meaning of her heritage which she only learned of in her teens Allie is trying to make up for the lost years with her first born and to protect Carter from the hurt she herself suffered from her own mother Lucie wants the granddaughter she s never met to help her get to her ancestors in the afterlife And Genevi ve is determined to conquer her demons before the fire inside burns her up with the help of the sister she lost but has never been without Meanwhile Mam in the afterlife knows that all their stories began with her she must find a way to cut herself from the last threads that keep her tethered to the living just as they must find their own paths forward And a young bison wants to understand why he keeps being moved and whether he should make a break for it and run for his life This extraordinary novel told by a chorus of vividly realized wise confused struggling characters attempting to make sense of this life and the next heralds the arrival of a stunning new voice in literary fiction Grandmother's Tales Sari Kryzanowsky,2008-11 Stories My Grandmothers Didn't Tell Me Andra

Putnis,2024-07-02 When she breaks an unspoken family code not to dig too deep into the past Andra is plunged into the bleak world of the Soviet and Nazi occupations of Latvia in World War II and secret lives of her grandmothers As children we d sneak into Grandma s bedroom on secret missions Her cupboard was filled with old fur coats strange woven folk costumes and small mountains of glowing amber We were half scared made breathless by our discoveries but knew we hadn t seen it all hadn t understood what was really hidden there When she breaks an unspoken family code not to dig too deeply into the past Andra is plunged into the bleak world of the Soviet and Nazi occupations of Latvia in World War II and the secret lives of her grandmothers Teenage Aline is separated from her parents and sent to serve in Germany s war time labour force With the much feared Soviet army on the doorstep pregnant Milda embarks on a desperate winter escape with her young son They each face heart wrenching decisions and endure years of hardship before finally voyaging to Australia Among the tight knit Latvian migrant community Aline and Milda forge new lives But even there reminders of wartime scandal and grief threaten to drag them under An elegant absorbing story of ordinary people thrown into extraordinary crisis Peter Greste Anyone with untold stories flowing through their DNA will find home and understanding here I felt my own grandmother speaking to me Amy Remeikis Deeply moving brilliantly crafted and powerfully written Biff Ward An Australian born granddaughter discovering the stories of her Latvian grandmothers and their lives lived in very different times and circumstances a compelling read Ilze Thomas What Grandma Taught Me Keiko Izushi,Paula Henstridge,2021-05-14 This is a book about legacy the legacy of a special group of women who have earned the title of Grandma It is a collection of memories and stories about grandmothers from all around the world to honor the gifts they have given and the legacies they share down the generations Grandmothers give us a sense of peace safety strength and unconditional love They allow us to be whoever we want to be when we are living in the safety of their world Grandmothers teach us through love and through example how to draw on our own resources and strengths to live our best lives Our grandmothers taught us to be brave by telling amazing stories of far away places to love and nurture others by cooking our favorite foods or tucking us into bed at night while humming a sweet lullaby to be self sufficient by teaching us to garden or cook or to balance a checkbook and to live well by freely sharing their strength wisdom laughter and aspirations The stories in this collection evoke cultures and images from around the world from warm Caribbean breezes to small town America to the South of France to villages in Central and East Asia They may inspire you to document your own grandparents stories by using the included guide to Memory as Legacy Most of all let the stories carry you away to those special moments in your memory moments of perfect peace security and love Let the stories carry you back in time to your own cherished memories of your grandmother or a loved one who sustained and strengthened you in your childhood      Still More Stories from Grandma's Attic Arleta Richardson,1994-07

A collection of tales told by a grandmother about her childhood on a Michigan farm in the 1890 s      Claiming Civic Virtue Jan Bender Shetler,2019-07-09 Among communities in the Mara region of Tanzania it is considered men s responsibility to maintain history But when Jan Bender Shetler s questions turned to specific familial connections within the village she discovered her male informants had to occasionally leave the room to ask their wives for clarification The result is an original and wide ranging investigation of the gendered nature of historical memory and its influence on the development of the region over the past 150 years Shetler s exploration of these oral traditions and histories opens exciting new vistas for understanding how women and men in this culture tell their stories and assert their roles as public intellectuals with important implications for research in African and gender studies and the history of ethnicity and nationalism      Indigenous Pathways, Transitions and Participation in Higher Education Jack Frawley,Steve Larkin,James A. Smith,2017-05-31 This book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license This book brings together contributions by researchers scholars policy makers practitioners professionals and citizens who have an interest in or experience of Indigenous pathways and transitions into higher education University is not for everyone but a university should be for everyone To a certain extent the choice not to participate in higher education should be respected given that there are other avenues and reasons to participate in education and employment that are culturally socially and or economically important for society Those who choose to pursue higher education should do so knowing that there are multiple pathways into higher education and once there appropriate support is provided for a successful transition The book outlines the issues of social inclusion and equity in higher education and the contributions draw on real world experiences to reflect the different approaches and strategies currently being adopted Focusing on research program design program evaluation policy initiatives and experiential narrative accounts the book critically discusses issues concerning widening participation      In Search of Naunty's Grave Nick

