Grassroots Eighth Edition, Custom Publication Fawcett,2006-05      Intergenerational Space Robert

Vanderbeck,Nancy Worth,2015-06-03 Intergenerational Space offers insight into the transforming relationships between younger and older members of contemporary societies The chapter selection brings together scholars from around the world in order to address pressing questions both about the nature of contemporary generational divisions as well as the complex ways in which members of different generations are and can be involved in each other s lives These questions include how do particular kinds of spaces and spatial arrangements e g cities neighbourhoods institutions leisure sites facilitate and limit intergenerational contact and encounters What processes and spaces influence the intergenerational negotiation and contestation of values beliefs and social memory producing patterns of both continuity and change And if generational separation and segregation are in fact significant social problems across a range of contexts as a significant body of research and commentary attests how can this be ameliorated The chapters in this collection make original contributions to these debates drawing on original research from Belgium China Finland Poland Senegal Singapore Tanzania Uganda the United States and the United Kingdom

Seeking Viable Grassroots Representation Mechanisms in African Constitutions

Charles Mwalimu,2009 In this book Charles Mwalimu explores viable grassroots representation mechanisms in African constitutions in order to positively integrate indigenous and modern systems in Sub Saharan Africa A comparative study method is used to examine the constitutional principles of chieftaincy and local government and their impact on human rights To establish and prove lack of positive integration Mwalimu connects this failure to poor constitutionalism development and stultified growth and human rights violations This book proposes remedial actions to build nondiscriminatory constitutional regimes eradicating violations of human rights

Citizenship and Advocacy in Technical Communication Godwin Y. Agboka,Natalia

Matveeva,2018-06-22 In Citizenship and Advocacy in Technical Communication teachers researchers and practitioners will find a variety of theoretical frameworks empirical studies and teaching approaches to advocacy and citizenship Specifically the collection is organized around three main themes or sections considerations for understanding and defining advocacy and citizenship locally and globally engaging with the local and global community and introducing advocacy in a classroom The collection covers an expansive breadth of issues and topics that speak to the complexities of undertaking advocacy work in TPC including local grant writing activities cosmopolitanism and global transnational rhetoric digital citizenship and social media use strategic and tactical communication and diversity and social justice The contributors themselves representing fifteen academic institutions and occupying various academic ranks offer nuanced definitions frameworks examples and strategies for students scholars practitioners and educators who want to or are already engaged in a variegated range of advocacy work More so they reinforce the inherent humanistic values of our field and discuss effective rhetorical and current technological tools at our disposal Finally they show us how through pedagogical approaches and everyday mundane activities and practices we can advocate either actively or passively    Rebecca Gratz Dianne Ashton,2015-12-01 This is the first in depth biography of Rebecca Gratz 1781 1869 the foremost American Jewish woman of the nineteenth century This is the first in depth biography of Rebecca Gratz 1781 1869 the foremost American Jewish woman of the nineteenth century Perhaps the best known member of the prominent Gratz family of Philadelphia she was a fervent patriot a profoundly religious woman and a widely known activist for poor women She devoted her life to confronting and resolving the personal challenges she faced as a Jew and as a female member of a prosperous family In using hundreds of Gratz s own letters in her research Dianne Ashton reveals Gratz s own blend of Jewish and American values and explores the significance of her work Informed by her American and Jewish ideas values and attitudes Gratz created and managed a variety of municipal and Jewish institutions for charity and education including America s first independent Jewish women s charitable society the first Jewish Sunday school and the first American Jewish foster home Through her commitment to establishing charitable resources for women promoting Judaism in a Christian society and advancing women s roles in Jewish life Gratz shaped a Jewish arm of what has been called America s largely Protestant benevolent empire Influenced by the religious and political transformations taking place nationally and locally Gratz matured into a social visionary whose dreams for American Jewish life far surpassed the realities she saw around her She believed that Judaism was advanced by the founding of the Female Hebrew Benevolent Society and the Hebrew Sunday School because they offered religious education to thousands of children and leadership opportunities to Jewish women Gratz s organizations worked with an inclusive definition of Jewishness that encompassed all Philadelphia Jews at a time when differences in national origin worship style and religious philosophy divided them Legend has it that Gratz was the prototype for the heroine Rebecca of York in Sir Walter Scott s Ivanhoe the Jewish woman who refused to wed the Christian hero of the tale out of loyalty to her faith and father That legend has draped Gratz s life in sentimentality and has blurred our vision of her Rebecca Gratzis the first book to examine Gratz s life her legend and our memory    Customs Today ,    Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1973    The Death of the Big Men and the Rise of the Big Shots Keir Martin,2013-03-01 In 1994 the Pacific island village of Matupit was partially destroyed by a volcanic eruption This study focuses on the subsequent reconstruction and contests over the morality of exchanges that are generative of new forms of social stratification Such new dynamics of stratification are central to contemporary processes of globalization in the Pacific and more widely Through detailed ethnography of the transactions that a displaced people entered into in seeking to rebuild their lives this book analyses how people re make sociality in an era of post colonial neoliberalism without taking either the transformative power of globalization or the resilience of indigenous culture as its starting point It also contributes to the understanding of the problems of post disaster reconstruction and development projects     Engineering and Mining Journal-press ,1925

Creating Community-Led and Self-Build Homes Field, Martin,2020-06-24 In Creating Community Led and Self Build Homes Martin Field explores the ways in which people and communities across the UK have been striving to create the homes and neighbourhood communities they want Giving context to contemporary practices in the UK the book examines self build housing and community led housing discussing the commonalities and distinctions between these in practice and what could be learned from other initiatives across Europe Individual methods and models of local practice are explored including cohousing cooperatives community land trusts empty homes and other intentional communities and an examination is made of what has constrained such initiatives to date and how future policies and practice might be shaped     The Routledge

International Handbook of Harmful Cultural Practices Maria Jaschok,U. H. Ruhina Jesmin,Tobe Levin von Gleichen,Comfort Momoh,2023-12-04 This handbook looks at cross cultural work on harmful cultural practices considered gendered forms of abuse of women These include female genital mutilation FGM virginity testing hymenoplasty and genital cosmetic surgery Bringing together comparative perspectives intersectionality and interdisciplinarity it uses feminist methodology and mixed methods with ethnography of central importance to provide holistic grounded theorizing within a framework of transformative research Taking female genital mutilation a topical contested practice and making it a heuristic reference for related procedures makes the case for global action based on understanding the complexity of harmful cultural practices that are contextually differentiated and experienced in intersectional ways But because this phenomenon is enshrouded in matters of sensitivity and prejudice narratives of suffering are muted and even suppressed are dismissed as indigenous ritual or become ammunition for racist organizing Such conflicted and often opaque debates obstruct clear vision of the scale of both problem and solution Divided into six parts Discourses and Epistemological Fault Lines FGM and Related Patriarchal Inscriptions Gender and Genitalia Female Bodies and Body Politics Economics Law Medicine Public Health and Human Rights Placing Engagement Innovation Impact Care Words and Texts to Shatter Silence Comprised of 24 newly written chapters from experts around the world this book will be of interest to scholars and students of nursing social work and allied health more broadly as well as sociology gender studies and postcolonial studies     Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience Clifton D.
