Granta 92 The View From Africa:

The Language of the News Martin Conboy, 2013-12-16 The Language of the News investigates and critiques the conventions of language used in newspapers and provides students with a clear introduction to critical linguistics as a tool for analysis Using contemporary examples from UK USA and Australian newspapers this book deals with key themes of representation from gender and national identity to race and looks at how language is used to construct audiences to persuade and even to parody It examines debates in the newspapers themselves about the nature of language including commentary on political correctness the sensitive use of language and irony as a journalistic weapon Featuring chapter openings and summaries activities and a wealth of examples from contemporary news coverage including examples from television and radio The Language of the News broadens the perceptions of the use of language in the news media and is essential reading for students of media and communication journalism and English language and linguistics China in Africa Suisheng Zhao, 2017-10-02 China's expansion and growing influence in Africa is arguably the most remarkable global political and economic development in the 21st century China's foray into Africa started in the late 1990s propelled by its desire to obtain new sources of raw materials and energy for its economic growth as well as new markets for its manufactured goods While China's no political strings attached policy proves attractive to many of African leaders China has been criticized as neo colonialist interested solely in stripping Africa of its mineral wealth without proper environmental or social precautions This book addresses the controversy by exploring the motivations and practices of China's African engagement providing a comprehensive account of the intensified interactions between China and African states The first part examines the debate surrounding whether China has pursued a neo colonialist path in Africa by looking at the perception of China by the locals and the challenges that the intensified relationship has posed for African states The second part analyses China's strategic motivations to see if Beijing has acquired sustaining power and influence in Africa in competition with the West The third part focuses on economic and business practices of Chinese companies in Africa as well as China Africa trade patterns The articles in this book were originally published in special issues of the Journal of Contemporary China The Unbearable Whiteness of Being Rory Pilosof, 2012 The history of colonial land alienation the grievances fuelling the liberation war and post independence land reforms have all been grist to the mill of recent scholarship on Zimbabwe Yet for all that the country's white farmers have received considerable attention from academics and journalists the fact that they have always played a dynamic role in cataloguing and representing their own affairs has gone unremarked It is this crucial dimension that Rory Pilosof explores in The Unbearable Whiteness of Being His examination of farmers voices in The Farmer magazine in memoirs and in recent interviews reveals continuities as well as breaks in their relationships with land belonging and race His focus on the Liberation War Operation Gukurahundi and the post 2000 land invasions frames a nuanced understanding of how white farmers engaged with the land and its peoples and the political changes of the past 40 years The Unbearable Whiteness of Being helps to explain why many of the events in the countryside unfolded in the ways they did The Unbearable Whiteness of Being, 2023-01-10 The history of colonial land alienation the grievances fuelling the liberation war and post independence land reforms have all been grist to the mill of recent scholarship on Zimbabwe Yet for all that the country s white farmers have received considerable attention from academics and journalists the fact that they have always played a dynamic role in cataloguing and representing their own affairs has gone unremarked It is this crucial dimension that Rory Pilosof explores in The Unbearable Whiteness of Being His examination of farmers voices in The Farmer magazine in memoirs and in recent interviews reveals continuities as well as breaks in their relationships with land belonging and race His focus on the Liberation War Operation Gukurahundi and the post 2000 land invasions frames a nuanced understanding of how white farmers engaged with the land and its peoples and the political changes of the past 40 years The Unbearable Whiteness of Being helps to explain why many of the events in the countryside unfolded in the ways they did Performance Affects J. Thompson, 2009-04-28 Performance Affects explores performance projects in disaster and war zones to argue that joy beauty and celebration should be the inspiration for the politics of community based or participatory performance practice seeking to realign the field of Applied Theatre away from effects towards an affective role connected to sensations of pleasure The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-10-03 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English Mapping Africa in the English Speaking World Sibonile Edith Ellece, Kemmonye Collete Monaka, Owen S Seda, 2010-10-12 Mapping Africa in the English Speaking World addresses issues of representations of Africa in the English speaking world English has become a global language which has turned the world into a global village and as Graddol 2008 states it is now redefining national and individual identities worldwide shifting political fault lines