Borrowed Time Dennis Carlyle Darling, 2024-02-16 Honorable Mention The International Photography Awards 2024 Book Category Documentation through photographs and interviews of those who survived the unique Nazi ghetto camp located at Terezín Czech Republic Dennis Carlyle Darling has photographed and interviewed hundreds of Holocaust survivors who spent time at the German transit camp and ghetto at Terezín a former eighteenth century military garrison located north of Prague Many of the prisoners were kept there until they could be transported to Auschwitz or other camps but unlike German captives elsewhere they were allowed to participate in creative activities that the Nazis used for propaganda purposes to show the world how well they were treating Jews Although it was not classified as a death camp more than 33 000 prisoners died at Terezín from hunger disease and mistreatment In Borrowed Time Darling reveals Terezín as a place of painful contradictions through striking and intimate portraits that retrace time and place with his subjects the last remnants of those who survived the experience Returning to sites of painful memories with his interview subjects to photograph them Darling respectfully depicts these survivors and tells their stories

Sebald, and Iain Sinclair* David Anderson, 2020-08-27 This book situates the film maker Patrick Keiller alongside the writers W G Sebald and Iain Sinclair as the three leading voices in English psychogeography offering new insights to key works including London The Rings of Saturn and Lights Out for the Territory Excavating social and political contexts while also providing plentiful close analysis it examines the cultivation of a distinctive affective mode or sensibility especially attuned to the cultural anxieties of the twentieth century s closing decades Landscape and Subjectivity explores motifs including essayism the reconciliation of creativity with market forces and the foregrounding of an often agonised or melancholic It asks whether the work can collectively be seen to constitute a critical theory of contemporary space and suggests that Keiller Sebald and Sinclair s contributions represent a highly significant moment in English culture s engagement with landscape environment and itself The book s analyses are fuelled by archival and topographical research and are responsive to various interdisciplinary contexts including the tradition of the English Journey the set of ideas associated with the spatial turn critical theory the so called heritage debate and more recent theorisation of the anthropocene

Contemporary English-Language Indian Children's Literature Michelle Superle, 2011-05-09 Concurrent with increasing scholarly attention toward national children s literatures Contemporary English language Indian Children s Literature explores an emerging body of work that has thus far garnered little serious critical attention Superle critically examines the ways Indian children s writers have represented childhood in relation to the Indian nation Indian cultural identity and Indian girlhood From a framework of postcolonial and feminist theories children s novels published between 1988 and 2008 in India are compared with those from the United Kingdom and North America from the same period considering the differing ideologies and the current textual constructions of childhood at play in each Broadly Superle contends that over the past twenty years an aspirational view of childhood has developed in this literature a view that positions children as powerful participants in the project of enabling positive social transformation Her main argument formed after recognizing several overarching thematic and structural patterns in more than one hundred texts is that the novels comprise an aspirational literature with a transformative agenda they imagine apparently empowered child characters who perform in diverse ways in the process of successfully creating and shaping the ideal Indian nation their own well adjusted bicultural identities in the diaspora and or their own empowered girlhoods Michelle Superle is a Professor in the department of Communications at Okanagan College She has taught children s literature composition and creative writing courses at various Canadian universities and has published articles in Papers and IRCL

was characterized by great moments of rupture such as two world wars ideological conflict and political polarization In these processes as well as in the historical writing that followed in its wake the individual as an historical entity often appeared crushed In line with contemporary theories about the precariousness of historical writing and the self this volume seeks to understand the important developments in modern Europe from the perspective of the single sometimes isolated but always original viewpoint of individuals inhabiting the space at the other side of the traditional grand narratives Including theoretical chapters as well as detailed case studies this volume takes a biographical approach to dystopian events the Holocaust Fascism Communism and collectivization by starting with the voices of unknown historical actors and relating their experiences to larger processes in modern European history such as the emergence of the national collective memory and state formation as well as changes in the understanding of modern identities and the re formulation of the self This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History Asian Women Artists Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2022-11-01 This book is a guide to identifying female creators and artistic movements from all parts of Asia offering a broad spectrum of media and presentation representing a wide variety of milieus regions peoples and genres Arranged chronologically by artist birth date entries date as far back as Leizu s Chinese sericulture in 2700 BCE and continue all the way to the March 2021 mural exhibition by Malaysian painter Caryn Koh Entries feature biographical information cultural context and a survey of notable works Covering creators known for prophecy dance epic and oratory the compendium includes obscure artists and more familiar names like biblical war poet Deborah Judaeen dancer Salome Byzantine Empress Theodora and Myanmar freedom fighter Aung San Suu Kyi In an effort to relieve unfamiliarity with parts of the world poorly represented in art history this book focuses on Asian women often passed over in global art surveys

Reckonings Mary Fulbrook,2018-09-04 Mary Fulbrook s award winning book uses reckoning in the widest possible sense to reveal the disparity between the extent of inhumanity perpetrated during the Nazi era and post war attempts to interpret and rectify wrongs as the consequences of violence reverberated through time Reckonings exposes the disjuncture between official myths about dealing with the past and the fact that the vast majority of Nazi perpetrators were never held accountable The quiet contemporary American novel Rachel Sykes,2017-12-01 This book explores the concept of quiet an aesthetic of narrative driven by reflective principles and argues for the term s application to the study of contemporary American fiction In doing so it makes two critical interventions Firstly it maps the neglected history of quiet fictions arguing that from Hester Prynne to Clarissa Dalloway from Bartleby to William Stoner the Western tradition is filled with quiet characters Secondly it asks what it means for a novel to be quiet and how we might read for quiet in an American literary tradition that critics so often describe as noisy Examining recent works by Marilynne Robinson Teju Cole and Ben Lerner among others the book argues that quiet can be a multi faceted state of existence one that is communicative and expressive in as many ways as noise but filled with potential for radical discourse by its marginalisation as a mode of expression     Modernity and the Political Fix Andrew Gibson,2019-04-18 From their decisive emergence in the late eighteenth century modernity and modern politics were long haunted by irony and paradox Ours however is the age of the implosion of modernity Modernity has degenerated into self parody The polarities that an ironic grasp of it could potentially always hold in tension are finally collapsing into each other In Modernity and the Political Fix Andrew Gibson tells the relevant story and asks what aspects of modern politics we might want to salvage and preserve and within what structure we might continue thinking about them His answer is that these questions call for the isolation of a particular set of concepts that rightly positioned in relation to one another the concepts amount to a political theology that the very formulation of political temporality is therefore at stake and that the thinking in question has been and is best represented in modern philosophy and art above all modern literature Ranging through early modern and modern thought from Hobbes Pascal and Leibniz to Rousseau Kant Schopenhauer and Kierkegaard to Foucault Lacan Badiou Jambet and Ranci re and in modern literature and art from Wordsworth and Byron to Goya and Wagner Huysmans and Wilde Joyce and Woolf Joseph Roth Vicki Baum Gabriele Tergit and the Weimar novel Evelyn Waugh and George Orwell to R S Thomas and Norman Nicholson Gibson seeks to compile a modern political aide memoire a treasury for a politics to come     The Midwife-Mother Relationship
