Economic Reform, Trade and Agricultural Development Ian A. Goldin, 2014-01-14 Over the past decade developing and formerly centrally planned economies have embarked on fundamental economic reforms The reforms at the macroeconomic level notably in fiscal monetary and trade policies have come under the analytic microscope However these macroeconomic reforms are a necessary but not sufficient condition for growth reforms in the productive sectors of the economy agriculture industry and services are required to generate growth and employment This book through focusing on the links between macroeconomic and agricultural reforms examines in a comparative perspective these hitherto neglected but vital links providing both theoretical and policy perspectives on the scope and sequencing of economic reform Agricultural Development and Economic Transformation John W. Mellor, 2017-10-17 This book examines the role of agriculture in the economic transformation of developing low and middle income countries and explores means for accelerating agricultural growth and poverty reduction In this volume Mellor measures by household class the employment impact of alternative agricultural growth rates and land tenure systems and impact on cereal consumption and food security The book provides detailed analysis of each element of agricultural modernization emphasizing the central role of government in accelerated growth in private sector dominated agriculture The book differs from the bulk of current conventional wisdom in its placement of the non poor small commercial farmer at the center of growth and explains how growth translates into poverty reduction This new book is a follow up to Mellor's classic prize winning text The Economics of Agricultural Development Listed as a Best Books of 2017 Economics by Financial Times Economic Reform in India Nicholas C.
