Economic Organization In Chinese Society Studies In Chinese Society:

Economic Organization in Chinese Society Lawrence W. Crissman, 1978 Economic Organization in Chinese Society. Ed. by W.E. Willmott W. E. Willmott, 1972 Economic Organization in Chinese Society. Edited by W.E. Willmott, 1972 Chinese Business Chee-Kiong Tong, 2014-05-06 The nature institutional foundations and issues surrounding the apparent success of Chinese business networks is examined in this book Major concepts such as guanxi xinyong and gangqing exploring the nature of trust relationships and sentiments in Chinese business networks are re examined A significant amount of literature has been devoted to the study of Chinese business and it largely falls into two broad schools the culturalist approach arguing for an essentialist formulation to explain success and the market approach suggesting that there is nothing inherently unique about Chinese business This book critiques both these approaches and argues based on primary data collected in various countries and with case studies of a large number of Chinese businesses that another approach the institutional embedded approach provides a better explanation for the success and failure of Chinese business and Chinese business networks

Overseas Chinese Christian Entrepreneurs in Modern China Joy Kooi-Chin Tong, 2013-10-01 Inspired by Max Weber's thesis on the Protestant ethic Overseas Chinese Christian Entrepreneurs in Modern China sets out to understand the role and influence of Christianity on Overseas Chinese businesspeople working in contemporary China Through its in depth interviews and participant observations involving 60 Overseas Chinese entrepreneurs from Hong Kong Taiwan Southeast Asia and the United States the text discusses how Christianity has come to fulfill an increasingly visible and dynamic function in the country most notably as a new source of business morality

Perspectives on Modern China Kenneth Lieberthal, 1991 The conveners the editors of this book of the September 1989 Four Anniversaries China Conference in Annapolis asked the contributors to look back from that point in time to consider four major events in modern Chinese history in the perspective of the rapid changes that were shaping the Chinese society economy polity and sense of place in the world in the 1980s a time when China was making rapid strides toward becoming more integrated with the outside world With contributions by distinguished scholars in the field the four anniversaries considered are the High Qing the May Fourth Movement forty years of communism in China and ten years of the Deng era

Knowledge Production in Mao-Era China Rui Kunze, Marc Andre Matten, 2021-10-15 This book traces and analyzes the transformation of the public discourse of science and technology in Mao era China Based on extensive primary sources such as science dissemination materials and technical handbooks as well as mass media products of the Great Leap Forward and the Cultural Revolution periods this book delineates the emergence of a pragmatic approach to knowledge in society To achieve the goal of fast modernization with limited financial human and material resources the party state accommodated Western and local modern and traditional knowledges in the fields of agricultural mechanization steel production and Chinese veterinary medicine The case studies demonstrate that scientific knowledge production in the Mao era included various social groups and was entangled with political and cultural issues This reveals and explains the continuity of scientific thinking across the historical divides of 1949 and 1978 which has hitherto been underestimated

The Individualization of Chinese Society Yunxiang Yan, 2020-08-19 Chinese society has seen phenomenal change in the last 30 years Two of the most profound changes have been the rise of the individual in both public and private spheres and the consequent individualization of Chinese society itself Yet despite China's recent dramatic entrance into global politics and economics neither of these significant shifts has been fully analysed China may indeed present an alternative model of social transformation in the age of globalisation so its path to development may have particular implications for the developing world The Individualization of Chinese Society reveals how individual agency has been on the rise since the 1970s and how this has impacted on everyday life and Chinese society more broadly The book presents a wide range of detailed case studies on the impact of economic policy patterns of kinship changes in marriage relations and the socio-economic position of women the development of youth culture the politics of consumerism and shifting power relations in everyday life

