Mansoob Murshed, 2002-08 This excellent new book contains contributions from a number of leading experts and is the result of the UNU WIDER project on globalization and low income countries The discussion focuses in on how to harness globalization for the benefit of present day marginalized countries and enhance their meaningful participation in the globalization process Vital reading for students and academics interested in development economics this collection will also prove an invaluable tool for policy makers Globalization, Marginalization and Development Syed Mansoob Murshed, 2000

Globalization, Growth and Marginalization A.S. Bhalla, 1998-09-12 Globalization is defined in economic terms to mean freer flows of trade foreign direct investment and finance and liberalization of trade and investment policies Impacts of globalization and information technology are examined in terms of growth and productivity poverty and income distribution and employment Experiences of Africa East and Southeast Asia South Asia and Latin America in the era of globalization are discussed It is argued that benefits of freer trade and capital flows need to be managed carefully in order to minimise the costs and maximise gains Mapping Social Exclusion in India Paramjit S. Judge, 2014-03-13 Identifies and examines various trajectories of exclusion at both macro and micro levels in India

Globalization and Urban Development Harry W. Richardson, Chang-Hee C. Bae, 2006-03-30 Most research on globalization has focused on macroeconomic and economy wide consequences This book explores an under researched area the impacts of globalization on cities and national urban hierarchies especially but not solely in developing countries Most of the globalization urban research has concentrated on the global cities e g New York London Paris Tokyo that influence what happens in the rest of the world In contrast this research looks at the cities at the receiving end of the forces of globalization The general finding is that large cities on balance benefit from globalization although in some cases at the expense of widening spatial inequities International Labour Review

Organisation internationale du travail, Bureau international du travail, Credit Cooperatives in India Biswa Swarup Misra, 2010-04-08 Cooperatives in India make up one of the largest rural financial systems in the world This book deals with the traditional banking system in the developing economy of India and its evolution over time It shows that cooperatives occupy an important place in India's financial edifice as they play a key role in the multi agency framework for rural credit delivery Youth and Employment in Sub-Saharan Africa Hiroyuki Hino, Gustav Ranis, 2014-06-05 It is widely acknowledged that youth unemployment is one of the most critical challenges facing countries in Sub Saharan Africa This volume brings together an eminent group of international scholars to analyse the extent and complex nature of this joblessness and offer a set of evidence based policy choices that could contribute to solving the problem in the short and long run Part I reviews the existing literature on youth unemployment and underemployment in Sub Saharan Africa from microeconomic and macroeconomic perspectives while Part II goes on to present detailed country studies of Ethiopia Ghana Kenya and South Africa These studies offer a deep understanding of the situation on the ground and consider country specific solutions Throughout the book it is argued that the standard ILO definition of unemployment is too narrow to correctly portray employment situations in Sub Saharan Africa Several alternative measures of unemployment are presented which show that joblessness is far more pervasive than commonly assumed in the literature This volume will be of interest to academics and policy makers involved in African development

The Microfinance Impact Ranjula Bali Swain,2013-08-15

Financial inclusion through microfinance has become a powerful force in improving the living conditions of poor farmers rural non farm enterprises and other vulnerable groups In its unique ability to link the existing extensive network of India s rural bank branches with the Self Help Groups SHG the National Bank of Agriculture and Rural Development NABARD has covered up to 97 million poor households by March 2010 under its Self Help Group Bank Linkage Programme Policy makers have proclaimed SHGs as the most potent initiative for delivering financial services to the poor in a sustainable manner This book presents a comprehensive scientific assessment of the impact of the Self Help Group Bank Linkage Programme SBLP on the member households The book discusses wide ranging topics including the rural financial sector in India the history and structure of the SBLP the impact methodologies the economic and social impact of microfinance its role in building assets while reducing poverty and vulnerability the role of women and their empowerment training and accumulation of human capital and policy implications of lessons learned The empirical results show that vulnerability of the more mature SHG members declines significantly Vulnerability also falls for villages with better infrastructure and for SHGs that are formed by NGOs and linked by banks The results strongly demonstrate that on average there is a significant increase in the empowerment of the female participants The economic impact of SBLP is found to be the most empowering Greater autonomy and changes in social attitudes also lead to female empowerment The investigation further reveals that training especially business training has a definite positive impact on assets but not on income The impact of training can be improved through better infrastructure as in paved roads linkage model type and the training organiser Bridging the gap in the existing literature and between academics and practitioners this book moves beyond the usual theoretical issues in the impact assessment literature and draws on new developments in methodology It will be of interest to academics development practitioners and students of economics political science sociology public policy and development studies