Trujillo,2004-02-16 Elsie Martinez Trujillo Alcaraz Naunty to her grandson and communication scholar Nick Trujillo was a working class woman daughter of New Mexico Hispanos and eventually the resident of a Los Angeles nursing home She becomes the focal point for Trujillo s experimental ethnography of family relations aging and ethnic identity throughout the twentieth century Collecting narratives of his grandmother s life Trujillo learns how family members use stories to define the family's sense of itself and create collective views on intergenerational relations social history gender class and ethnicity Through these stories family photos and his own recollections supplemented with Elsie's letters and journal entries the author is able to explore topics often ignored in life histories of the elderly sexuality body image eating disorders marital discord mobility patterns racial prejudice and interactions with the health care system Trujillo's presentation brings Naunty's humor liveliness and generosity alive for scholars and students alike and provides a vivid portrait of being Hispanic and female in the 20th century American west Mother of My Mother Hope Edelman, 2009-10-07 In her acclaimed New York Times bestseller Motherless Daughters Hope Edelman explored the profound and lasting effects of mother loss as well as her own search for healing Now in her compelling new work Edelman explores another complex life changing relationship the intricate bond between generations Drawing from her own experience and the recollections of over seventy other granddaughters Edelman explores the three generation triangle from which women develop their female identities the grandmother mother daughter relationship With eloquent personal testimony she demonstrates the vital roles grandmothers have played in their granddaughters lives as a source of unconditional love family values and traditions and backup parent the ultimate safety net Here are grandmothers in all their glory The Benevolent Manipulator whose love for her family is matched only by her desire for control The Gentle Giant awesome respected who possesses a quiet behind the scenes power The Autocrat who rules her extended family like a despot The Kinkeeper the family hub who offers a sense of cohesion to the extended clan With insight and compassion Edelman probes this unique and emotionally charged relationship in a book that is a true celebration of an extraordinary bond and a must read for every woman Ecocriticism and Indigenous Studies Salma Monani, Joni Adamson, 2016-08-05 This book addresses the intersections between the interdisciplinary realms of Ecocriticism and Indigenous and Native American Studies and between academic theory and pragmatic eco activism conducted by multiethnic and indigenous communities It illuminates the multi layered polyvocal ways in which artistic expressions render ecological connections drawing on scholars working in collaboration with Indigenous artists from all walks of life including film literature performance and other forms of multimedia to expand existing conversations Both local and global in its focus the volume includes essays from multiethnic and Indigenous communities across the world visiting topics such as Navajo opera Sami film production history south Indian tribal documentary Maori art installations Native American and First Nations science fiction literature and film Amazonian poetry and many others Highlighting trans Indigenous sensibilities that speak to worldwide crises of environmental politics and action against marginalization the collection alerts readers to movements of community resilience and resistance cosmological thinking about inter and intra generational multi species relations and understandings of indigenous aesthetics and material ecologies It engages with emerging environmental concepts such as multispecies ethnography cosmopolitics and trans indigeneity as well as with new areas of ecocritical research such as material ecocriticism biosemiotics and media studies In its breadth and scope this book promises new directions for ecocritical thought and environmental humanities practice providing thought provoking insight into what it means to be human in a locally situated globally networked and cosmologically complex world Native

Presence and Sovereignty in College Amanda R. Tachine, 2022-04-29 What is at stake when our young people attempt to belong to a college environment that reflects a world that does not want them for who they are In this compelling book Navajo scholar Amanda Tachine takes a personal look at 10 Navajo teenagers following their experiences during their last year in high school and into their first year in college It is common to think of this life transition as a time for creating new connections to a campus community but what if there are systemic mechanisms lurking in that community that hurt Native students chances of earning a degree Tachine describes these mechanisms as systemic monsters and shows how campus environments can be sites of harm for Indigenous students due to factors that she terms monsters sense of belonging namely assimilating diminishing harming the worldviews of those not rooted in White supremacy heteropatriarchy capitalism racism and Indigenous erasure This book addresses the nature of those monsters and details the Indigenous weapons that students use to defeat them Rooted in love life sacredness and sovereignty these weapons reawaken students presence and power Book Features Introduces an Indigenous methodological approach called story rug that demonstrates how research can be expanded to encompass all our senses Weaves together Navajo youths stories of struggle and hope in educational settings making visible systemic monsters and Indigenous weaponry Draws from Navajo knowledge systems as an analytic tool to connect history to present and future realities Speaks to the contemporary situation of Native peoples illuminating the challenges that Native students face in making the transition to college Examines historical and contemporary realities of Navajo systemic monsters such as the financial hardship monster deficit not enough monster failure monster and invisibility monster Offers insights for higher education institutions that are seeking ways to create belonging for diverse students

Gathering Together, We Decide Margo Tamez, Cynthia Bejarano, Jeffrey P. Shepherd, 2025-10-21 In 2007 the Department of Homeland Security began condemnation proceedings on the property of Dr Eloisa Tamez a Lipan Apache Nd professor veteran and title holder to land in South Texas deeded to her ancestors under the colonial occupation and rule of King Charles III of Spain in 1761 during a time when Indigenous lands were largely taken and exploited by Spanish colonizers Crown grants of lands to Indigenous peoples afforded them the opportunity to reclaim Indigenous title and control The federal government wanted Tamez s land to build a portion of the border wall on the U S Mexico border She refused In 2008 the Department of Homeland Security sued her but she countersued based on Aboriginal land rights Indigenous inherent rights the land grant from Spain and human rights This standoff continued for years until the U S government forced Tamez to forfeit land for the wall In response Dr Eloisa Tamez and her daughter Dr Margo Tamez organized a gathering of Lipan tribal members activists lawyers and allies to meet in El Calaboz South Texas This gathering was a response to the appropriation of the Tamez family land but it also provided an international platform to dispute the militarization of Indigenous territory throughout the U S Mexico bordered lands The gathering and years of ensuing resistance and activism produced an archive of scholarly analyses testimonios artwork legal briefs poetry and other cultural productions This unique collection spotlights powerful voices and perspectives from Nd leaders Indigenous elders settler allies Native youth and others associated with the Tamez family the Nd defiance and the larger Indigenous rights movement to document their resistance expose confront and end racism and militarization and to foreground Indigenous women led struggles for justice
