When Grandma Looked at the Moon Mary Katherine Y. H. Hom-Smith,2025-03-18 A personal and poignant account of Mary Katherine Hom Smith's relationship with her grandmother during the end stages of life. When Grandma Looked at the Moon traces through its narrative the process of grief and healing for a close knit family of faith and the friends who came alongside them. Woven throughout this season are the travels and unusual circumstances of the author who found herself on her own internal journey of exploring aspects of Christian practice particularly in the area of healing and the crystallization of her own values through the challenges and opportunities of life. As the moon, sun, and stars appear frequently inspiring their viewers and reminding the family of both their Creator and each other. Hom Smith's grasp of how God may surprise and grace even difficult times grows as well.

Silence of Pain Cheryl Tolliver, 2012-11-17. Entitled Silence Of Pain, the manuscript is about an African American girl from Louisiana endures abuse at the hands of her schizophrenic mother, an absent father, and the torment it brought into their family lives. At the age of five years old and born the first of three children, this young girl was forced to endure pain, loneliness, loss, and self-worth. This young girl's family was poor and had to raise their own cattle and crops in order to make a living. After the murder of a daughter, being drugged and hit in the head with an axe, her mother was diagnosed as a paranoid schizophrenic. At the age of sixteen years old, she entrapped a young man by getting pregnant. After moving out of her grandparents' home, she moved with her baby daddy only to find herself in an abusive relationship. At the age of two years old, her son's thigh was mysteriously broken; therefore, she finds herself under an investigation and accused of child abuse. At the age of twenty years old, she continued to go through the torment of her mother and the effect it had on their family lives. At the age of twenty-one, she enrolled in a community college. Upon completion of her college courses and finding a job working in a Nursing Facility, she left her son's dad to live on her own. At the age of twenty-four, she had worked at the Nursing Facility for two years; she was charged with a crime that she didn't perpetrate. By the age of twenty-eight years old, her mother had recovered from her illness, so she moved to escape any future episodes of her mother's torments and nightmare of being charged with a crime that she didn't perpetrate. Thinking that she would have a better life living in Texas, she was stalked, drugged, escaped death, and got caught up in an on-the-job scheme that cost her career, which led her to become depressed and wanting to kill herself. Throughout her hard times, she regained her health and strength through prayer, friends, and self-motivation that allowed her to succeed in her daily life. Finally, she established a stronger bond with Christ to find solutions for both the physical and mental problems that she was facing.
