Economic Restructuring, Technology Transfer, and Human Resource Development B. R. Virmani, Kala Rao, 1999-01-01

Industrial Restructuring in East Asia Seiichi Masuyama, Donna Vandenbrink, Chia Siow Yue, 2001-12-01 This book is about the restructuring of industry in ten East Asian economies at the start of the twenty first century It examines the dynamic aspects of the region s industrial structures the changes occurring with globalisation fuelled by liberalisation and by a paradigm shift from industrial technology to information technology The traditional flying geese concept is less relevant to explaining the economic and industrial development in the region as the pattern has become less predictable Developing the Global South Paulos Milkias, 2010 For four decades the UN has attempted to foster development in the countries of the global south The book provides a synopsis of these efforts from the Brandt Commission Report to Boutros Boutros Ghali s Agenda for Development Prof Milkias presents opposing arguments in allotting responsibility for the growing gap between the North and the South and details the Millennium Development Goals and assesses their successes and failures so far He provides suggestions for closing the gap for removing the debt burden that is currently crushing the nations of the South and for relieving the poverty ignorance and disease that plague so much of humanity Towards a New Era M. L. Sondhi, 2001

Enhancing Competitiveness in Small Developing States Robert A Stoddard, 2024-08-15 This book is designed to help students practitioners and policy makers gain an understanding of the existential challenges that confront small developing states that have resulted in several economic fallouts to the extent that some countries have experienced the demise of many of their traditional industries It also presents a compendium of approaches tools and policies that can assist in resolving some of the lingering challenges faced by these countries It is envisaged that these approaches will invariably increase their competitiveness and thereby contribute to economic growth The book also analyzed the policy and regulatory environment in several small developing states and has developed approaches that are critical to strengthening the institutional capacity in support of the SME sector This is an imperative in their quest to become more productive and competitive and thereby create opportunities for sustained economic growth Emanating from a regional study of the industrial status in the CARICOM Member States it proposes new and revised approaches to public policy on many development issues The book is replete with insights inspiring real life cases and offers alternative approaches to development Global Technology Transfer John Chumack, 2002 Governments the world over fret continuously about the low level of transfer of technology especially within their own countries The general problem is military to industry although the variations are numerous Problems of presentation offering and support complicate an already byzantine world Yet somewhere within this dilemma lie the seeds of tomorrow s economic uptick Besides the nontrivial problems involved here the reluctance of the people having the technology to share it with someone who can profit from it stands out This book presents the issues and offers a comprehensive bibliography for easy access Liberalisation and Human Resource Management Arun Monappa, Mahrukh

Engineer,1999 Liberalisation and Human Resource Management examines current issues in economic policy related to the management of human resources now and in the future Arun Monappa and Marukh Engineer reflect on the implications of economic liberalisation in India organisational restructuring including privatisation alliances and mergers Indian labour policy different management strategies future changes projecting to the year 2020 such as diversity and technology

Banking Sector Reforms in India and Performance Evaluation of Commercial Banks Debaprosanna Nandy,2010-07-29 The Committee on Financial System CFS popularly known as Narasimham Committee was set up in 1991 to make recommendations for bringing about the necessary reforms in the financial sector Narasimham Committee appraised and acknowledged the success and progress of Indian banks since the major banks were nationalized on 19 July 1969 Unfortunately the developments were witnessed only in the field of expansion and spread of bank branches generation of huge employment and mobilization of savings rather than also in improvement in efficiency Besides corruption fraud misutilization in public money outdated technology and politicization in policy making were found to be major drawbacks in the real progress of the banks As the banking sector plays an important and crucial role in the economy of a country for its stabilization and balanced growth major reforms were urgently needed after 22 years of nationalization to revive Indian banks This was not only in the field of profitability but also in the overall efficiency viz better management of non performing assets NPAs satisfying capital requirements increased cost effectiveness and control enhanced customer service improved technology establishing competitive interest rate effective man power planning introduction of asset liability management better productivity launching new products and becoming more competent to face the upcoming challenges and competition from foreign as well as private sector banks in the era of globalization and liberalization The objectives of the study are to examine the need and relevance of reforms in Indian banks to assess the efficiency and profitability of Indian banks during reforms from different perspectives to discuss various issues of NPA management in the light of reforms to measure the performance of the banks of West Bengal during the reforms to analyse the role of information technology and its relevancy in Indian banks in the era of reforms and to impart necessary suggestions for the improvement of the efficiency and profitability of Indian banks

