his career he nonetheless possessed or was possessed by an intense awareness of the sacred These 11 essays analyze in detail Kazantzakis's lifelong struggle to give voice

Encyclopedia of Christianity in the United States George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Faithful Yet Changing Mark S. Hanson, 2002 Faithful yet Changing sets forth Bishop Mark S Hanson's vision for the ELCA a church faithful to the Scriptures and its tradition yet changing to meet the new challenges of our diverse fragmented world Bishop Hanson invites congregations pastors and lay leaders into a lively conversation to envision the future of the church and its mission Includes questions for reflection and discussion with suggested hymns and prayers

God is Green Bob Shore-Goss, 2016-10-28 At this time of climate crisis here is a practical Christian ecospirituality It emerges from the pastoral and theological experience of Reverend Robert Shore Goss who worked with his congregation by making the earth a member of the church by greening worship and by helping the church building and operations attain a carbon neutral footprint Shore Goss explores an ecospirituality grounded in incarnational compassion Practicing incarnational compassion means following the lived praxis of Jesus and the commission of the risen Christ as Gardener Jesus becomes the green face of God Restrictive Christian spiritualities that exclude the earth as an original blessing of God must expand This expansion leads to the realization that the incarnation of Christ has deep roots in the earth and the fleshly or biological tissue of life This book aims to foster ecological conversation in churches and outlines the following practices for congregations meditating on nature inviting sermons on green topics covenanting with the earth and retrieving the natural elements of the sacraments These practices help us recover ourselves as fleshly members of the earth and the network of life If we fall in love with God's creation says

Shore Goss we will fight against climate change      Evocations of Grace Joseph Sittler, 2000 Foreword by Martin E Marty
 As early as 1954 well before such popular books as Rachel Carson's Silent Spring the influential Lutheran theologian Joseph Sittler wrote on the need to think about a theology for earth Perhaps most famous for his eloquent and provocative address Called to Unity given at the 1961 World Council of Churches in New Delhi Sittler prophetically and insistently gave voice to what he called ecological commitment as theological responsibility Evocations of Grace introduces a new generation of readers to the thought of Joseph Sittler Gathering ten of Sittler's seminal works works foundational to the field yet unavailable until now the volume conveys Sittler's powerfully argument for the vital connection between Christian theology ethics and the natural world In an area where so much writing tends to be drearily repetitious Sittler even forty years later remains a fresh voice His proposal for a cosmic christology and his clarion call for the care of the earth continue to shape current eco theological reflection The book also includes a comprehensive Sittler bibliography and original essays by editors Steven Bouma Prediger and Peter Bakken that assess Sittler's pioneering contribution to environmental ethics Intended for anyone interested in the relationship between Christian faith and the environment Evocations of Grace provides the necessary perspective for thinking seriously about the earth and our responsibility to it      Ending Poverty Nancy Maeker, Peter Rogness, Ending Poverty invites people from varied faith backgrounds to commit themselves to the study of poverty issues and to just action on behalf of those who experience poverty and prejudice due to class Stories from four different settings help define poverty recognize communities of poverty explore the hidden culture of class and take a deeper systems view that shows how we are all one community A practical guide for congregational study groups this book is a call to action on behalf of the poor      God in the Raging Waters Paul Blom, Hurricanes Katrina and Rita caused enormous damage and loss of life in the Gulf Coast region in late summer and fall of 2005 Lutherans living in the region and church buildings near the destruction were hit with great losses The crisis called forth an outpouring of aid and service that continues even today The book tells the story of how the Lutheran church and its people have responded to the suffering of those most affected by the storms Following Jesus admonition to love and serve those in need the church has worked in partnership with synods and congregations to bring hope and healing to many in the region Included are powerful firsthand accounts insightful theological reflections questions for group use A portion of the proceeds of each book will be donated to the Texas Louisiana Gulf Coast Synod Disaster Relief Fund      Living Lutheran Dave Daubert, 2007-01-01 Kelly Fryer's book Reclaiming the L Word introduced one congregation's journey through renewal Now Dave Daubert provides a practical how to guide that will enable church leaders to help individual congregations walk through the process for themselves Creative and informative the book provides a straightforward approach that helps congregations reclaim Lutheran tradition for the 21st century Includes questions for individual or group reflection and an additional resources section      Reclaiming the "C" Word Kelly A. Fryer, 2006-04-24 God is up to something God is on a mission to save and bless the world and God calls the church to be part of this mission That means getting focused setting people free taking action expecting surprises and being hopeful A church on God s mission isn t a building or a building plus a pastor It s people people who carry out God s mission in the world Building on her bestselling book Reclaiming the L Word Kelly A Fryer gives practical advice on how to transform our idea of church and what that means for our lives as Christians