Rethinking the Liberal Peace Shahrbanou Tadjbakhsh,2011-03-08 This book presents a critical analysis of the liberal peace project and offers possible alternatives and models In the past decade the model used for reconstructing societies after conflicts has been based on liberal assumptions about the pacifying effects of open markets and open societies Yet despite the vast resources invested in helping establish the precepts of this liberal peace outcomes have left much to be desired The book argues that failures in the liberal peace project are not only due to efficiency problems related to its adaptation in adverse local environments but mostly due to problems of legitimacy of turning an ideal into a doctrine for action The aim of the book is to scrutinize assumptions about the value of democratization and marketization and realities on the ground by combining theoretical discussions with empirical evidence from key post conflict settings such as Iraq and Afghanistan These show the disparities that exist between the ideals and the reality of the liberal peace project as seen by external peacebuilders and domestic actors The book then proposes various alternatives and modifications to better accommodate local perspectives values and agency in attempts to forge a new consensus This book will be of great interest to students of peacebuilding peacekeeping statebuilding war and conflict studies international security and IR

Regional Cooperation, Intellectual Property Law and Access to Medicines Tolulope Anthony Adekola, 2023-12-05 This book examines the potential for regionalisation of intellectual property law and policy as a means of improving pharmaceutical access for least developed countries The challenge of sustainable access to pharmaceuticals continues to be an issue of global significance While much has been written on emerging economies in this context least developed countries have been largely overlooked This book fills this gap by taking the East African Community as a case study of developing and least developed countries to illustrate why and how a regional collective approach is preferred It adopts a holistic approach in finding sustainable solutions to both IP and non IP barriers to pharmaceutical access across a range of inter related issues through a regional cooperative scheme It evaluates factors that are necessary for successful regional cooperation such as legal and policy coherence WTO rule compliance the threat of protectionism regional competition rules and so on in order to produce legal and policy recommendations relevant to both existing and intending regional coalitions desiring to improve pharmaceutical access It also looks beyond the scope of IP barriers to pharmaceutical access examining non IP related factors such as pharmaceutical market intelligence local pharmaceutical manufacturing capacity economies of scale and purchasing power medical regulation and quality assurance technology transfer and market size amongst others The book will be an invaluable resource for academics researchers and policy makers working in the areas of Public Health Law International Trade Law Intellectual Property Law and Development Studies

Aid from International NGOs Dirk-Jan Koch, 2009-02-03 International NGOs are increasingly important players within the new aid architecture but their geographic choices remain uncharted territory This book focuses on patterns of development assistance mapping while analysing and assessing the country choices of the largest international NGOs Koch s approach is interdisciplinary and uses qualitative quantitative and experimental methods to provide a clear insight in the determinants of country choices of international NGOs The book aims to discover the country choices of international NGOs how they are determined and how they could be improved This work which uses a dataset created specifically for the research comes to the conclusion that international NGOs do not target the poorest and most difficult countries They are shown to be focussing mostly on those countries where their back donors are active Additionally it was discovered that they tend to cluster their activities for example international NGOs also have their donor darlings and their donor orphans Their clustering is explained by adapting theories that explain concentration in for profit actors to the non profit context The book is the first on the geographic choices of international NGOs and is therefore of considerable academic interest especially for those focusing on development aid and third sector research Furthermore the book provides specific policy suggestions for more thought out geographic decisions of international NGOs and their back donors

The Universal Social Safety-Net and the Attack on World Poverty Anthony Clunies-Ross, Mozammel Huq, 2013-10-30 The book is concerned with strategy and tactics for directing that small slice of world income into filling the gap This must be done country by country on the initiative of each country's government with the maximum involvement of its own civil society and with the rich world also making a contribution To add momentum the international community needs to adopt targets far more specific than the fifty percent extreme poverty reduction of the first Millennium Development Goal

