Decolonizing the Social Sciences and the Humanities Bernd Reiter, 2021-12-30 In Decolonizing the Social Sciences and the Humanities Bernd Reiter contributes to the ongoing efforts to decolonize the social sciences and humanities by arguing that true decolonization implies a liberation from the elite culture that Western civilization has perpetually promoted Reiter brings together lessons learned from field research on a Colombian indigenous society a maroon society also in Colombia from Afro Brazilian religion from Spanish Anarchism and from German Council democracy and from analyzing non Western ontologies and epistemologies in general He claims that once these lessons are absorbed it becomes clear that Western civilization has advanced individualization and elitism The chapters present the case that human beings are able to rule themselves and have done so for some 300 000 years before the Neolithic Revolution Self rule and rule by councils is our default option once we rid ourselves of leaders and rulers Reiter concludes by considering the massive manipulations and the heinous divisions that political elitism dressed in the form of representative democracy has brought us and implores us to seek true freedom and democracy by liberating ourselves from political elites and taking on political responsibilities Decolonizing the Social Sciences and the Humanities is written for students scholars and social justice activists across cultural anthropology sociology geography Latin American Studies Africana Studies and political science

Canadian Journal of African Studies ,2004 Promises, Power, Politics and Poverty John Lloyd Lwanda,2024-05-03

Dr Banda s thirty year rule was the subject of Lwanda s earlier book Kamuzu Banda of Malawi a Study in Promise Power and Paralysis the first edition of which was in 1993 Now the small Southern African nation of Malawi has been a multiparty democracy since the first multiparty elections on 17 May 1994 The first multiparty dispensation under the United Democratic Front s President Bakili Muluzi experienced both startling successes and fantastic failures Since then the paralysing poverty has persisted yet the once silent land is resonating with freedom of speech free universal primary school education an independent judiciary The first incarnation of this book was written in 1996 three years before the elections of 1999 At the time some of the critical political questions then were Could the UDF begin delivering on their pledges on poverty alleviation and development Was the MCP capable of genuinely reforming itself Could AFORD survive Could democracy itself survive in Malawi Could a new cadre of leadership emerge one that was both unencumbered by the Banda legacy and which spoke for both rich and poor rural and urban These are some of the issues discussed in Promises Power Politics and Poverty the Democratic Transition in Malawi This book is still by far the most detailed account of the political transition of 1991 to 1994 containing details of the origins of the UDF and AFORD and charting the rise and fall of the Diaspora based political parties It also critically examined the performance of the new government up to 1996 It is an essential comprehensive reading for all those interested in the turbulent politics of Malawi from 1961 to the present It has dozens of illuminative pictures and anecdotes Lwanda is the kind of writer who wants to put everything in Landeg White Emeritus Director Centre for Southern African Studies York University He writes with deep knowledge commendable compassion and often remarkable analytical insight This analysis of a complex political situation in Malawi since the defeat of Dr Banda deserves to be considered very carefully by anyone who has the future of Africa especially central Africa at questions at heart Professor George Shepperson

Mengisteab, Gerard Hagg,2017-06-26 Most African economies range from moderately advanced capitalist systems with modern banks and stock markets to peasant and pastoral subsistent systems Most African countries are also characterized by parallel institutions of governance one is the state sanctioned formal system and the other is the traditional system which is adhered to primarily but not exclusively by the segments of the population in the subsistence peasant and pastoral economic systems Traditional Institutions in Contemporary African Governance examines critical issues that are largely neglected in the literature including why traditional institutions have remained entrenched what the socioeconomic implications of fragmented institutional systems are and whether they facilitate or impede democratization The contributors investigate the organizational structure of traditional leadership the level of adherence of the traditional systems how dispute resolution decision making and resource allocation are conducted in the traditional system gender relations in the traditional system and how the traditional institutions interact with the formal institutions Filling a conspicuous gap in the literature on African governance this book will be of great interest to policy makers as well as students and scholars of African politics political economy and democratization African Studies Review ,2004 Lost Lands? Manuela Zips-Mairitsch,2013 Indigenous peoples in international law Historical overview Indigenous peoples term concepts and definitions Differentiation from the term Minority Special indigenous rights or special circumstances indigenous protection standards rights of freedom and self determination Sources of law Binding norms ILO convention 169 UN convention on biological diversity Soft law instruments Agenda 21 chapter 26 1992 UN declaration on the rights of indigenous peoples Declarations and policies of various international bodies Indigenous rights as part of customary international law Sources of Life lands and natural resources Material standards of protection Cause of action The relationship between indigenous peoples and their territories Collective land rights Scope of indigenous territories Restriction of alienation and disposal Universal human rights treaties Right of ownership Right to culture Right to private and family life Jurisdiction of international monitoring bodies Human rights committee Committee on the elimination of racial discrimination Sources of freedom and equality self determination Being indigenous in Africa legal developments of indigenous peoples law in Africa Historical overview Nature conservation v human rights protection African initiatives for the protection of indigenous rights Indigenous peoples in Africa applying the concept Indigenous rights in the African context Regional indigenous rights The African charter on human and peoples rights The African commission on human and peoples rights The African court on human and peoples rights National indigenous rights Selected constitutional guarantees Jurisdiction using the example of South Africa The case of the Khomani San Richtersveld case Excursus Aboriginal title Aboriginal title before the South African constitutional Court Hoodia Gordonii case Legal perspectives of San Communities Terminology San Bushmen Basarwa Khoesan N oakwe or Kwe Historical overview until the end of colonial times Regional historical differences Botswana Namibia South Africa The Northern San Reflections on indigenous legal perspectives and world views Botswana state and society Sociopolitical history Pre colonial phase Protectorate bechuanaland Republic of botswana Sources of law and legal pluralism Constitutional law Customary law Common and statutory law International law Fundamental and human rights San in Botswana San as citizens Basarwa and or Batswana Dominant views of the San in Botswana Development policies Remote area development programme Community based natural resource management Development nature conservation a contradiction NGO initiatives National San NGOs Regional San NGOs The lost lands relocation from the central Kalahari game reserve History of the central Kalahari game reserve The relocation of the G wi and Gana San The legal dispute over the temporarily Lost lands Roy Sesana v government

Werner Zips,2006 Rastafari practitioners have continually resisted social sciences definition of what outsiders called a millenarian movement They maintained against these efforts of categorization that Rastafari as a lived and living philosophy combines ancient roots with ever emerging routes These historical dynamic and creative dimensions challenge any homogenizing attempts to freeze the movement in time and space African origins are as important as Diasporean experiences for Rastafari in the manifold struggles to downstroy slavery and oppression But the strong universal appeal towards the realization of equal rights and justice implodes analytical and practical limitations of a Black Atlantic culture This volume brings together contributions from well known Rastafari practitioners and social scientists as a counter to the unilateral politics of outside definition identification and misrepresentation They discuss Rastafari as an experimental philosophy its historical and contemporary global culture dimensions and its contribution to issues such as decolonization reparation and
