Grandma's Bill Martin Waddell,2000      My Journey Through Time Pauline Parkin,2011-01-26 At the age of seventeen Pauline Parkin fell in love with an American soldier who was serving in her native England After a brief courtship they married An emotional upheaval ensued when the teenage bride left her home and family in England to begin her new life in the United States Now she shares her story in My Journey through Time Evoking both tears and smiles along the way Pauline offers an in depth look at the times of her life Dealing long distance with the illnesses and ultimately deaths of her parents Pauline shares the range of feelings that she experienced as she and her husband built their new lives together in her new country Then abruptly their lives change as well and their marriage comes to an end The end of her marriage leaves her struggling with two children Without family support or work experience she boldly reinvents herself as head of the household As a single mother her determination enables her to work two jobs and long hours sometimes fourteen hour days Paulines life story offers a moving and inspiring testament to the strength of the human spirit      I Aint Noways Tired: Grandma

Hands Brinase Merritt,2013-05-30 A book that is non fiction about a black family trials and tribulations and triumphs in the south and a black womans traditional calling of midwifery to help her community and women who otherwise would be unable to pay the fee of the white doctor in town to deliver their babies A story of a family that overcame the odds and made a way out of no way while farming picking cotton and being treated unfairly but continued to have love and kindness in their community and befriended a white family that the midwife my grandmother would deliver their children as well and they would coexist on the same land amicably A resurgence of midwifery is taking place in the twenty first century this tradition of old has never completely vanished especially in third world countries where 75% of babies are delivered by midwives

Grandma's in the Basement Elaine Webster,2001-04-25 The author s stories and comments addresses the important question of care for our elderly in today s society It is done in a compassionate funny and descriptive manner leaving the reader with a definite feeling for the elder s soul in America      Memories from Grandma's Playhouse Joyce

Yoder,2013-01-03 Raised on a small farm in a poor community in northern lower Michigan Joyce learned the value of working together as a family the importance of the community and church pulling together during difficult times and experienced the sorrows of death and the joys of childhood You will laugh and cry with her as she shares the good the bad the funny the sad and the mundane experiences that helped to shape her into the woman she is today Joyce and her husband live in Colorado where they enjoy the beauty of the Rocky Mountains and work in the local hospital      Grandma's Snowy Mountain

Adventures Veda Taylor Strong,2007-03-27 A panic had taken over the country and left everyone in a national financial depression Money was very short and people were not spending as they had been The opportunists had packed up and left the Tacoma area and the population fell as thousands of people left to find work elsewhere John was very sick and worried about what would happen to Jane and the kids After much thinking and worrying he contacted his brother in Montana a wealthy sheep rancher and his mother and sister He had many acres for the kids to grow and roam on After the exchange of letters Ed was happy to take Jane and the family under his wing and help her out as much as he could With this done John made all necessary plans

Wait at the Big Tree Frances L. Sirianni,2012-05 When they did need to find us our meeting place outside the school building was the Big Tree Wait at the Big Tree they told us It s where they dropped us off and picked us up After all these years that tree still stands at the corner of Crescent Street and Newtown Avenue in Astoria Queens The school is gone the nuns are gone our parents and most of the family are now gone There are no sounds of bells ringing no kids lining up on the block but that tree is still there The only remaining vestige of my school days It s funny and maybe a bit symbolic given the sanctity of this particular ground that in a city a tree would out last a building and our very way of life In the sometimes funny sometimes heartbreaking saga of the Sirianni family of New York City author Fran Sirianni captures the zeitgeist of a generation that was born in the 1950s questioned things in the 1960s and came of age in the 1970s Fran s first person narrative tells the story of her family s arrival in the United States and how they embraced the opportunity of the America Dream to build a life of prosperity When tragedy strikes the family comes together to carry on despite the uncertainty of the times in which they live Wait at the Big Tree is a story of family of loss and of the inevitable change that occurs as we all come into our own

