The Economics and Financing of Education Roe Lyell Johns, Edgar Leroy Morphet, Kern Alexander, 1983 The Economics and Financing of Education Roe Lyell Johns, Edgar Leroy Morphet, 1975 Encyclopedia of Education Economics and Finance Dominic J. Brewer, Lawrence O. Picus, 2014-08-25 Economics can be a lens for understanding the behavior of schools districts states and nations in meeting education needs of their populaces as well as for understanding the individual decisions made by administrators teachers and students Insights from economics help decision makers at the state level understand how to raise and distribute funds for public schools in an equitable manner for both schools and taxpayers Economics also can assist researchers in analyzing effects of school spending and teacher compensation on student outcomes And economics can provide important insights into public debates on issues such as whether to offer vouchers for subsidizing student attendance at private schools This two volume encyclopedia contains over 300 entries by experts in the field that cover these issues and more Features This work of 2 volumes in both print and electronic formats contains 300 350 signed entries by significant figures in the field Entries conclude with cross references and suggestions for further readings to guide students to in depth resources Although organized in A to Z fashion a thematic Reader s Guide in the front matter groups related entries by topic Also in the front matter a chronology provides students with historical perspective on the development of education economics and finance as a field of study The entire work concludes with a Resources appendix and a comprehensive Index In the electronic version the index Reader s Guide and cross references combine to provide effective search and browse capabilities The Economics and Financing of Hong Kong Education Yue-ping Chung, Richard Yue-chim Wong, 1992 Financing of Education for Economic Growth Study Group in the Economics of Education, 1966 Financing Education Walter W. McMahon, Terry G. Geske, 1982 Financing Education is intended for students faculty and policymakers in the economics of education in school finance and in the financing of higher education Those in educational administration who are concerned with the management of retrenchment and who are aware of the important role of innovation and new research in reducing costs meeting society s needs and adapting to change should also find it interesting and suggestive From the preface The Routledge Handbook of Islamic Economics and Finance Hussain Mohi-ud-Din Qadri, M. Ishaq Bhatti, Mohd Azmi Omar, 2025-08-06 Islamic finance is one of the fastest growing sectors of the finance industry due to a number of factors including the technology boom fintech blockchain and higher oil and commodity prices but also in particular its demand by 1 5 billion Muslims around the globe It enjoys sustainably higher positive returns compared to its conventional finance counterparts specifically during financial crises Moreover it plays a major role in implementing the UN s Sustainable Development Goals due to its non traditional source of long term fund financing that advances social environmental and economic goals The Routledge Handbook of Islamic Economics and Finance offers a detailed introduction to the current scholarship in this ever expanding and emerging field The book is divided into three parts covering Islamic business Islamic economics and Islamic finance respectively Each chapter provides a balanced overview of current knowledge identifying issues and discussing the relevant debates The book seeks to explore the current developments and trends in Islamic economics Islamic banking and Islamic capital markets It also covers the areas of Islamic social finance impact investment and Islamic microfinance SMEs poverty alleviation and financial inclusion Additionally it launches the debate on the emergence progress challenges and future potential of Islamic fintech and the Islamic digital economy Furthermore it sheds light on subjects such as the marketing of Islamic financial services and products the circular economy and the blue economy from an Islamic financial perspective As well as surveying the current state of the art the authors also reflect on where the research agenda is likely to advance in the future making this the definitive resource for scholars and researchers in this area

Encyclopedia of Education Economics & Finance, 2014 Economics and Finance of Higher Education Linda DeAngelo, Kristin DeLuca, Michael Gunzenhauser, 2014 Since the publication of the 2nd Edition of this Reader in 2001 there has been a large increase in the amount of research and scholarly publication on issues of higher education finance This is not surprising given the pattern of decreased public funding and increased student cost over this period Strategic planning and its relationship to budgeting under growing financial constraints have been of continuing interest among both higher education scholars and practitioners What has changed however is the greater inclusion of explicitly economic perspectives in publications dealing with various aspects of postsecondary education Because of these changing publication patterns it was appropriate to add the word Economics to the title of this edition Inside you ll find a mix of scholarly and practitioner oriented publications as well as thoughtful scholar written section introductions that bring the reader up to date on the current issues
