The Impact of Global English on Cultural Identities in the United Arab Emirates Sarah Hopkyns, 2020-03-18 This book provides a nuanced portrait of the complexities found within the cultural and linguistic landscape of the United Arab Emirates unpacking the ever shifting dynamics between English and Arabic in today's era of superdiversity Employing a qualitative phenomenological approach which draws on a rich set of data from questionnaires to focus groups with Emirati students Emirati schoolteachers and expatriate university teachers Hopkyns problematizes the common binary East West paradigm focused on the tension between the use of English and Arabic in the UAE Key issues emerging from the resulting analysis include the differing attitudes towards English and in particular English Medium Instruction the impact of this tension on identities and the ways in which the two languages are employed in distinct ways on an everyday scale The volume will particularly appeal to students and scholars interested in issues around language and identity language policy and planning multilingualism translanguaging and language in education Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Bridging English Joseph O'Beirne Milner,Lucy Floyd Morcock Milner,2003 The third edition of this popular book again takes a balanced comprehensive approach to teaching English one that creates a bridge between theory background and practices that reflect today s diverse challenging high school classrooms This book has been praised for its unique components discussion of four stages of reading texts and three phases of teaching texts The authors many years of experience teaching English are obvious throughout the material but nowhere more so than in their straightforward presentation of organization and planning for instruction and their firm stand on teaching grammar This book covers the challenging and the controversial in English instruction and explores censorship national standards high stakes testing multilingual students and multicultural literature For professionals in the field of teaching Deciding to Lead Denny T. Wolfe,Joseph C. Antinarella,1997 This text claims that English teachers are ideally suited to take the lead in initiating and negotiating positive reform within schools It argues that to achieve substantial progress in schools policy funding and administrative reform must be coupled with teacher led curricular reform Teaching English as an International Language Phan Le Ha,2008-03-28 Building on both Western and Asian theoretical resources the book examines how EIL teachers see themselves as professional and individual in relation to their work practices It reveals the tensions compromises negotiations and resistance in their enactment of different roles and selves especially when they are exposed to values often associated with the English speaking West The ways they perceive their identity formation problematise and challenge the seemingly dominant views of identity as always changing hybrid and fragmented Their experiences highlight the importance of the sense of belonging and being connectedness continuity and a coherent growth in identity formation Their attachment to a particular locality and their commitment to perform the moral guide role as EIL teachers serve as the most powerful platform for all their other identities to be constructed negotiated and reconstituted Illinois English Bulletin ,1998 English Journal ,2004 Index of Conference Proceedings ,1995 Authenticity across Languages and Cultures Leo Will,Wolfgang Stadler,Irma Eloff,2022-11-10 This volume centres around concepts of personal and cultural authenticity as they play out in various contexts of foreign language teaching and learning worldwide The chapters cover a wide range of contexts and disciplines including both theoretical and empirical work together they comprise both a rigorous analysis of authenticity in language teaching and a step away from notions of native speakerism and cultural essentialism with which it is often associated. Written by a group of scholars working across several continents the chapters offer diverse perspectives regarding the role language plays in processes of personal growth learning development self actualisation and power dynamics. The book addresses the theoretical and philosophical nature of authenticity while remaining grounded in the teaching and learning of languages with authenticity viewed as a practical concern that guides our actions and beliefs. The book will be of interest to scholars researchers and students of authenticity as well as foreign language teachers interested in the theoretical underpinnings of their practice.
