and infrastructure to immigration environmental pollution climate change and California's ties with neighboring Mexico and the dynamic Asian economies A recognized authority on foreign affairs Lowenthal argues that the real choices are not whether to cheer globalization or condemn it Rather Californians need to think strategically and act effectively to gain as much as possible from international engagement while managing its risks and costs They need to build cosmopolitan capacity to understand and respond to global challenges and opportunities Too much is at stake for California its citizens government firms and non governmental organizations to leave thinking and acting on international affairs to the federal government and to East Coast think tank experts This volume shows Californians how to succeed in an ever more interconnected world

Antitrust and Global Capitalism, 1930-2004 Tony A. Freyer, 2006-10-09 The international spread of antitrust suggested the historical process shaping global capitalism By the 1930s Americans feared that big business exceeded the government's capacity to impose accountability engendering the most aggressive antitrust campaign in history Meanwhile big business had emerged to varying degrees in liberal Britain Australia and France Nazi Germany and militarist Japan These same nations nonetheless expressly rejected American style antitrust as unsuited to their cultures and institutions After World War II however governments in these nations as well as the European Community adopted workable antitrust regimes By the millennium antitrust was instrumental to the clash between state sovereignty and globalization What ideological and institutional factors explain the global change from opposing to supporting antitrust Addressing this question this book throws new light on the struggle over liberal capitalism during the Great Depression and World War II the postwar Allied occupations of Japan and Germany the reaction against American big business hegemony during the Cold War and the clash over globalization and the WTO
