Revel with a Cause Stephen E. Kercher, 2010-06-15 We live in a time much like the postwar era A time of arch political conservatism and vast social conformity A time in which our nation's leaders question and challenge the patriotism of those who oppose their policies But before there was Jon Stewart Al Franken or Bill Maher there were Mort Sahl Stan Freberg and Lenny Bruce liberal satirists who through their wry and scabrous comedic routines waged war against the political ironies contradictions and hypocrisies of their times Revel with a Cause is their story Stephen Kercher here provides the first comprehensive look at the satiric humor that flourished in the United States during the 1950s and early 1960s Focusing on an impressive range of comedy not just standup comedians of the day but also satirical publications like MAD magazine improvisational theater groups such as Second City the motion picture Dr Strangelove and TV shows like That Was the Week That Was Kercher reminds us that the postwar era saw varieties of comic expression that were more challenging and nonconformist than we commonly remember His history of these comedic luminaries shows that for a sizeable audience of educated middle class Americans who shared such liberal views the period's satire was a crucial mode of cultural dissent For such individuals satire was a vehicle through which concerns over the suppression of civil liberties Cold War foreign policies blind social conformity and our heated racial crisis could be productively addressed A vibrant and probing look at some of the most influential comedy of mid twentieth century America Revel with a Cause belongs on the short list of essential books for anyone interested in the relationship between American politics and popular culture

9/11 and its Remediations in Popular Culture and Arts in Africa Heike Behrend, Tobias Wendl, 2015 9 11 has been described as an absolute event that radically changed the course of history It reinforced the opposition between Christian and Muslim worlds and led to the declaration of a unilateral war against a global network of terrorists that broke up the classical definition of war as a war between nation states Yet 9 11 also created responses in parts of the world that were not directly involved in the unfolding war on terror In Africa local conflicts were re mapped into an emerging new geography of anger that also reflects the effects of marginalization in a globalized world The essays of this volume explore local remediations of 9 11 in African popular culture posters photographs videos cartoons etc and visual arts They give evidence of the fundamental ambivalence towards the event of 9 11 and provide insights into the various ways distant conflicts are translated into intense proximities Series African Art and Visual Cultures Vol 3 Subject African Studies Cultural Studies Art
