Granta 42 Krauts:

Granta 42 Bill Buford, 1993-04 The latest edition of the impressive international literary magazine features writing so amusing or powerful or urgent that it must be read now Controversial and thought provoking Granta boasts readers around the world numbering more than 140 000 who savor the contributions of Doris Lessing Saul Bellow Salman Rushdie Joan Didion and others Photographs throughout Keeping Up With the Germans Philip Oltermann, 2012-01-31 In 1996 in the middle of watching an ill tempered football match between England and Germany Philip Oltermann's parents tell him that they are going to leave their home city Hamburg behind and move to London Inspired by his own experience of both countries Philip Oltermann looks at eight historical encounters between English and German people from the last two hundred years Helmut Kohl tries to explain German cuisine to the Iron Lady the Mini plays catch up with the Volkswagen Beetle and Joe Strummer has an unlikely brush with the Baader Meinhof gang Keeping Up with the Germans is a witty look at the lighter side of Anglo German relations over the last 100 years Building Europe Cris Shore, 2013-11-05 The development of the European Union has been one of the most profound advances in European politics and society this century Yet the institutions of Europe and the Eurocrats who work in them have constantly attracted negative publicity culminating in the mass resignation of the European Commissioners in March 1999 In this revealing study Cris Shore scrutinises the process of European integration using the techniques of anthropology and drawing on thought from across the social sciences Using the findings of numerous interviews with EU employees he reveals that there is not just a subculture of corruption within the institutions of Europe but that their problems are largely a result of the way the EU itself is constituted and run He argues that European integration has largely failed in bringing about anything but an ever closer integration of the technical political and financial elites of Europe at the expense of its ordinary citizens This critical anthropology of European integration is essential reading for anyone with an interest in the culture and politics of the EU

Quotations on Terrorism Harry Kawilarang, 2004 The year 2000 showed that terrorism continues to pose a clear and present danger to the international community Terrorism is becoming a strategy that has a long history but one that took on a particularly deadly caste beginning in the 21st century The leaders of some of the most dangerous terrorist groups to emerge in the past decade have headquarters or major offices in Afghanistan and their associates threaten stability in many real and potential trouble spots around the globe from Indonesia to the Balkans Central Asia to the Persian Gulf Western China to Somalia and Western Europe to South Asia Terrorists attempt not only to sow panic but also to undermine confidence in the government and political leadership of their target country Terrorism is therefore designed to have psychological effects that reach far beyond its impact on the immediate victims or object of an attack Terrorists mean to frighten and thereby intimidate a wider audience such as a rival ethnic or religious group an entire country and its political leadership or the international community as a whole All terrorist acts involve violence or equally important the threat of violence These violent acts are committed by nongovernmental groups or individuals that is by those who are neither part of nor officially serving in the military forces law enforcement agencies intelligence services or other governmental agencies of an established nation state Terrorism has occurred throughout history for a variety of reasons It causes can be historical cultural political social psychological economic or religious or any combination of these Some countries have proven to be particularly susceptible to terrorism at certain times as Italy and West Germany were during the 1970s Terrorist violence escalated precipitously in those two countries for a decade before declining equally dramatically Other countries such as Canada and The Netherlands have proven to be more resistant and have experienced only a few isolated terrorist incidents In general democratic countries have provided more fertile ground for terrorism because of the open nature of their societies In such societies citizens have fundamental rights civil liberties are legally protected and government control and constant surveillance of its citizens and their activities is absent By the same token repressive societies in which the government closely monitors citizens and restricts their speech and movement have often provided more difficult environments for terrorists But even police states have not been immune to terrorism despite limiting civil liberties and forbidding free speech and rights of assembly Examples include Russia under tsarist rule and the Communist ruled Union of Soviet Socialist Republics as well as the People s Republic of China Myanmar and Laos The author expressed it all through quotations which was compiled from public figures authors poets scholars experts professionals statements and the common people and collected from books newspapers news weeklies poems speeches oral conversations etc from all part of the world in connecting with the content of this book since 1980 Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah

Anderson,2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson s Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion The Turbulence of Migration Nikos Papastergiadis,2018-03-08

This important book traces the impact of the movement of people ideas and capital across the globe Ambiguous Memory Siobhan Kattago,2001-07-30 Ambiguous Memory examines the role of memory in the building of a new national identity in reunified Germany The author maintains that the contentious debates surrounding contemporary monumnets to the Nazi past testify to the ambiguity of German memory and the continued link of Nazism with contemporary German national identity The book discusses how certain monuments and the ways Germans have viewed them contribute to the different ways Germans have dealt with the past and how they continue to deal with it as one country Kattago concludes that West Germans have internalized their Nazi past as a normative orientation for the democratic culture of West Germany while East Germans have universalized Nazism and the Holocaust transforming it into an abstraction in which the Jewish question is down played In order to form a new collective memory the author argues that unified Germany must contend with these conflicting views of the past incorporating certain aspects of both views Providing a topography of East West and unified German memory during the 1980s and the 1990s this work contributes to a better understanding of contemporary national identity and society The author shows how public debate over such issues at Ronald Reagan s visit to Bitburg the renarration of Buchenwald as Nazi and Soviet internment camp the Goldhagen controversy and the Holocaust Memorial debate in Berlin contribute to the complexities surrounding the way Germans see themselves their relationship to the past and their future identity as a nation In a careful analysis the author shows how the past was used and abused by both the East and the West in the 1980s and how these approaches merged in the 1990s This interesting new work takes a sociological approach to the role of memory in forging a new integrative national identity

