Ananda Jaroslaw Istok,2019-04-28 Second Part of Spiritual Songbook No more unknown songs in a Songbook Small is beautiful You can take this little book with you everywhere Who knows where the next opportunity for singing in spiritual circles arises Mantras Bhajans Kirtans Rainbow Family and Nature Songs Everything Small but Wow Almost 300 songs on 85 Pocketbook pages peppered with song lyrics guitar chords and links Even for small video preview pictures was space black and white Because today it is possible to use QR codes and short links to lead you immediately to the videos or audios to listen to Even if f e Youtube deletes the video it will be in the background replaced with another one No more dead links And all this on the smallest possible space Musicians will also find simple guitar chords to accompany the singers Songs represent different directions such as Christian Hebrew Sufi some German and mostly Mantras and Rainbow Songs Notice the delivery duration by self published book

Ethnicity and the American Short Story Julie Brown,2013-05-13 How do different ethnic groups approach the short story form Do different groups develop culture related themes Do oral traditions within a particular culture shape the way in which written stories are told Why does the community loom so large in ethnic stories How do such traditional forms as African American slave narratives or the Chinese talk story shape the modern short story Which writers of color should be added to the canon Why have some minority writers been ignored for such a long time How does a person of color write for white publishers editors and readers Each essay in this collection of original studies addresses these questions and other related concerns It is common knowledge that most scholarly work on the short story has been on white writers This collection is the first work to specifically focus on short story practice by ethnic minorities in America ranging from African Americans to Native Americans Chinese Americans to Hispanic Americans The number of women writers discussed will be of particular interest to women studies and genre studies researchers and the collections will be of vital interest to scholars working in American literature narrative theory and multicultural studies

Spiritual, Blues, and Jazz People in African American Fiction A. Yemisi Jimoh,2002 In this book A Yemisi Jimoh demonstrates the critical influence of music on the fiction of various twentieth century African American writers Exploring novels and short stories by Toni Morrison John Edgar Wideman Zora Neale Hurston James Baldwin Ralph Ellison and others Jimoh shows how black musical traditions specifically Spirituals Blues and Jazz are used to shape characterizations and thematic content and to evince ideas emotions and experiences The author s analysis situates the literary texts she discusses within the diverse social energies of their times and locates important intersections where music history politics and literature meet Jimoh carefully distinguishes among the different musical forms and shows how in fiction they are transformed into rich metaphors She explains for example how characters and themes drawing on the Spiritual Gospel tradition de emphasize human agency depicting earthly survival as a transitory state and heavenly triumph as a victory By contrast in Blues fiction characters must often negotiate an environment of alienation change and uncertainty in order to achieve a more earthly triumph even if that triumph is only survival Jazz fiction meanwhile goes beyond Blues and Spiritual expressions to explore new realms revealing a space for infinite options radical change resistance and revolution This innovative book examines novels that have not previously received extensive attention including Albert Murray s Train Whistle Guitar Wallace Thurman s The Blacker the Berry and Ann Petry s The Street At the same time it brings fresh and intriguing readings to such widely studied works as Ellison s Invisible Man and Morrison s Sula Finally it suggests some exciting directions for future study as new generations of African American musicians and writers continue to develop and expand on established traditions and forms The Author A Yemisi Jimoh is an associate professor of English at the University of Arkansas Fayetteville Her articles have appeared in African American Review Contemporary African American Novelists and other publications She's Hard to Get Zi MengXiaoCao,2019-11-28 When he first met her he had scoffed at her Savage and unfeminine it didn t match her somewhat fresh appearance at all He was the president and a small assistant in the design department dared to offend her He challenged her to take first place or to scram When he saw her on the podium he suddenly felt that she was so bright and dazzling He wanted to pursue her but was pushed away by her Lustful man scram Don t forget I m your fiancée s assistant

Black Passports Stephanie Y. Evans, 2014-05-14 In this resource guide for fostering youth empowerment Stephanie Y Evans offers creative commentary on two hundred autobiographies that contain African American travel memoirs of places around the world The narratives are by such well known figures as Frederick Douglass W E B Du Bois Billie Holiday Maya Angelou Malcolm X James Baldwin Muhammad Ali Richard Pryor Angela Davis Condoleezza Rice and President Barack Obama as well as by many lesser known travelers The book addresses a variety of issues related to mentoring and curriculum development It serves as a tool for literary mentoring where students of all ages can gain knowledge and wisdom from texts in the same way achieved by one on one mentoring and it also provides ideas for incorporating these memoirs into lessons on history geography vocabulary and writing Focusing on four main mentoring themes life school work and cultural exchange Evans encourages readers to comb the texts for models of how to manage attitudes behaviors and choices in order to be successful in transnational settings