Evolution of Markets and Institutions Murali Patibandla, 2006-09-27 The new institutional economics has been one of the most influential schools of thought to emerge in the past quarter century Taking its roots in the transaction cost theory of the firm as an economic organization rather than purely a production function it has been developed further by scholars such as Oliver Williamson Douglas North and their followers leading to the rich and growing field of the new institutional economics This branch of economics stresses the importance of institutions in the functioning of free markets which include elaborately defined and effectively enforced property rights in the presence of transaction costs large corporate organizations with agency and hierarchical controls formal contracts bankruptcy laws and regulatory institutions In this timely volume Murali Patibandla applies some of the precepts of the new institutional economics to India one of the world's most promising economies

The IMF, World Bank and Policy Reform Alberto Paloni, Maurizio Zanardi, 2012-10-12 The debate on whether or not the International Monetary Fund and World Bank and their intervention strategies are a positive force for change in the developing world continues to rage Featuring both macroeconomic and microeconomic approaches this book brings together an international team of contributors and centres upon three broad themes the ideology of the IMF and World Bank poverty reduction conditionality In exploring these themes this book will be a valuable reference for postgraduate students and professionals in the fields of development studies and political economy

The Impact of International Debt Relief A. Geske Dijkstra, 2007-11-29 Introduction The origins of debt and an overview of debt relief The efficiency of debt relief The effectiveness of debt relief The relevance of debt relief The impact of debt relief since 2000 and prospects for the future

Financial Stability and Growth Luiz Carlos Bresser-Pereira, Jan Kregel, Leonardo Burlamaqui, 2014-02-05 The 2008 global financial crisis took the world by surprise not least because politicians businessmen and economists believed that they had learned crucial lessons from the Great Depression of the 1930s As a direct result of deregulated financial markets financial crises occurred in both developed and developing economies However this volume argues that in the most recent crisis developing countries suffered less and that financial policy and regulation played a crucial part in this The contributors to this volume explore the alternative development paradigm that has been gaining credence since the Asian crisis known as new developmentalism New developmentalism is embodied in the following principles exchange rate responsibility or growth with domestic savings fiscal responsibility and the assignment of a strategic role for the state New developmentalism is a set of values ideas institutions and economic policies through which in the early 21st century developing countries have sought to catch up with developed countries This book examines the global financial crisis the financial regulatory problem with particular emphasis on Brazil and the alternative policies that derive from new developmentalism This volume will be of interest to scholars and policymakers working in the areas of globalization financial regulation and development studies

The Political Economy of Reform Failure Mats Lundahl, 2007-04-11 Economists have moved in recent years beyond analyzing the manner in which the macroeconomies of different countries function and prescribing appropriate policies for dealing with domestic and external imbalances Increasingly they have sought to understand the complex interaction between political and economic phenomena This book considers issues of economic reform in a broad range of settings developed countries transition countries developing countries Using country specific cases such as Uzbekistan Burma and Haiti it focuses on those territories which have encountered problems reforming allowing the reader to gain an accurate understanding of the factors that inhibit the success of economic reform the different context in which economic reform is attempted and the different challenges that individual countries face An international team of contributors including Bo S dersten Deepak Lal and Ron Findlay have been brought together to analyze these topical issues making this an informative and thought provoking book of interest to those involved in the field of development studies

Rural Livelihoods and Poverty Reduction Policies Frank Ellis, H. Ade Freeman, 2004-08-02 This important new collection of contributions brings together current thinking on poverty reduction and rural livelihoods in developing countries As well as leading economists in the field such as Frank Ellis and Chris Barrett there are a number of contributors from developing countries themselves The book examines both macroeconomic and microeconomic phenomena and contains wide range of case studies Skilfully exposing the gap that exists between the rhetoric of poverty reduction strategies in capital cities and the practice of public sector delivery in rural areas this key text will be essential reading for advanced students and researchers in the fields of rural development rural livelihoods poverty reduction strategies and Sub Saharan Africa development as well as advisors and practitioners in international organizations