Science and Civilisation in China, Part 9, Textile Technology: Spinning and Reeling Joseph Needham, Dieter Kuhn, 1988-06-09 This study the first of two parts gives a comprehensive account of Chinese textiles and textile technology and deals with the evolution of bast fibre spinning and silk reeling in the history of China These operations are the basic techniques in the production of yarn and thread pre-requisite to weaving and any study of Chinese textile technology must start with the raw material obtained from fibre plants such as hemp ramie jute cotton etc and silk reeled off from cocoons of the domestic silkworm The time span covered runs from the neolithic to the nineteenth century Archaeological and pictorial evidence the bulk of it hitherto unpublished in the West is brought together with Chinese textual sources which are extensively translated and interpreted to illustrate Chinese achievements in this field Professor Kuhn's study reveals the way in which Chinese textile technological inventiveness has influenced textile production in other regions of the world and in medieval Europe It explains how textile technology reached its high point between the tenth and thirteenth centuries and attempts to indicate the reasons for its subsequent relative decline The development of the textile industry in Europe was a key factor in the rise of capitalism In the case of China after Sung times textile technology and the organisation of textile labour may help indicate why such a development did not take place in China

Merchants, Mandarins, and Modern Enterprise in Late Ch'ing China Wellington K. K. Chan, 2020-03-17 An in-depth study of the relationships among merchants the state and commerce and industry in Late Ch'ing China including capital finance investments corporate law and government policy

The Chinese Communist Party In Power, 1949-1976 Jacques Guillermaz, 2019-07-16 This book traces the history of the Chinese Communist Party's behavior toward itself and the way it has created and developed the regime on the state of affairs at home and abroad and on a compelling ideology dominated by the giant-like personality of Mao Tse-tung

Chinese Hinterland Capitalism and Shanxi Piaohao Luman Wang, 2020-09-21 This book examines Shanxi piaohao private financiers from the Chinese hinterland

in the economic and business history of late imperial China forming the original theory of Chinese hinterland capitalism Deepening the existing understanding of capitalist dynamics at work in the families and financial institutions of late imperial China the book foregrounds the expansionist role played by Shanxi piaohao in transforming China's market and trade from an agrarian empire to a modern nation state In a departure for economic history it also focuses on the histories of the people and their lifeworlds behind financial institutions which have previously been erased by universal capitalist narratives Persistent binary oppositions between coastal areas and hinterland state and market and institutions and families are each transcended in recounting the local histories of global capital in the marginalized countryside and borderlands of China Based on a wealth of archival material and correspondence with Shanxi piaohao offices and branches Chinese Hinterland Capitalism and Shanxi Piaohao will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese and economic history anthropology and postcolonial studies more generally

The Four Little Dragons Ezra F. Vogel,1991 Vogel brings masterly insight to the underlying question of why Japan and the little dragons Taiwan South Korea Hong Kong and Singapore have been so extraordinarily successful in industrializing while other developing countries have not

Making Local China Xue Li ,2018 This book presents a case study on the city of Yangzhou in China from 1853 to 1928 During this time the local society of Yangzhou experienced profound changes towards modernization when the nation state of China gradually took shape at the local level Yangzhou under the Qing was transformed into Yangzhou under modern China The diverse interactions between the Protestant missions and the multiple actors in the local society kept generating new local context and giving special input to the shaping of modernity in the local society This study analyses the changing situations of the local society as well as the role of Protestant Church as part of the local social fabric and tries to achieve a better understanding of how modern China developed out of armed conflicts power play and cooperations among different actors in the local society

On Their Own Terms Benjamin A. Elman,2009-07-01 Since the mid 19th century imperial reformers Republicans Guomindang party cadres and Communists have all prioritized science and technology Elman offers an account of the evolution of native Chinese science over four centuries under the influence of missionaries In the end he argues the Chinese produced modern science on their own terms

Ungrounded Empires Aihwa Ong,Donald Nonini,2003-12-16 This book examines Chinese transnationalism as a distinctive domain within the new flexible capitalism emerging in the Asia Pacific region It is based on new ethnographic research and interweaves anthropology culture and politics