Structural Adjustment, Global Trade, and the New Political Economy of Development Biplab Dasgupta,1998 The changes in the global economy are so profound this book argues that the world is now confronted with nothing less in both institutional and policy terms than a new political economy of development The author provides an intellectually commanding survey of this new terrain He subjects its economic and ideological assumptions to trenchant critique and shows how the rules of the game primarily reflect the interests of the rich and powerful countries of the North He also surveys the economic performance of the various regions of the South and explores the real reasons for the success of certain Asian economies reasons which run counter to so many of the policy prescriptions laid down by the West for the rest of the South Industrial Technology Development in Malaysia Greg Felker, K. S. Jomo, Rajah Rasiah, 2013-02-01 This book and its companion Technology Competitiveness and the State examine and evaluate Malaysian industrialization in terms of its experience of and prospects for industrial technology development The focus is on the development of Malaysia's technological industrial base from a sector and firm specific perspective including the role of foreign multinationals in this process Industrial Technology Development in Malaysia provides a valuable analysis of the technological development of a Newly Industrializing Country and reflects on whether existing development strategies can be maintained in the wake of the financial crises sweeping the East Asian economies Technology Assimilation in Joint Ventures Manik Kher, 2001 This book documents a well researched investigation based on actual joint venture JV operations in India It reiterates the need for better options to increase technological self reliance and further strengthen the Indian economy Coping with Liberalisation P S Palande, 2000-07-31 With the initiation of economic liberalisation in the early nineties India's industrial sector has been called upon to perform a crucial developmental role for the continued success of the on going structural adjustment programme This book examines Indian industry's response to and strategy for coping with the far reaching economic reforms and changes in industrial policy It discusses how industry has braced itself to face the challenges of both domestic and external competition Beginning with an historical overview of structural reforms Dr Palande describes the strategies adopted by Indian enterprises in the new environment The author also devotes separate chapters to discuss the implications of these changes for the public sector and the imperatives for government action including the need to further dismantle growth retarding restrictions on industry The book concludes with a discussion on how the momentum of growth which seems to have slowed down can be regained and how the gains so far made can be consolidated by further reforms Economic and Political Weekly, 1999 International Labour Documentation, 1998-08 Essays on Economic Liberalisation and Reforms Bomma Satyanarayan, 2009 Globalization refers to the increasing interconnectedness of nations and peoples around the world through trade investment travel popular culture and other forms of interaction In the present day context it is necessary and unavoidable Economics reforms liberalization and privatization are the necessary steps for this An Alternative to Investment Promotion in Developing Countries Kallummal Murali, 2001 Journal of Scientific and Industrial Research, 1997 Resources in Education, 1997 The Free Trade Area of the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa Victor Murinde, 2017-05-15 In the last ten years while GATT and later WTO were actively advocating the doctrine of free trade the world witnessed unprecedented formation of regional trading blocs Focusing on the prospects and challenges of the free trade area of the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA and the question of regional trade integration the book also combines in depth theoretical and empirical analysis with leading edge discussion of institutional and policy issues from a variety of African economies This text makes a timely contribution not only to our understanding of the prospects and challenges of regional trading arrangements in Africa but also to the paradigm of regional trade integration in developing countries Systematically structured with thematically linked chapters and rigorous referencing it is an essential guide for an international audience of academics researchers students and practitioners in International Trade International Economics Development Finance and Development Economics
