Grandfather's Tale Timothy Erenberger, 2001-12-26 Every grandfather has a tale and this is the tale of Georg Frick a German sniper for the German Army during World War II Georg Frick is an old man now but in 1937 the German Army drafted him Grandfather's Tale is the story of Georg's transformation from reluctant new soldier into a master sniper Georg fought in dozens of battles in several countries including Poland Belgium the Soviet Union Crete Italy and Germany After proving himself to be an exceptional sniper he joined a special team of German paratroopers This group of expert soldiers was parachuted into Eben Emael the strongest single fortress in the world Georg's story is one of adventure and survival under extreme circumstances including the brutal Soviet winter and the final battle the Battle of Berlin Join Georg as he recounts his harrowing experiences to his grandson in hopes that he may learn the lessons of war and not repeat them Grandfather's Tale is an action packed journey through the entirety of the World War II German weapons tactics and strategy on a platoon level are explained with meticulous detail Several battles including the Battle of the Bulge and the Invasion of Crete are told from a German perspective Erenberger's story is fast paced his descriptions of the conditions a sniper must undergo through in each engagement were unforgettable This book is strongly recommended for all who want to know what the big war was all about in the eyes of a German sniper Capt M R Doehrmann USMC World War II in Literature for Youth Patricia Hachten Wee, Robert James Wee, 2004-11-10 This comprehensive volume provides a wealth of information with annotated listings of more than 3 500 titles a broad sampling of books on the war years 1939 1945 Includes both fiction and nonfiction works about all aspects of the war Professional resources for educators aligned to the educational standards for social studies technical references periodicals and electronic resources a directory of WWII museums memorials and other institutions and topics for exploration complement this excellent library and classroom resource Abacar the Wizard Timothy D Erenberger, 2001 Take an adventure upon the Magical Earth The year is 564 AD The Roman Empire's rule of Europe is being challenged by a fearsome army of goblins The only power capable of stopping this force is a young wizard named Abacar Learn how he and his friends travel across Europe in a flying ship and how they deal with dragons orcs witches and other monsters They also meet many new friends along the way including elves dwarves and a unicorn named Firemane MG 34 and MG 42 Machine Guns Chris McNab, 2012-10-20 With the MG 34 the German Wehrmacht introduced an entirely new concept in automatic firepower the general purpose machine gun GPMG In itself the MG 34 was an excellent weapon an air cooled recoil operated machine gun that could deliver killing firepower at ranges of more than 1 000m Yet simply by changing its mount and feed mechanism the operator could radically transform its function On its standard bipod it was a light machine gun ideal for infantry assaults on a tripod it could serve as a sustained fire medium machine gun During World War II the MG 34 was superseded by a new GPMG the MG 42 More efficient to manufacture and more robust it had a blistering 1 200rpm rate of fire Nicknamed Hitler s buzzsaw by Allied troops it was arguably the finest all round GPMG ever produced and alongside the MG 34 it inflicted heavy casualties Featuring specially commissioned full colour artwork and drawing upon numerous technical manuals and first hand accounts this study explores the technological development varied roles and lasting influence of the revolutionary MG 34 and MG 42 machine guns and their postwar successors

Strathcarnage Matt Hamilton,2009-07-20 A ragged stranger appears in a Scottish coastal town and reports his discovery of the mythical and feared lost village of Strathcarnage to a pair of cynical local policemen As he slowly reveals his extraordinary tales in detail the men begin to question their scepticism This book has 19 chapter illustrations by Chris Odgers

A Viking in the Family Keith Gregson,2011-09-30 Genealogist Keith Gregson takes the reader on a whistle stop tour of quirky family stories and strange ancestors rooted out by amateur and professional family historians Each lively entry tells the story behind each discovery and then offers a brief insight into how the researcher found and then followed up their leads revealing a range of chance encounters and the detective qualities required of a family historian For example one researcher discovered that his great great grandfather as a child was carried across the main street of West Hartlepool on the back of the famous tightrope walker Blondin The Victorian newspaper report said that the rope had been tied between two chimney pots Research into the author s own family revealed that one of his nineteenth century ancestors lost his leg in a Midlands coal mining accident and that the amputated leg was buried in the local cemetery to be joined by the rest of him on his final demise A Viking in the Family is full of similar unexpected discoveries in the branches of family trees

JFK and LBJ Godfrey Hodgson,2015-01-01 A firsthand observer weighs the achievements and failures of two fabled American presidents As a young White House correspondent during the Kennedy and Johnson years in Washington D C Godfrey Hodgson had a ringside seat covering the last two great presidents of the United States John F Kennedy and Lyndon B Johnson two men who could not have been more different Kennedy s wit and dashing style his renown as a national war hero and his Ivy League Boston Brahmin background stood in sharp contrast to Lyndon Johnson s rural humble origins in Texas his blunt forceful but effective political style his lackluster career in the navy and his grassroots populist instincts Hodgson a sharp eyed witness throughout the tenure of these two great men now offers us a new perspective enriched by his reflections since that time a half century ago He offers us a fresh dispassionate contrast of these two great men by stripping away the myths to assess their achievements ultimately asking whether Johnson has been misjudged He suggests that LBJ be given his due by history arguing that he was as great a president as perhaps even greater than JFK The seed that grew into this book was the author s early perception that JFK s performance in office was largely overrated while LBJ s was consistently underrated Hodgson asks key questions If Kennedy had lived would he have matched Johnson s ambitious Great Society achievements Would he have avoided Johnson s disastrous commitment in Vietnam Would Nixon have been elected his successor and if not how would American politics and parties look today Hodgson combines lively anecdotes with sober analyses to arrive at new conclusions about the U S presidency and two of the most charismatic figures ever to govern from the Oval Office American Polar Bears in Russia William Thomas Venner,2023-01-25 At the end of World War I the U S Army 339th Infantry nicknamed the Polar Bears was deployed to northern Russia to prevent Allied supplies stockpiled near the port city of Archangel from falling into the hands of the Bolsheviks Drawing on firsthand accounts from men in the regiment their 18 month campaign is narrated from the point of view of the riflemen NCOs and officers of companies I and M Each chapter highlights an individual soldier s experience fighting the Red Army and the Arctic winter a quarter century before the Cold War Weird War Tales (1997-) #3 Grant Morrison,Paul Jenkins,2016-08-04 In the darkness of a little boy s bedroom a toy soldier is subjected to an elaborate courtmartial On the war torn streets of Sarajevo a Bosnian marksman hunts a mysterious Chetnik sniper On the corpse strewn fields of No Man s Land a good soldier learns that the difference between life and death is a three letter word Bomb Alley David Yates,2007-06-04 This is the untold story of the Falklands War as experienced by a below decks seaman on one of the most important ships to be despatched to the South Atlantic It is a no holds barred account as seen through the eyes of a Royal Navy matelot who shared the terror of the first encounter with Argentinean forces when South Georgia was retaken from the invaders in Operation Paraquat Then HMS Antrim lead the first attack into the North Falklands Sound where she destroyed enemy defences and later became part of the main force anti aircraft defences in the infamous Bomb Alley or San Carlos Water During one of the many air attacks the ship was struck by a bomb that destroyed her defensive missile system but through pure chance the bomb did not explode and remained aboard wedged in the aft heads All around the stricken ship other RN vessels were taking extreme punishment from the almost continuous onslaught from low flying Argentinean jets HMS Antelope HMS Coventry and the Atlantic Conveyor were all lost within a short period whilst the army was trying to establish a bridgehead True Stories of the Great War Francis Trevelyan Miller,1917 Country Life ,1915 The Bandsman's Daughter Irene Thomas,1979
