modernity from its technological sophistication and integration into capitalist markets to its institutionalization and celebrity culture and its supposed antiquity from the mythology of the Olympics to the ancient roots of sporting civic and national pride and the emotional and near religious fervour of sports fans This book intervenes in one of the most important of the receptions of classical antiquity by examining how sports personalities agencies institutions and movements have consciously connected themselves to the Graeco Roman past even as they continue to insist on their own centrality in the modern world

Media, Sport, Nationalism Tianwei Ren, Keiko Ikeda, Chang Wan Woo, 2019-03-01 East Asia is increasingly prominent within global sport In the short period between 2018 and 2022 it will have held two Winter and one Summer Olympics and the Rugby World Cup for good measure This is not a sudden development It has been in train for some time although many scholars especially in Europe and North America have been focussed primarily on sport in their own countries and regions J A Mangan who for decades has been looking closely at sport in East Asia while encouraging others to do likewise has made a major contribution to knowledge and understanding of a once under appreciated subject This excellent collection in his honour analyses the key interwoven elements of sport media and nation in China Japan and South Korea It demonstrates how the structure and practice of sport connects in myriad ways with its representation not least with regard to national narratives international rivalries and transnational trends It is a book that does signal justice both to East Asian Studies and to the academic who recognised the importance of sport to that field and who has done so much to ensure that the region is centrally placed within any contemporary analysis of the world of sport David Rowe Emeritus Professor of Cultural Research Institute for Culture and Society Western Sydney University Professor Mangan is the master dissector of the connections between sport and politics geopolitics and nationalism across multiple Asian contexts A collection of essays in honour of his long service to academic understandings of these fields is well deserved and the editors and contributors to this volume have served up a worthy tribute Showcasing new work by a stellar cast of China Japan and Korea experts in combination the papers collected here yield valuable insights into the issues of nation building identity media representation and sport which have been the subject of Professor Mangan s pioneering work over the past several decades No one has done more to put East Asia on the map in terms of academic research on the manifold socio political dimensions of sport and this superbly constructed volume orchestrated by rising Tianwei Ren confirms that we neglect this fascinating complex region at our peril Jonathan Sullivan Director of China Policy Institute and China Soccer Observatory Associate Professor School of Politics and IR University of Nottingham

Host Cities and the Olympics Harry H. Hiller,2014 Rather than interpreting the Olympics as primarily a sporting event of international or national significance this book understands the Games as a civic project for the host city that serves as a catalyst for a variety of urban interests over a period of many years from the bidding phase through the event itself Traditional Olympic studies have tended to examine the Games from an outsider s perspective or as something experienced through the print media or television In contrast the focus presented here is on the dynamics within the host city understood as a community of interacting individuals who encounter the Games in a variety of ways through support opposition or even indifference but who have a profound influence on the outcome of the Games as actors and players in the Olympics as a drama Adopting a symbolic interactionist approach the book offers a new interpretive model through which to understand the Olympic Games by exploring the relationship between the Games and residents of the host city Key analytical concepts such as framing dramaturgy the public realm and the symbolic field are introduced and illustrated through empirical research from the Vancouver 2010 Winter Games and it is shown how the social media and shifts in public opinion reflected interaction effects within the city By filling a clear lacuna in the Olympic Studies canon this book is important reading for anybody with an interest in the sociology of sport urban studies event studies or urban sociology