Reconstructing a Christian Theology of Nature Anna Case-Winters,2016-04-08 In the present ecological crisis it is imperative that human beings reconsider their place within nature and find new more responsible and sustainable ways of living Assumptions about the nature of God the world and the human being shape our thinking and consequently our acting Some have charged that the Christian tradition has been more a hindrance than a help because its theology of nature has unwittingly legitimated the exploitation of nature This book takes the current criticism of Christian tradition to heart and invites a reconsideration of the problematic elements its desacralization of nature its preoccupation with the human being to the neglect of the rest of nature its dualisms and elevation of the spiritual over material reality and its habit of ignoring or resisting scientific understandings of the natural world Anna Case Winters argues that Christian tradition has a more viable theology of nature to offer She takes a look at some particulars in Christian tradition as a way to illustrate the undeniable problems and to uncover the untapped possibilities In the process she engages conversation partners that have been sharply critical and particularly insightful feminist theology process thought and the religion and science dialogue The criticisms and insights of these partners help to shape a proposal for a reconstructed theology of nature that can more effectively fund our struggle for the fate of the earth

Development and Justice Rajula Annie Watson,2004 Restoring the health of the land is indispensable not only because it is the ground of our sustenance and survival but also land has in itself the inherent worth This book challenges humanity s indulgence and activities of development science and technology and insists for human responsibility and moral duties towards the land the sustaining mother earth which is abused ransacked of its wealth and ignored of its intrinsic value The study attempts to bring together perspectives and values that are important for preserving the rights of the land and proposes the contour of a land ethic

Commonwealth and Covenant Marcia Pally,2016-03-02 In Commonwealth and Covenant Marcia Pally argues that in order to address current socioeconomic problems we need not more economic formulas but rather a better understanding of how the world is set up an ontology of how we and the world work Without this good proposals that arise lack political will and go unimplemented Pally describes our basic setup as separability amid situatedness or distinction amid relation Though we are all unique individuals we become our singular selves through our relations and responsibilities to the people and environments around us Pally argues that our culture s overemphasis on separability individualism run amok results in greed adversarial and deceitful political discourse and chicanery resource grabbing broken relationships and anomie Maintaining that separability and situatedness can and must be considered together in public policy Pally draws on intellectual history philosophy and especially historic Christian and Jewish theologies of relationality to construct a new framework for addressing present economic and political ills      In the House of the Lord Michael Jenkins,1998 What would it mean for us to inhabit the world of the psalmist In the House of the Lord Inhabiting the Psalms of Lament Michael Jenkins invites us to discover the answer to this question by entering into that world where lamentation is turned into praise 0      Pastoral Care in Context John Patton,2005-01-01 An expert in the field of pastoral care John Patton demonstrates that pastoral care is a ministry of the church He focuses on the community of faith as an authorizer and source of care and upon the relationship between the pastor and a caring community Patton identifies and compares three paradigms of pastoral care the classical the clinical pastoral and the communal contextual This third paradigm emphasizes the caring community and the various contexts for care rather than focusing on pastoral care as the work of the ordained pastor      Celebrating Nature by Faith H. Paul Santmire,2020-09-09 Sometimes it is helpful to take one step backward in order to take two steps forward In this insightful volume H Paul Santmire draws on his long standing and widely recognized engagement with ecological theology to propose that the traditions of the Protestant Reformation rightly read offer rich resources today for those who are struggling to move forward to respond theologically to the crisis of a planet in peril and thereby to celebrate nature by faith      Theology in the Mode of Monk: An Aesthetics of Barth and Cone on Revelation and Freedom, Volume 2 Raymond Carr,2024-11-15 This captivating study engages two of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century Karl Barth the Swiss Protestant theologian who constructed his theology from above and engaged the powers in the background of Nazi Germany and James H Cone the father of Black Theology in America who constructed his theology from below and confronted white racism the most intractable issue in America s history In this three volume project Carr employs the aesthetic thinking of the jazz legend Thelonious Monk to reconceptualize restructure and advance the theologies of Barth and Cone In this second volume Carr appeals to Monk s tune Round Midnight as the analogical framework for articulating the meaning between Christ the cantus firmus and the sociopolitical histories of Karl Barth and James Cone Monk s encouragement to improvise on the melody is heard as the melodic foundation for a new form of christological reflection
