Global Inequality and American Foreign Policy in the 1970s Michael Franczak, 2022-06-15 In Global Inequality and American Foreign Policy in the 1970s Michael Franczak demonstrates how Third World solidarity around the New International Economic Order NIEO forced US presidents from Richard Nixon to Ronald Reagan to consolidate American hegemony over an international economic order under attack abroad and lacking support at home The goal of the nations that supported NIEO was to negotiate a redistribution of money and power from the global North to the global South Their weapon was control over the major commodities in particular oil that undergirded the prosperity of the United States and Europe after World War II Using newly available archival sources as well as interviews with key administration officials Franczak reveals how the NIEO and North South dialogue negotiations brought global inequality to the forefront of US national security The challenges posed by NIEO became an inflection point for some of the greatest economic political and moral crises of 1970s America including the end of golden age liberalism and the return of the market the splintering of the Democratic Party and the building of the Reagan coalition and the rise of human rights in US foreign policy in the wake of the Vietnam War The policy debates and decisions toward the NIEO were pivotal moments in the histories of three ideological trends neoliberalism neoconservatism and human rights that formed the core of America's post Cold War foreign policy
