As the first NAACP field secretary for Mississippi Medgar Wiley Evers put his life on the line to investigate racial crimes including Emmett Till s murder and to organize boycotts and voter registration drives On June 12 1963 he was shot in the back by white supremacist Byron De La Beckwith as the civil rights leader unloaded a stack of Jim Crow Must Go T shirts in his own driveway His was the first assassination of a high ranking public figure in the civil rights movement While Evers s death ushered in a decade of political assassinations and ignited a powder keg of racial unrest nationwide his life of service and courage has largely been consigned to the periphery of U S and civil rights history In her compelling study of collective memory and artistic production Remembering Medgar Evers Minrose Gwin engages the powerful body of work that has emerged in response to Evers s life and death fiction poetry memoir drama and songs from James Baldwin Margaret Walker Eudora Welty Lucille Clifton Bob Dylan and Willie Morris among others Gwin examines local news accounts about Evers 1960s gospel and protest music as well as contemporary hip hop the haunting poems of Frank X Walker and contemporary fiction such as The Help and Gwin s own novel The Queen of Palmyra In this study Evers springs to life as a leader of plural singularity who modeled for southern African Americans a new form of cultural identity that both drew from the past and broke from it to quote Gwendolyn Brooks He leaned across tomorrow Fifty years after his untimely death Evers still casts a long shadow In her examination of the body of work he has inspired Gwin probes wide ranging questions about collective memory and art as instruments of social justice Remembered Evers s life s legacy pivots to the future she writes linking us to

Penmellen Boret, 2014-02-18 Tree burial a new form of disposal for the cremated remains of the dead was created in 1999 by Chisaka Genpo the head priest of a Zen Buddhist temple in northern Japan Instead of a conventional family gravestone perpetuating the continuity of a household and its identity tree burial uses vast woodlands as cemeteries with each burial spot marked by a tree and a small wooden tablet inscribed with the name of the deceased Tree burial is gaining popularity and is a highly effective means of promoting the rehabilitation of Japanese forestland critically damaged by post war government mismanagement This book based on extensive original research explores the phenomenon of tree burial tracing its development discussing the factors which motivate Japanese people to choose tree burial and examining the impact of tree burial on traditional views of death memorialisation and the afterlife The author argues that non traditional non ancestral modes of burial have become a means of negotiating new social orders and that this symbiosis of environmentalism and memorialisation corroborates the idea that graveyards are not only places for the containment of human remains and the memorialisation of the dead but spaces where people re construct challenge and find new senses of belonging to the wider society in which they live Throughout the book demonstrates how the new practice fits with developing ideas of ecology with the individual s corporality nourishing the earth and thus re entering the cycle of life in nature BASA 2019 Prasetyo Adi Wisnu Wibowo , Suwardi Endraswara, Teguh Supriyanto, Kundharu Saddhono, Pardi, 2020-06-18 This proceeding contains selected papers of The International Seminar On Recent Language Literature And Local Culture Studies Kajian Mutakhir Bahasa Sastra Dan Budaya Daerah BASA held on 20 21 September 2019 in Solo Indonesia The conference which was organized by Sastra Daerah Faculty of Cultural Sciences Universitas Sebelas Maret and Culture Studies Postgraduate Program of Universitas Sebelas Maret The conference accommodates topics for linguistics in general including issues in language literature local cultural studies philology folklore oral literature history art education etc Selecting and reviewing process for the The International Seminar On Recent Language Literature And Local Culture Studies Kajian Mutakhir Bahasa Sastra dan Budaya Daerah was very challenging in that it needs a goodwill of those who were involved in such a process More than ten experts were invited in reviewing giving suggestions for revision and at last selecting the papers On that account we would like to forward our appreciation and our gratefulness to such invited experts for having done the process The committee received more than 180 papers from the participants and based on the results of the review only 141 papers were declared fit to be presented at the seminar and subsequently published in the proceedings of BASA 3 2019 Papers in the proceeding are expected to give academic benefits especially in broadening the horizon of our understanding in language literature and local culture studies We realize that what we are presenting for the publication is till far for being perfect Constructive criticism is very much welcome for improvement Finally the committees thank for the participation and congratulate for the publication of the papers in the proceedings of BASA 3 2019 The committees also thank all those who have supported and actively participated for the success of this event Hopefully these Proceedings can be used as references

