Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Historic Walks in San Francisco Rand Richards, 2002 Eighteen self guided walking tours down city streets that will take you back in time with colorful stories about the buildings along the way and the people associated with them Brimming with insight and the odd fact laced with humor and drama this unique guidebook sheds new light on the history of one of America's renowned cities Easy to follow maps and dozens of historic photographs The California Handbook Thaddeus C. Trzyna, 1987 Women and the Everyday City Jessica Ellen Sewell, 2011 In Women and the Everyday City Jessica Ellen Sewell explores the lives of women in turn of the century San Francisco A period of transformation of both gender roles and American cities she shows how changes in the city affected women's ability to negotiate shifting gender norms as well as how women's increasing use of the city played a critical role in the campaign for women's suffrage Focusing on women's everyday use of streetcars shops restaurants and theaters Sewell reveals the impact of women on these public places what women did there which women went there and how these places were changed in response to women's presence Using the diaries of three women in San Francisco Annie Haskell Ella Lees Leigh and Mary Eugenia Pierce who wrote extensively on their everyday experiences Sewell studies their accounts of day trips to the city and combines them with memoirs newspapers maps photographs and her own observations of the buildings that exist today to build a sense of life in San Francisco at this pivotal point in history Working at the nexus of urban history architectural history and cultural geography Women and the Everyday City offers a revealing portrait of both a major American city during its early years and the women who shaped it and the country for generations to come The California Handbook, 1994 Source Book of American Architecture G.E. Kidder Smith, 2000-09 This comprehensive and insightful illustrated survey of 500 of America's most distinguished buildings provides a unique overview of the thousand year architectural development of the United States It examines our nation's architecture from its earliest days to the present ranging from cliff dwellings in Mesa Verde to Frank Lloyd Wright's Robie House in Chicago to James Ingo Freed's Holocaust Museum in Washington Indispensable in any library it also serves as a general introduction to American architecture or as a splendid guide for tourists Source Book of American Architecture George Everard Kidder Smith, 1996 Scorched Earth is the first book to chronicle the effects of chemical warfare on the Vietnamese people and their environment where even today more than 3 million people including 500 000 children are sick and dying from birth defects cancer and other illnesses that can be directly traced to Agent Orange dioxin exposure Weaving first person accounts with original research Vietnam War scholar Fred A Wilcox examines long term consequences for future generations laying bare the ongoing monumental tragedy in Vietnam and calls for the United States government to finally admit its role in chemical warfare in Vietnam Wilcox also warns readers that unless we stop poisoning our air food and water supplies the cancer epidemic in the United States and other countries will only worsen and he urgently demands the chemical manufacturers of Agent Orange to compensate the victims of their greed and to stop using the Earth's rivers lakes and oceans as toxic waste dumps Vietnam has chosen August 10 the day that the US began spraying Agent Orange on Vietnam as Agent Orange Day to commemorate all its citizens who were affected by the deadly chemical Scorch Earth will be released upon the third anniversary of this day in honor of all those whose families have suffered and continue to suffer from this tragedy
