Globalization, Culture and Inequality in Asia Timothy J. Scrase, Todd Joseph Miles Holden, Scott Baum, 2003 Contemplating globalization from a sociological perspective it is without doubt that a major site for social political economic and cultural change in the new millennium lies in the Asian region The chapters in this book seek to describe and analyze a number of key aspects of social and cultural change wrought by globalization in the Asian region The underlying theme in the book is the multi dimensional way in which globalization in the form of ideas practices and technology have introduced social inequalities in specific contexts In particular the book examines how inequality has been reproduced challenged and theorized in Asia by the advent of globalizing culture Written by experienced and established scholars the study provides both theoretical explanation and discussion and analysis of empirical data from a range of social cultural and political economic perspectives and draws on studies from several countries in the region

Globalization and Urban Development Harry W. Richardson, Chang-Hee C. Bae, 2006-03-30 Most research on globalization has focused on macroeconomic and economy wide consequences This book explores an under researched area the impacts of globalization on cities and national urban hierarchies especially but not solely in developing countries Most of the globalization urban research has concentrated on the global cities e g New York London Paris Tokyo that influence what happens in the rest of the world In contrast this research looks at the cities at the receiving end of the forces of globalization The general finding is that large cities on balance benefit from globalization although in some cases at the expense of widening spatial inequities

Global Movements in the Asia Pacific Pookong Kee, Hidetaka Yoshimatsu, 2010 A collection of papers that discusses developments in the global movements of people goods services and information in the Asia Pacific region

Inclusion and Exclusion in the Global Arena Max Kirsch, 2014-01-27 This collection of essays addresses the inclusion and exclusion of peoples populations and regions in an era of global economic and social integration Although many publications have discussed the way in which globalization has changed the nature of boundaries space and the movement of peoples there is a wide gap in a literature that rarely addresses the reaction of local communities and inclusion for some stakeholders in decision making while excluding others particularly in regard to global integration of industry the legislation of planning and trade This gap has often led to narrow and sometimes misleading ways of presenting the results of globalizing processes This collection aims to bridge this gap by providing on the ground case studies that lead to alternative ways of viewing current conceptual frameworks of globalization and its consequences This collection is an elaboration of a special issue of Urban Anthropology that contained essays by June Nash Jack Goody Helen Safa and Max Kirsch The special issue addressed concerns that have become prominent not only in anthropology but in the wider social sciences and humanities The reader focuses on the conceptual divisions among the constructs of space and place indigenous strategies for autonomy polity and global planning mechanisms and the role of trans national corporations in community disintegrations and resistance

Development and Planning in Seven Major Coastal Cities in Southern and Eastern China Jianfa Shen, Gordon Kee, 2016-11-03 This book analyzes the recent growth of Guangzhou Shenzhen Fuzhou Shanghai Hangzhou Nanjing and Hong Kong seven major Chinese coastal cities The authors detail theoretical mechanisms spatial and non spatial models of development all while exploring possible directions to sustainability They also look at how these cities have developed over the last 30 years from the late 1970s to the 21st century Each has its own unique background regional and national positions advantages and functions Using diversified approaches and measurements for each city the authors argue that structural changes are necessary to achieve much needed sustainable development The book covers developmental issues such as the regaining of central city and global city statuses the role of governments in steering development and achieving goals through mega projects urban competitiveness positioning and branding Including varied assessment and intense suggestions for structural changes this book addresses core concerns for the sustainable growth of these metropolises A valuable book for students researchers and policy makers Global China: Internal And External Reaches Bryan Pak Nung Wong, Joseph Yu-shek Cheng, 2015-03-26 After two decades since the disintegration of Soviet Union in 1991 the largest and the most populist socialist state the People s Republic of China does not only manage to stay intact but has also emerged as the second largest economy in the world Moreover its political diplomatic military and cultural reaches have been extended to various parts of the world There have been many factual and fictional discussions and debates in the public domains on China s apparent rise either as a threat or an opportunity This book will take on these discussions and debates to provide theory informed empirical studies regarding a few research questions We consider that the idea and concept of Global China is perhaps the most viable analytical instrument to capture such increasingly complex phenomena in association with the rise of China Linguistic Imperialism Continued Robert Phillipson, 2013-01-11 This volume brings together key writings since the 1992 publication of Linguistic Imperialism Robert Phillipson s controversial benchmark volume which triggered a major re thinking of the English teaching profession by connecting the field to wider political and economic forces Analyzing how the global dominance of English in all domains of power is maintained legitimized and persists in the twenty first century Linguistic Imperialism Continued reflects and contributes in important ways to understanding these developments This book is not for sale in India Pakistan Bangladesh Sri Lanka Nepal and Bhutan The Urban Response to Internationalization Peter Karl Kresl, Earl H. Fry, 2005-01-01 Through these they hope to facilitate development of activities that will improve the economic lives of residents and enable their city to maintain or advance its competitiveness and its position in the urban hierarchy This unique study will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of economics urban studies and public policy as well as to those in city administrative and leadership positions Global Regionalization H. S. Geyer, 2006-01-01 Global Regionalization examines the astonishing political and economic changes that have completely reshaped the political geography of certain regions during the past fifteen years It deals with the concept of global bloc formation examining the impacts that changing political economic conditions and relationships in and between nations have on demographic and economic flows The Postcolonial and the Global Revathi Krishnaswamy, John Charles Hawley, This interdisciplinary work brings the humanities and social sciences into dialogue by examining issues such as globalized capital discourses of antiterrorism and identity politics Essayists from the fields of postcolonial studies and globalization theory address the ethical and pragmatic ramifications of opposing interpretations of these issues and for the first time seek common ground Contributors Pal Ahluwalia U of California San Diego Arjun Appadurai New School U Geoffrey Bowker Santa Clara U Timothy Brennan U of Minnesota Ruth Buchanan U of British Columbia Verity Burgmann U of Melbourne Pheng Cheah U of California Berkeley Inderpal Grewal U of California Irvine Ramon Grosfoguel U of California Berkeley Barbara Harlow U of Texas Austin Anouar Majid U of New England John McMurtry U of Guelph Walter D Mignolo Duke U Sundhya Pahuja U of Melbourne R
