Author Bio. Introduction. Grandma was not only a good household manager taking care of her large family on a limited budget, but she also needed to be a good cook and housekeeper. That is why she used her experience and knowledge to make sure that she learned all the easiest shortcuts which would prevent her from throwing away items which were damaged, including clothes, food, and other items around the house and garden. Consider this damage control done by grandma. Grandma was the first recycler. Dresses were handed down from child to child, and if there was no child of that particular age and that dress size it was handed over to another member of the family where the dress could be utilized through more years of wear and tear After the dress was torn to nearly rags and tatters she used the cloth for stuffing cushions and pillows or for patching other dresses This may sound extremely laughable to our world where there is plenty and we can throw away or just give away things when we think they are getting old but these were the ways in which household managers the females were brought up in the East and the West down the centuries Waste not want not was their motto So enjoy reading through these collected damage control tips and techniques which are going to help you keep healthy fit your house pest free and other techniques all brought to you down the ages and time tested Let us start with the kitchen The maximum number of accident sickness at home and the kitchen somehow seems to be the gunpoint Culinary mishaps take place all the time there But when they do there should be no need to panic There is a solution to every problem if you do not fall into attitudes of hysteria and shock at every little disaster And I know a few men and women who enjoy what is known in the 20th century as creating So instead of acting like a prima donna Cordon Bleu chef you can follow something my grandmother said there are absolutely no problems there are only imaginative solutions Especially in matters of these things happening when you are entertaining How to Fix Things in the Kitchen 201 Fat-burning Recipes Cathi Graham,1991 Cathi Graham s fresh start weight loss program Grandma's Kitchen Jason Shulman,1985 In the Kitchen with Grandma Lydia E.
