Olitzky, Paul Golin, 2007 It isn't easy being a grandparent but grandparents are pivotal in the identity development of grandchildren. This book provides punchy, pithy, practical and often provocative wisdom for grandparents of grandchildren who live in an interfaith family. Twenty Things for Grandparents of Interfaith Grandchildren to Do (and Not Do) to Nurture Jewish Identity in Their Grandchildren Torah Aura Productions, 2022-11-15 Grandparents, 1992 Grandparents Isabelle Meier, 2016-10-04 Isabelle Meier presents a unique examination of the relationship between grandparents and grandchildren viewed through the lens of analytical psychology. This relationship can have a huge impact on psychological development yet it has been largely neglected in studies of the family. Meier explores both clinical and theoretical material throughout the book. In the first part she dissects archetypal images in the intergenerational relationship particularly as shown in fairy tales, myths and legends. From the wise old woman/man to the wicked witch or the old wizard, memories and experiences of these archetypes can be stored in the implicit memory and activated later in life. The second part looks at the processes and functions of implicit memory and examines the concept of the complex as it applies to grandparents using Stern's studies on the present moment and intersubjective phenomena. Finally in part three Meier presents case studies from her own practice. Grandparents will be essential reading for Jungian analysts and psychotherapists, analytical psychologists and those in training. It will also be of interest to academics and students of Jungian studies, myth and anthropology and readers looking to explore intergenerational family relationships. The Grandparents Club Yma Orné Campbell, 2009 The grandparents in every family speak in a language that only their family can comprehend yet they are educated and professionals too. Grandparents are usually the only people that are capable of picking up the pieces and putting them back together when all hope is lost in any family. They never throw anything away and they have been into recycling long before it became an issue. They have their share of pain, trials and tribulations. They have issues within their own family that causes them to sometimes separate for a season. They disagree and agree to disagree. It is a battle when a family of different personalities and opinions gather together in one room. The issues of respect, morals and values surface too. No matter what comes up and out the mouths of these bonded individuals, their love and strength keeps them tied together as a family.
