The Image and Superscription on Every Coin Issued by the United States of America Julius Rubens Ames,1837 Images of the New Jerusalem Craig S. Campbell,2004 The Kansas City suburb of Independence Missouri is associated primarily with its most famous son President Harry Truman Yet Independence is also home to a unique and complex religious landscape regarded as sacred space by hundreds of thousands of people associated with the Latter Day Saint family of churches In 1831 Joseph Smith the founder of the Latter Day Saint LDS movement declared Independence the site of the New Jerusalem where followers would build a sacred city the center of Zion Smith prophesied that Jesus Christ would return in millennial and glorious advent to Independence an act that would make the city an American counterpart to old world Jerusalem Smith s plan would have mixed the best qualities of nineteenth century American pastoral and urban psyche However the great splintering among returning Latter Day Saint groups has led to divergent beliefs and multiple interpretations of millennial place Images of the New Jerusalem culls viewpoints from publications and interviews and contrasts them with official church doctrines and mapped land holdings For example with a desire to attract mainstream American the Western LDS Church which holds the largest amount of land in northwestern Missouri keeps fairly silent on the New Jerusalem while the RLDS Church now the Community of Christ has dropped millennial claims gradually adopting a liberal secular style of pseudo Protestantism Smaller groups independent of these two see sacred space in more spatially and doctrinally limited ways The religious ecology among Latter Day Saint churches allows each group its place in the public spotlight and a number of sociopolitical mechanisms reduce conflict among them Nonetheless Independence has developed many traits of the world's most seasoned and conflicted sacred places over a relatively short time This book opens the field of scholarship on this region where profound spatial and doctrinal variation continues Craig S Campbell is professor of geography at Youngstown State University He has published articles in Journal of Cultural Geography Cartographica The Professional Geographer Political Geography and other journals

Scott William Barker, 2009 The Film Renter and Moving Picture News, 1925 Hollywood and the Law Paul McDonald, Emily Carman, Eric Hoyt, Philip Drake, 2017-10-07 Since the earliest days of cinema the law has influenced the conditions in which Hollywood films are made sold circulated or presented from the talent contracts that enable a film to go into production to the copyright laws that govern its distribution and the censorship laws that may block exhibition Equally Hollywood has left its own impression on the American legal system by lobbying to expand the duration of copyright providing a highly visible stage for contract disputes and representing the legal system on screen In this comprehensive collection international experts offer chapters on key topics including copyright trademark piracy antitrust censorship international exhibition contracts labour and tax Drawing on historical and contemporary case studies Hollywood and the Law provides readers with a wide range of perspectives on how legal frameworks shape the culture and commerce of popular film

The Complex Image Joseph Fichtelberg, 2016-11-11 In The Complex Image Joseph Fichtelberg takes a twofold approach to the role of revision in significant American autobiographies He reexamines the problem of the autobiographical subject from a poststructuralist perspective and he places that problem in the context of American culture As a framework for his unique study he offers a reading of Ecce Homo that argues that Nietzsche's autobiographical I is both buried in and created by the text itself Only by revising his text by retelling his life to himself can Nietzsche arrive at self knowledge Ultimately Nietzsche finds himself in all literature everywhere He becomes a universal soul Fichtelberg demonstrates that Nietzsche's complex ideas about where subject and language meet in a text can be used to understand the dominant millennial impulse evident in American autobiographies Thomas Shepard cast the American portion of his autobiography as a compendium of colonial triumphs John Woolman rearranged his Journal to make a vision of Christian unity its climax and Walt Whitman fashioned Specimen Days to highlight his late tour of the west during which he realized an earlier poetic vision of national unity In the nineteenth century this easy faith in millennial union began to collapse and Fichtelberg contends that it remained only in the autobiographies of such marginal groups as those represented by Frederick Douglass and Gertrude Stein He offers a close analysis of their autobiographies and in a concluding chapter examines the work of four recent writers W E B DuBois Lillian Hellman Mary McCarthy and Maya Angelou The Complex Image will interest scholars and students of American history and literature Reading Jonathan Edwards M.X. Lesser, 2008-02-13 This compilation of reader response to Jonathan Edwards spanning 276 years includes a reprint of two earlier works Jonathan Edwards A Reference Guide 1981 and Jonathan Edwards An Annotated Bibliography 1994 and the publication of a third a gathering of commentary from 1994 to 2005 Nearly 140 essays have been added to the first and second works while the last new gathering which includes a celebration of the tercentenary of Edwards s birth adds another 700 to the whole The text preserves the pattern of arranging items alphabetically within a given year and of recording cross references Essays in a collection are annotated serially rather than alphabetically Each of the three sections is self contained with an introduction and annotated bibliography of its own Adding to the immense value of this work to Edwards scholars are the chronology of Edwards s works listed by date and by short and long title which precedes the entire work and the three comprehensive indexes of authors and titles of subjects and additions to the previous volumes Drugs, Law Enforcement, and Foreign Policy: The Cartel, Haiti, and Central America United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Subcommittee on Terrorism, Narcotics, and International Communications, 1927