creating new global patterns of wealth and social exclusion and suggesting new notions of human rights and responsibilities of citizenship This book grapples with the relationship between Africa and the rest of the English speaking world and touches on issues of Euro American misrepresentations of the continent in literary works and films misrepresentations which are nevertheless passed as true and infallible knowledge of Africa marginalization of Africans African languages and culture African scholarship language policy language diglossia African theatre in post colonial Africa identity negotiations in post colonial Africa and relations between gender and language among other issues These issues are bound to stimulate debates on Africa and its representation s in the English speaking world Africa on the Contemporary London Stage Tiziana Morosetti, 2018-12-06 This collection of essays investigates the way Africa has been portrayed on the London stage from the 1950s to the present It focuses on whether and if so to what extent the Africa that emerges from the London scene is subject to stereotype and or in which ways the reception of audiences and critics have contributed to an understanding of the continent and its arts The collection divided into two parts brings together well established academics and emerging scholars as well as playwrights directors and performers currently active in London With a focus on Wole Soyinka Athol Fugard Bola Agbaje Biyi Bandele and Dipo Agboluaje amongst others the volume examines the work of key companies such as Tiata Fahodzi and Talawa as well as newer companies Two Gents Iroko Theatre and Spora Stories Interviews with Rotimi Babatunde Ade Solanke and Dipo Agboluaje on the contemporary London scene are also included West African Migrations M. Okome,2012-01-30 Drawing on the interdisciplinary research projects of scholars from various social science and humanities disciplines this book explores how African migration to Western countries after the neo liberal economic reforms of the 1980s transformed West African states and their new transnational populations in Western countries The Art of Connection Dillon Mahoney,2017-01-17 Cover Contents List of Illustrations Acknowledgments 1 The Art of Connection An Introduction 2 Mombasa Marginalized Claims to Land and Legitimacy in a Tourist City 3 Crafts Traders versus the State 4 Negotiating Informality in Mombasa 5 New Mobilities New Risks 6 Crafting Ethical Connection and Transparency in Coastal Kenya 7 From Ethnic Brands to Fair Trade Labels Conclusion Notes Bibliography Index A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P R S T U V W Z Music and Digital Media Georgina Born,2022-09-12 Anthropology has neglected the study of music and this needs to be redressed This book sets out to show how and why It does so by bringing music to the subfield of digital anthropology arguing that digital anthropology has much to gain by expanding its horizons to music becoming more interdisciplinary by reference to digital media studies music and sound studies Music and Digital Media is the first comparative ethnographic study of the impact of digital media on music worldwide It offers a radical and lucid new theoretical framework for understanding digital media through music showing that music is today where the promises and problems of the digital assume clamouring audibility while acting as a testing ground for innovations in the digital cultural industries The book contains ten chapters eight of which present comprehensive original ethnographies The chapters between them addresses popular folk and art musics in the global South and North including Kenya Argentina India Canada and the UK Europe with each chapter providing a different regional or digital focus The book is unique in bringing ethnographic research on popular folk and art musics from the global North and South into a comparative framework on a large scale and creates an innovative new paradigm for comparative anthropology Praise for Music and Digital Media This exciting volume forges new ground in the study of local conditions institutions and sounds of digital music in the Global South and North The book s planetary scope and its commitment to the messiness of ethnographic sites and concepts amplifies emergent configurations and meanings of music the digital and the aesthetic Marina Peterson University of Texas Austin The global drama of music s digitisation elicits extreme responses from catastrophe to piratical opportunism but between them lie more nuanced perspectives This timely absolutely necessary collection applies anthropological understanding to a deliriously immersive field bringing welcome clarity to complex processes whose impact is felt far beyond what we call music David Toop London College of Communication Spanning continents and academic disciplines the rich ethnographies contained in Music and Digital Media makes it obligatory reading for anyone wishing to understand the complex contradictory and momentous effects that digitization is having on musical cultures Eric Drott University of Texas Austin This superb collection with an authoritative overview as its introduction represents the state of the art in studies of the digitalisation of music It is also a testament to what anthropology at its reflexive best can offer the rest of the social sciences and humanities David Hesmondhalgh University of Leeds Music and Digital Media is a groundbreaking update to our understandings of sound media digitization and music Truly transdisciplinary and transnational in scope it innovates methodologically through new models for collaboration multi sited