Grazia Deledda Ethnic Novelist Scripta Humanistica 68:

Grazia Deledda's Painterly Aesthetic Angela Guiso, Virginia A. Picchiotti, 2025-02-15 Central to Grazia Deledda's narrative worlds are the relationships between her characters and the vast landscapes in which they move and act. The writer translates and represents her characters' emotions and her natural and urban landscapes with a vocabulary that is often related to the visual arts. However, although her descriptions contain the gradations of Modernist painting beginning with Impressionism, no book-length study and with diverse perspectives has thus far investigated Deledda's relationship with the visual arts and the resulting painterly aesthetic of her multicolored narratives. In this sense, Grazia Deledda's Painterly Aesthetic provides an articulated literary panorama of Deledda's novels and short stories through a discourse that is situated between literature and pictorial art. Inspired by these two cardinal points, the analyses are undertaken by contributors who have a profound awareness of an epochal change and work in different disciplines. One year from the centenary of her receipt of the Nobel Prize, the contributors investigate the connections, consonances and differences between Grazia Deledda's oeuvre and other works inside this panorama to verify a possible unity of purpose. At the same time, they seek to ascertain whether these connections can corroborate and exalt the choices that the Sardinian writer made to free herself from the constraints of a hostile environment. Italy 1991 Dino S. Cervigni, 1991 Modernist

Idealism Michael J. Subialka, 2021-11-01 Offering a new approach to the intersection of literature and philosophy, Modernist Idealism contends that certain models of idealist thought require artistic form for their full development and that modernism realizes philosophical idealism in aesthetic form. This comparative view of modernism employs tools from intellectual history, literary analysis and philosophical critique focusing on the Italian reception of German idealist thought from the mid 1800s to the Second World War. Modernist Idealism intervenes in ongoing debates about the nineteenth and twentieth century resurgence of materialism and spiritualism as well as the relation of decadent avant garde and modernist production. Michael J. Subialka aims to open new discursive space for the philosophical study of modernist literary and visual culture considering not only philosophical and literary texts but also early cinema. The author's main contention is that in various media and with sometimes radically different political and cultural aims, a host of modernist artists and thinkers can be seen as sharing in a project to realize idealist philosophical worldviews in aesthetic form. AdI, 1991 Grazia Deledda Mario Aste, 1990

The Poet's Myth of Fernán González Jean Paul Keller, 1990 Bibliographic Index, 1994 The Tree Surgeon's Gift Edward C. Lynskey, 1990 The title poems reveal Lynskey's gift in what he does best: seeing beauty in the ugly, putting the job, the ordinary work within a context of wonder and ritual. Mario Vargas Llosa Roy A. Kerr, 1990 A collection of ten essays that examine the techniques of characterization and the interrelationship of character with other narrative components in Mario Vargas Llosa's fiction from Los jefes to El hablador.