Best of Young British Novelists 43 Bill Buford,1993 Ten years after the success of the 1983 Best of Young British Novelists issue four judges A S Byatt Salman Rushdie bookseller John Mitchinson and Granta editor Bill Buford set out to identify twenty more young and promising writers The list introduced astonishing emerging talents Alan Hollinghurst Will Self Hanif Kureishi A L Kennedy and many more A widely varied anthology including novel extracts and stories that showcase a generation of writers coming into its own

The Lineaments of Population Policy in India Mohan Rao,2017-11-28 India is the first country in the world to have an official programme for family planning that commenced in 1952 It has also seen a strong women s movement to assert reproductive and contraceptive rights This book brings to the fore several contestations and negotiations between public policy and the women s movement in India The comprehensive volume puts together key documents from archival records and authoritative sources and traces the contours that have marked and defined the population policy in India as well as rights issues for women A major intervention in the field this book will be indispensable for scholars and researchers in public policy public health demography gender studies social policy development studies sociology social justice human rights politics and those interested in the study of modern India

In Search of Germany Michael Mertes,2018-01-16 Much that has happened in the world since 1989 gives cause for elation but there is also much that gives reason for alarm The euphoria that attended the dismantling of the Berlin Wall and the collapse of communism has been compromised by tragic events in recent years such as the bitter ethnic rivalries in Yugoslavia the civil war in Rwanda and the terrorist bombings in New York City and Oklahoma City In Search of Germany seeks to accomplish three purposes to initiate a review of the whole of the post World War II period and consider what actually happened in the Federal Republic and in the German Democratic Republic during those forty years to acknowledge that the present age of anxiety did not originate in 1989 and to see that Europe today is indeed in trouble and the difficulties that the world is experiencing have social political and intellectual roots In Search of Germany is an augmented and enlarged collection derived from a special issue of Daedalus Additions that have been made to the book include a chapter by Timothy Garton Ash entitled Germany's Choice a concluding section by the editors and an index While the book focuses on Germany it serves a wider purpose as well by also studying Europe democracy and modernity The prejudices and fears of Germany precisely because they are specific to and yet not peculiar to Germany tell a great deal of why an earlier European and American optimism has been lost and why so much contemporary political discourse avoids explicit consideration of really sensitive issues Half a century after the end of World War II there is interest not only in the policies pursued by the Nazi regime the crimes it perpetrated throughout Europe and the suffering it inflicted on hundreds of millions but also on what preceded that unprecedented tragedy and what has followed it In Search of Germany is a timely and significant analysis of contemporary world politics and will be necessary reading for political scientists historians and scholars of international studies

Best of Young British Novelists Bill Buford,1993 That was the Wild East Leonie Naughton,2002 An illuminating exploration of the cultural politics of the East West unification and its subsequent impact upon German filmmaking Indian Review of Books ,1994 Projecting Words, Writing Images John R. Leo,Marek Paryz,2011-08-08 This compilation of essays by 20 scholars trained in comparative literatures art history critical theory and American cultural studies further explores and expands the spirited and energetic field of visual cultural studies and its cognate or supplemental projects of visual practices and visual literacy Their topics and perspectives engage contemporary re theorizations of text of word and image while their alignments ruptures slippages and aporias fall across a range of media practices and institutions These include photography and exhibition film television entertainment journalism poetry and literature as visual and spectacular performances and graphic narratives but also their discursive intersections with race and ethnicity their conjugations of gender their tense and constitutive relations within multiple public spheres and post modernities

Annual Editions Purkitt,1997 Screening the East Nick Hodgkin,2011-05-01 Screening the East considers German filmmakers responses to unification In particular it traces the representation of the East German community in films made since 1989 and considers whether these narratives challenge or reinforce the notion of a separate East German identity The book identifies and analyses a large number of films from internationally successful box office hits to lesser known productions many of which are discussed here for the first time Providing an insight into the films historical and political context it considers related issues such as stereotyping racism regional particularism and the Germans confrontation with the past

Across the Board ,1993 Turbulence Monica Narula,2006 Contributed articles on flow of information with focus on mass media The Publishers Weekly ,1993 Europe Without Walls James Aulich,Timothy Wilcox,1993