Descriptive Catalogue of Selected Popular Music, Compiled and Arranged for the Use of Teachers, Dealers, Amateurs, Etc S. Brainard's Sons, 1872 The German Poets of the First World War Patrick Bridgwater, 2020-01-31
Originally published in 1985 this book provides a full survey of the best and most significant work of German writers to the First World War Including in both German and English the texts of all the main poems discussed this book contains many not readily available elsewhere Authors discussed include Trakl Rilke and George as well as less familiar names The book not only corrects the distorted view of the subject perpetuated by most histories of German literature but will also help to English First World War poetry into perspective Exceeding Reason Dennis Vanden Auweele, 2020-10-12 The work of the later Schelling in and after 1809 seems antithetical to that of Nietzsche one a Romantic idealist and Christian the other Dionysian anti idealist and anti Christian Still there is a very meaningful and educative dialogue to be found between Schelling and Nietzsche on the topics of reason freedom and religion Both of them start their philosophy with a similar critique of the Western tradition which to them is overly dualist rationalist and anti organic metaphysically ethically religiously politically In response they hope to inculcate a more lively view of reality in which a new understanding of freedom takes center stage This freedom can be revealed and strengthened through a proper approach to religion one that neither disconnects from nor subordinates religion to reason Religion is the dialogical other to reason one that refreshes and animates our attempts to navigate the world autonomously In doing so Schelling and Nietzsche open up new avenues of thinking about the relationship between freedom reason and religion Modernism's Body Christine Froula, 1996 Froula argues that James Joyce's modernist portraits of the artist are also portraits of his culture Perspectives on Korean Music Keith Howard, 2017-05-15
As Korea has developed and modernized music has come to play a central role as a symbol of national identity Nationalism has been stage managed by scholars journalists and from the beginning of the 1960s by the state as music genres have been documented preserved and promoted as Intangible Cultural Properties Practitioners have been appointed holders or in everyday speech Human Cultural Properties to maintain perform and teach exemplary versions of tradition Over the last few years the Korean preservation system has become a model for UNESCO's Living Human Treasures and Masterpieces of the Oral and Intangible Heritage of Mankind In this volume Keith Howard provides the first comprehensive analysis in English of the system He documents court music and dance Confucian and shaman ritual music folksongs the professional folk art genres of p ansori epic storytelling through song and sanjo scattered melodies and more as well as instrument making food preparation and liquor distilling a good performance after all requires wine to flow The extensive documentation reflects considerable fieldwork discussion and questioning carried out over a 25 year period and blends the voices of scholars government officials performers craftsmen and the general public By interrogating both contemporary and historical data Howard negotiates the debates and critiques that surround this remarkable attempt to protect local and national music and other performance arts and crafts An accompanying downloadable resource illustrates many of the music genres considered featuring many master musicians including some who have now died The preservation of music and other performance arts and crafts is part of the contemporary zeitgeist yet occupies contested territory This is particularly true when the concept of tradition is invoked Within Korea the recognition of the fragility of indigenous music inherited from earlier times is balanced by an awareness of the need to maintain identity as lifestyles change in response to modernization and globalization Howard argues that Korea and the world is a better place when the richness of indigenous music is preserved and promoted

Novalis, Signs of Revolution William Arctander O'Brien, 1995 Novalis traces the meteoric career of one of the most striking and most strikingly misunderstood figures of German Romanticism Although Friedrich von Hardenberg better known by his pseudonym Novalis published scarcely eighty pages of writings in his lifetime his considerable fame and influence continued to spread long after his death in 1801 His posthumous reputation however was largely based on the myth manufactured by opportunistic editors as Wm Arctander O'Brien reveals in this book the first to extract Hardenberg from the distortions of history A member of the generation of the 1770s that included Hegel Herderlin and Schelling Hardenberg was an avid follower of the French Revolution a semiotician avant la lettre and a prescient critic of religion Yet in 1802 only a year after his death the writer who had scandalized the Prussian court was marketed to a nation at war as a reactionary patriot a sweet versifier of Idealism and a morbid mystic Identifying the break between Hardenberg's own early Romanticism and the late Romanticism that falsified it Novalis shows us a writer fully engaged in revolutionary politics and examines his semiotic readings of philosophy and of the political scientific and religious institutions of the day Drawing on the full range of Novalis's writings including his poetry notebooks novels and journals O'Brien situates his semiotics between those of the eighteenth century and those of the twentieth and demonstrates the manner in which a concern for signs and language permeated all aspects of his thought The most extensive study of Hardenberg available in English Novalis makes this revolutionary theoretician visible for the first time Mining a crucial chapter in the history of semiotics and social theory it suggests fruitful sometimes problematic connections between semiotic historical deconstructive and philological practices as it presents a portrait of one of the most complex figures in literary history Indispensable for scholars of German Romanticism Novalis will also be of interest to students of comparative literature and European intellectual history The Complete