ethnography and comparative work It also offers an important defense of and advancement of theories of mediation Jonathan Sterne McGill University Music and Digital Media is a nuanced exploration of the burgeoning digital music scene across both the global North and the global South Ethnographically rich and theoretically sophisticated this collection will become the new standard for this field Anna Tsing co editor of Feral Atlas The More than Human Anthropocene Imagining the Cosmopolitan in Public and Professional Writing Anne Surma, 2012-11-20 In this important book Surma combines threads from ethical political communications sociological feminist and discourse theories to explore the impact of writing in a range of contexts and illustrate the ways in which it can strengthen social connections Ethics and Human Rights in Anglophone African Women's Literature Chielozona Eze, 2016-12-14 This book proposes feminist empathy as a model of interpretation in the works of contemporary Anglophone African women writers The African woman's body is often portrayed as having been disabled by the patriarchal and sexist structures of society Returning to their bodies as a point of reference rather than the postcolonial ideology of empire contemporary African women writers demand fairness and equality By showing how this literature deploys imaginative shifts in perspective with women experiencing unfairness injustice or oppression because of their gender Chielozona Eze argues that by considering feminist empathy discussions open up about how this literature directly addresses the systems that put them in disadvantaged positions This book therefore engages a new ethical and human rights awareness in African literary and cultural discourses highlighting the openness to reality that is compatible with African multi ethnic multi racial and increasingly cosmopolitan communities China into Africa Robert I. The Nature of Heritage Lynn Meskell, 2011-08-26 The Nature of Heritage The New South Africa is unique in revealing the conflicts inherent in preserving both natural and cultural heritage by examining the archaeological ethnographic and economic evidence of a nation's attempts to master its past and its future Provides a classic example of how nations attempt to overcome a negative heritage through past mastering of their histories Evaluates the continuing dominance of nature and conservation over concerns for cultural heritage Employs ethnographic and archaeological methodologies to reveal how the past is processed into a new national heritage Identifies heritage as therapy exemplified in the strategy for repairing legacies of racial and ethnic difference in post apartheid South Africa Highlights the role of archaeological heritage sites national parks and protected areas in economic development and social empowerment Explores how nature trumps culture and the global implications of the new configurations of heritage

Performative Inter-Actions in African Theatre 1 Kene Igweonu, Osita Okagbue, 2014-01-14 This book is part of a three volume book set published under the general title of Performative Inter Actions in African Theatre Each of the three books in the set has a unique subtitle that works to better focus its content and differentiates it from the other two volumes The contributors backgrounds and global spread adequately reflect the international focus of the three books that make up the collection The contributions in their various ways demonstrate the many advances and ingenious solutions adopted by African theatre practitioners in tackling some of the challenges arising from the adverse colonial experience as well as the one sided advance of globalisation The contributions attest to the thriving nature of African theatre and performance which in the face of these challenges has managed to retain its distinctiveness while at the same time acknowledging contesting and appropriating influences from elsewhere into an aesthetic that is identifiably African Consequently the three books are presented as a comprehensive exploration of the current state of African theatre and performance both on the continent and diaspora Performative Inter Actions in African Theatre 1 Diaspora Representations and the Interweaving of Cultures explores the idea that in and from their various locations around the world the plays of the African diaspora acknowledge and pay homage to the cultures of home while simultaneously articulating a sense of their Africanness in their various inter actions with their host cultures Contributions in Diaspora Representations and the Interweaving of Cultures equally attest to the notion that the diaspora as we see it is not solely located outside of the African continent itself but can be found in those performances in the continent that engage performatively with the West and other parts of the world in that process of articulating identity

Toward the Geopolitical Novel Caren Irr, 2013-12-17 Caren Irr's survey of more than 125 novels outlines the dramatic resurgence of the American political novel in the twenty first century She explores the writings of Chris Abani Susan Choi Edwidge Danticat Junot Diaz Dave Eggers Jeffrey Eugenides Aleksandar Hemon Hari Kunzru Dinaw Mengestu Norman Rush Gary Shteyngart and others as they rethink stories of migration the Peace Corps nationalism and neoliberalism revolution and the expatriate experience Taken together these innovations define a new literary form the geopolitical novel More cosmopolitan and socially critical than domestic realism the geopolitical novel provides new ways of understanding crucial political concepts to meet the needs of a new century