Jean Rhys's Modernist Bearings and Experimental Aesthetics Sue Thomas, 2022-01-27 Addressing Jean Rhys s composition and positioning of her fiction this book invites and challenges us to read the tacit silent and explicit textual bearings she offers and reveals new insights about the formation scope and complexity of Rhys s experimental aesthetics Tracing the distinctive and shifting evolution of Rhys s experimental aesthetics over her career Sue Thomas explores Rhys s practices of composition in her fiction and drafts as well as her self reflective comment on her writing The author examines patterns of interrelation intertextuality intermediality and allusion both diachronic and synchronic as well as the cultural histories entwined within them Through close analysis of these this book reveals new experimental thematic generic and political reaches of Rhys s fiction and sharpens our insight into her complex writerly affiliations and lineages

Sheltered J. Dill, 2023-11-21 My mind is my enemy and my best friend My protector and a liar desperately seeking truth I live here aware but sheltered protected from the gifts of vulnerability Alex s songs always began with the pencil he kept behind his ear the place Sarah created when he first met her in high school and high school was where they started a conversation they never wanted to finish But life isn t high school and adolescence ended for Sarah and Alex when they graduated in 2006 and continued onto colleges near their Midwestern hometown The pair remained best friends as they approached the lives that had been handed to them but never asked for Alex had always been a dreamer who wished to become a musician And he loves Sarah but he s never known how to balance his dreams with responsibilities and one of his dreams is to believe that she might love him back His hopes are complicated further when the grandmother who raised him developed dementia and he found himself running her business full time while struggling to care for her Sarah had been burned one too many times Finding a date was always easy she was beautiful smart adventurous and proud Finding the right connection was a different story And she couldn t help but long for connection She loved sharing her knowledge with others and learning about the stories they had to tell Sarah didn t start dating with low expectations They slowly developed over time Although Sarah and Alex have remained friends through the hardships of growing up they find themselves burdened with responsibilities and recovering from pain they never imagined they might endure Will Alex and Sarah learn how to navigate the habits they've learned to survive and set them aside for something more Or does the aftermath of life's cruel events take root so deeply that love could never grow beside it My

Grandmother's Budget of Stories and Songs Frances Freeling Broderip, 1863 Musical Minorities Lonán Ó Briain, 2018 Musical Minorities is the first English language monograph on the performing arts of an ethnic minority in Vietnam Living primarily in the northern mountains the Hmong have strategically maintained their cultural distance from foreign invaders and encroaching state agencies for almost two centuries They use cultural heritage as a means of maintaining a resilient community identity one which is malleable to their everyday needs and to negotiations among themselves and with others in the vicinity Case studies of revolutionary songs countercultural rock traditional vocal and instrumental styles tourist shows animist and Christian rituals and light pop from the diaspora illustrate the diversity of their creative outputs This groundbreaking study reveals how performing arts shape understandings of ethnicity and nationality in contemporary Vietnam Based on three years of fieldwork Lon n Briain traces the circulation of organized sounds that contribute to the adaptive capacities of this diverse social group In an original investigation of the sonic materialization of social identity the book outlines the full multiplicity of Hmong music making through a fascinating account of music minorities and the state in a post socialist context Songs by the Wayside Adalena Frances Dyer, 1923 Girls

Transforming Sanna Lehtonen, 2013-04-26 This book explores representations of girlhood and young womanhood in recent English language children's fantasy by focusing on two fantastic body transformation types invisibility and age shifting Drawing on recent feminist and queer theory the study discusses the tropes of invisibility and age shifting as narrative devices representing gendered experiences The transformations offer various perspectives on a girl's changing body and identity and provide links between real life and fantastic discourses of gender power invisibility and aging The main focus is on English language fantasy published since the 1970s but the motifs of invisibility and age shifting in earlier tales and children's books is reviewed this is the first study of children's fantasy literature that considers these tropes at length Novels discussed are from both critically acclaimed authors and the less well known Most of the novels depicting invisible or age shifting girls are neither thoroughly conventional nor radically subversive but present a range of styles In terms of gender children's fantasy novels can be more complex than they are often interpreted to be LEGO® ELVES: Quest for the Keys Stacia Deutsch, 2016-11-03 Welcome to Elvendale When Emily Jones was walking through her grandmother's garden she never dreamed she would end up in another world But after crossing through a secret portal Emily finds herself in Elvendale the land of the elves with no way to leave A Grandmother's Prayers Kay Swatkowski, 2015-01-28 It's not uncommon to hear someone say If it weren't for my grandmother's prayers I wouldn't be walking with God Offering inspiring stories