Grandma's Secrets & Memories Solveig Rogstad Larsen, 2004-03 This Norwegian immigrant's true adventures and lifetime story reveals how special an everyday common person's life can be when dedicated early and diligently to Jesus A
Gun and Cherries in the Bucket of Blood Greg Casadei, 2014-05 Italian immigrants of the early 20th century experienced an inevitable and often emotionally painful cultural transformation after arriving in America Worlds turned upside down Lives changed forever Greg Casadei captures what that process was like in this touching tale about his family's Americanization He also provides insights and lessons that his experiences provided along the way The Americanization of Greg's family began with his grandparents in Sassofeltrio Italy in the early 1900s It ended with the January 2010 passing of his father in Tucson Arizona In between lies a rich story of fear and faith hardships and overcoming respect and toughness risk taking and rewards family and friends love and togetherness separation and crumbled foundations death and despair and the gradual unraveling of a once tight knit family Through historical facts anecdotes and humor Greg provides a vivid picture of what it was like growing up in an Italian family in America You'll laugh cry and want more as Greg recounts stories about colorful family members and their lives in Sassofeltrio Oakwood Michigan and Tucson Arizona After turning the last page you'll understand why the Americanization of Greg's family was so painful but why he wouldn't have traded the experience for anything
Grandma's Cookie Jar Terrence Edward Creek, 2013-10 Ray Renshaw retires and plans a leisurely travelling holiday around Australia Things don't always go to plan and Ray finds himself in some unexpected and difficult situations The characters of the Australian outback feature prominently along with other not so savoury characters A plane crash sets up Ray's first adventure as he tries to survive in the bush He also has some good times as a hotel owner and country gentleman His travels allow him to meet and get to know many different true Aussies
Vibe Corey J. Miles, 2023-11-27 Where exactly does the South begin and end Current maps are too rigid to account for the ways Black people have built the South while being simultaneously excluded from it Drawing from the different ways Black artists in the 252 area code in North Carolina use vibe as a mode of knowing and communication author Corey J Miles illustrates how Black feeling and unfeeling offer entry points into the contemporary South that challenge static and monolithic notions of the region Placing the local artists in conversation with other southern cultural creators such as 2 Chainz Rod Wave and Rapsody these ethnographic narratives demonstrate that there are multiple Souths with overlapping and distinct commitments to working through pain sound and belonging In Vibe The Sound and Feeling of Black Life in the American South Miles narrates how southern Black sound feeling and being is constantly policed surveilled and criminalized In doing so he re narrates the region as the carceral South to capture the ways people in the South and beyond can feel the emotional weight of the criminalization of Blackness Pain music a subgenre of trap music is used to take the listener to moments of violence to allow them to hear the desires anger and silences that bind Black life in community Through conceptions of ratchet hood and ghetto Black artists turn away from respectable images and unmap the South In trap music they move the South to a space where multiple modes of being find respect and care

Can We Please Give the Police Department to the Grandmothers? Junauda Petrus, 2023-04-04 Based on the viral poem by Coretta Scott King honoree Junauda Petrus this picture book debut imagines a radically positive future where police aren't in charge of public safety and community well being Petrus first published and performed this poem after the shooting of Michael Brown in Ferguson Missouri in 2014 With every subsequent police shooting it has taken on new urgency culminating in the 2020 murder of George Floyd by a Minneapolis police officer blocks from Junauda's home In its picture book incarnation Can We Please Give the Police Department to the Grandmothers is a joyously radical vision of community based safety and mutual aid It is optimistic provocative and ultimately centered in fierce love Debut picture book artist Kristen Uroda has turned Junauda's vision for a city without precincts into a vibrant and flourishing urban landscape filled with wise and loving grandmothers of all sorts

A Gift For Sarah R.A. Rios, 2017-05-22 Revision 2019 The inception of this book involving Mr Bill Modeen was brought to life by the personal experience of the loss of two dear loved ones due to this terrible disease Each year hundreds of thousands of men women and children give up their lives to one of this world's number one killers cancer The death of a loved one to this terrible disease has left many families in shambles as they struggle to deal with the whys and what ifs This story brings their lives into focus as there is more to these sufferers than the shell that is left after the ravages of this disease Yes they all have a story to tell they all have their joys and happiness as well as their pain and suffering We all do well to do our part in helping these and others to combat and succeed in winning the fight against cancer Bill and Sarah's story of true love will live on through you the reader as you share with them in their excitements and sorrows their ups and downs as their life time is spread out before you this will be a story you will not soon forget

Grandma Tell Me a Story Edith Bennett MacLelland, 2011-08-23 Most children love to hear stories especially at bedtime The favorite story of my two sons was told them by their father over and over again of which they never tired HOW HE CAME OVER TO AMERICA FROM SCOTLAND ON A BIG BOAT My purpose in writing this story now of my voyage to Africa on a freighter is that my grandchildren and great grandchildren might enjoy hearing of some of my experiences which in the providence of God have taken place in my life Some statistics and a little information was acquired from the library before leaving for the various countries This has been interwoven in my travelogue all of which was written on board ship
