Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune women's and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

Images Performing History Katarzyna Ruchel-Stockmans, 2015-09-18 The operative role of the photographic media in making and remaking history History is increasingly made in images not only because its records are largely photographic but also because our ideas about the past are formed in visual terms This book offers a discussion of contemporary art practices which question the received notions of historical representations after the pivotal changes of 1989 in Europe These art practices reveal in different ways the operative role of the photographic media in making and remaking history Not limited to a particular artistic medium they demonstrate how history is forged through enacting or re enacting its past forms while on the other hand they indicate how copying and quoting can contribute to creating a new operative aesthetics By foregrounding a performative character of images art is shown to construct an alternative knowledge of the past Among others the works of the following artists are discussed in this book Zofia Kulik Yael Bartana Harun Farocki and Andrej Ujic Luc Tuymans Dierk Schmidt
