Graphies And Grafts:

Graphies and Grafts Eva Darias-Beautell, 2001 This study provides a close reading and a critical analysis of four novels by contemporary Canadian women writing in English Joy Kogawa's Obasan 1983 Sky Lee's Disappearing Moon Cafe 1990 Kristjana Gunnars's The Prowler 1989 and Aritha van Herk's No Fixed Address 1987 The analysis draws on a combination of post structuralist post colonial and feminist working concepts and perspectives It is predicated on the assumption of the fundamental interconnectedness of all aspects of human knowledge and partakes of the process of intertextuality affecting our own contemporary experience of the world Recent fiction by women but also feminist and postcolonial theories of meaning and textuality have had an important share in changing our views of the world text from a closed structure to a constant process of cultural textual interaction between two or more cultures texts The novels examined here provide rich sites for the exploration of these changing paradigms and their exegesis will offer alternative ways of dealing with language history gender fiction text and reality in Canada and elsewhere Combinatorics 79, Part I ,2011-08-26 Combinatorics 79 Part I
