Great Adventures in Archaeology Robert Silverberg, 1997-01-01 Excerpts from autobiographical writings of archaeologists with historical introductions by the editor Great Adventures in Archaeology, 1966 Archaeology Graham Connah, 2010-03-08 In this book Graham Connah offers an overview of archaeological authorship its diversity its challenges and its methodology Based on his own experiences he presents his personal views about the task of writing about archaeology The book is not intended to be a technical manual Instead Connah aims to encourage archaeologists who write about their subject to think about the process of writing He writes with the beginning author in mind but the book will be of interest to all archaeologists who plan to publish their work Connah s overall premise is that those who write about archaeology need to be less concerned with content and more concerned with how they present it It is not enough to be a good archaeologist One must also become a good writer and be able to communicate effectively Archaeology he argues is above all a literary discipline Handbook of Archaeological Theories R. Alexander Bentley, Herbert D. G. Maschner, Christopher Chippindale, 2008 This handbook a companion to the authoritative Handbook of Archaeological Methods gathers original authoritative articles from leading archaeologists on all aspects of the latest thinking about archaeological theory It is the definitive resource for understanding how to think about archaeology The Norton Dictionary of Modern Thought Alan Bullock, Stephen Trombley, 1999 Nearly four thousand entries cover terms in Electrochemistry for Cultural all disciplines contributed by experts in each field with suggestions for further reading Heritage Antonio Doménech-Carbó, María Teresa Doménech-Carbó, 2023-07-05 This monograph overviews the importance of electrochemistry in the field of cultural heritage including archaeology conservation and restoration topics The application of electrochemical techniques in these domains have experienced a notable growth during the last ten years in particular with regards to the elucidation of composition manufacturing techniques and chronology of archaeological artefacts This book describes the application of solid state electrochemistry techniques for the use of samples at the nanogram level from paintings metallic ceramic glass glazed wooden and other objects and it also includes the description of new dating procedures for archaeological objects made of these materials It is a valuable contribution to the field of cultural heritage and will be of great interest to archaeologists conservators and restorers as well as to physicists and chemists working on the scientific examination of works of art The Return of Cultural Treasures Jeanette Greenfield, 1996-01-26 New edition of Greenfield's pioneering study about the legal political and historical aspects of cultural restitution Cultural Property Law and Restitution Irini A. and West At the start of the fourth millennium BC at the edge of historical time civilization first arrived with the advent of cities and the invention of writing that began to replace legend with history This occurred on the floodplains of southern Iraq where the great rivers Tigris and Euphrates meet the Persian Gulf By 3000 BC a city called Uruk from which Iraq is derived had 80 000 residents Indeed as Bartle Bull reveals in his magisterial history if one divides the 5 000 years of human civilization into ten periods of five centuries each during the first nine of these the world's leading city was in one of the three regions of current day Iraq or to use its Greek name Mesopotamia Inspired by extensive reporting from the region to spend a decade delving deep into its history Bull chronicles the story of Iraq from the exploits of Gilgamesh almost certainly an historical figure to the fall of the Iraqi monarchy in 1958 that ushered in its familiar modern era The land between the rivers has been the melting pot and battleground of countless outsiders from the Akkadians of Hammurabi and the Greeks of Alexander to the Ottomans of Suleiman the Magnificent Here by the waters of Babylon Judaism was born and the Sunni Shia schism took its bloody shape Central themes play out over the millennia humanity s need for freedom versus the co eternal urge of tyranny the ever present conflict and cross fertilization of East and West with Iraq so often the hinge We tend to view today s tensions in the Middle East through the prism of the last hundred years since the Treaty of Versailles imposed a controversial realignment of its borders Bartle Bull's remarkable sweeping achievement reminds us that the region defined by the land between the rivers has for five millennia played a uniquely central role on the global stage Nineveh Arnold C.
