Grandmothers on Guard Jennifer Johnson, 2021-05-18 For about a decade one of the most influential forces in US anti immigrant politics was the Minuteman Project The armed volunteers made headlines patrolling the southern border What drove their ethno nationalist politics Jennifer L Johnson spent hundreds of hours observing and interviewing Minutemen hoping to answer that question She reached surprising conclusions While the public face of border politics is hypermasculine men in uniforms fatigues and suits older women were central to the Minutemen Women mobilized support and took part in border missions These women compel us to look beyond ideological commitments and material benefits in seeking to understand the appeal of right wing politics Johnson argues that the women of the Minutemen were motivated in part by the gendered experience of aging in America In a society that makes old women irrelevant aging white women found their place through anti immigrant activism which wedded native politics to their concern for the safety of their families Grandmothers on Guard emphasizes another side of nationalism the yearning for inclusion The nation the Minutemen imagined was not only a space of exclusion but also one in which these women could belong Grandmother's Footsteps Inge Brinkman, Axel Fleisch, 1999 The book consists of nine narratives related by Angolans residing across the border in Namibia after fleeing from the Angolan war mostly from the south eastern provinces of Angola They were recorded between 1996 1999 The book is augmented by a chapter by Axel Fleisch about language and history of the South West of Angola The Kindergarten and First Grade, 1917 Digital Sisterhood Ananda Kiamsha Madelyn Leeke, 2013-09-23 Ananda Kiamsha Madelyn Leeke became a pioneer in the digital universe twenty seven years ago when she logged in to the LexisNexis research service as a first year law student at Howard University School of Law She was immediately smitten with what the World Wide Web could do Later while attending the UN Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing China in 1995 Leeke found herself in an Internet caf where she experienced an interaction that changed her life Over time through interactions and conversations both online and in person Leeke developed the concept of digital sisterhood Embracing this revolutionary concept led to a complete career reinvention that finally allowed her to embrace her enormous creative spirit She found in her digital sisters true sheroes and virtual mentors Her blogging and social media adventures highlight the lessons she learned in the process the reasons she launched the Digital Sisterhood Network and the experiences that caused her to adopt what she terms the fierce living commitments In her memoir Leeke details her journey sharing experiences and insights helped her and her digital sisters use the Internet as a self discovery tool and identifying leadership archetypes that shaped her role as a social media leader My Footprint Marie Dicker Haas, 2018-12-19 Marie Dicker Haas knew how to make friends and keep them and being connected to others was what she treasured most In this memoir her spirit shines through as do her philosophies on life which she developed over more than 90 years before her death in 2017 From her formative days growing up on Staten Island New York to her years at Cornell University through the World War II years and on to life as it unfolded she writes with a thoughtful creative style She writes courageously of her loves including the death of Sammy Greenwald during World War II which she writes affected me more profoundly than any other event I had experienced until that time He had been born next door and he d always been in her life Years later Marie eloped with a concert violinist who melodiously transformed her life for the next twenty five years and two children gave her the opportunity to experience one of her greatest joys motherhood She also shares lessons from her greatest challenges Curly Grandma's Letters Anita Bryce,2009-09 Communicating is fun and easy Find out how simple it is in this easy to understand guide to penning your life story A great gift for grandparents New York School Journal ,1894 When Grandmother Was A Little Girl Harris T. Vincent,Mary Brewer,2010-10 Story telling is a lost art There once was a time when stories were passed on by word of mouth from generation to generation These stories are a chronicle of that time These particular stories were told as stories generations ago long before there were telephones televisions DVDs or films to be viewed at the movie complex They were told before there were computers iphones Blackberries or X men These particular stories were transcribed by my uncle in the 1950 s and are about the stories he remembers his aunt telling him about her grandmother when she was a little girl That would make the setting and time of these stories somewhere around the early to middle 1800 s These stories will take you back to a more serene and pastoral time They are very enchanting stories and they evoke memories of how life was lived a long time ago One of the more notable elements of the narrative is that they are not grammatically correct but rather are rife with dangling participles and misplaced modifiers But that is their charm They are told in such a way that you can really picture and hear a little old grandmother telling a story in front of some transfixed children That is the beauty of them So sit yourselves down in front of the roaring fireplace with some cider and start roasting some nuts like they used to do so long ago And be very quiet children so grandmother can tell you about the time when her grandmother was a little girl The Iroquois trail, or Foot-prints of the Six nations, in customs, traditions, and history W.M. Beauchamp,1994

Footprint KAMAL MAZUMDAR ,2022-05-30 The only journey is the one within The four batchmates of Presidency College born at different places and times were destined to meet at some point and their got intermingled till the fag end of their life They were lost in their respective dreams during the turbulent period of the 1970s their college days Those days life was very close to living in paradise till one of them was caught in the web of the Naxal Movement and left them forever After graduation the other three headed in different directions and during their journey they struggled to cope with realities and crises each in their own way and ultimately found the common path to live a meaningful life After many years their paths crossed again as they got involved in a noble cause Black Girls' Literacies Detra Price-Dennis,Gholnecsar E. Muhammad,2021-06-22 Bringing together the voices of leading and emerging scholars this volume highlights the many facets of Black girls literacies As a comprehensive survey of the research theories and practices that highlight the literacies of Black girls and women in diverse spaces the text addresses how sustaining and advancing their literacy achievement in and outside the classroom traverses the multiple dimensions of writing comprehending literature digital media and community engagement The Black Girls Literacies Framework lays a foundation for the understanding of Black girl epistemologies as multi layered nuanced and complex The authors in this volume draw on their collective yet individual experiences as Black women scholars and teacher educators to share ways to transform the identity development of Black girls within and beyond official school contexts Addressing historical and contemporary issues within the broader context of inclusive education chapters highlight empowering pedagogies and practices In between chapters the book features four Kitchen Table Talk conversations among contributors and leading Black women scholars representing the rich history of spaces where Black women come together to share experiences and assert their voices A crucial resource for educators researchers professors and graduate students in language and literacy education this book offers readers a fuller vision of the roles of literacy and English educators in the work to undo educational wrongs against Black girls and women and to create inclusive spaces that acknowledge the legitimacy and value of Black girls literacies
