Globalization Of Hope Central America Mexico And The Caribbean In The New Millenium Vol 1:

Contemporary Caribbean Cultures and Societies in a Global Context Franklin W. Knight, Teresita

Martínez-Vergne, 2006-05-18 The Caribbean ranks among the earliest and most completely globalized regions in the world. From the first moment Europeans set foot on the islands to the present, products, people, and ideas have made their way back and forth between the region and other parts of the globe with unequal but inexorable force. An inventory of some of these unprecedented multidirectional exchanges, this volume provides a measure of as well as a model for new scholarship on globalization in the region. Ten essays by leading scholars in the field of Caribbean studies identify and illuminate important social and cultural aspects of the region as it seeks to maintain its own identity against the unrelenting pressures of globalization. These essays examine cultural phenomena in their creolized forms, from sports and religion to music and drink, as well as the Caribbean manifestations of more universal trends, from racial inequality and feminist activism to indebtedness and economic uncertainty. Throughout, the volume points to the contending forces of homogeneity and differentiation that define globalization and highlights the growing agency of the Caribbean peoples in the modern world. Contributors: Antonio Benítez Rojo, 1931-2004; Alex Dupuy, Wesleyan University; Juan Flores, City University of New York Graduate Center; Jorge L. Giovannetti, University of Puerto Rico; Aline Helg, University of Geneva; Franklin W. Knight, The Johns Hopkins University; Anthony P. Maingot, Florida International University; Teresita Martínez Vergne, Macalester College; Helen McBain, Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean; Trinidad Frances Negrón Muntaner, Columbia University; Valentina Peguero, University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point; Raquel Romberg, Temple University. Globalization and Development José Antonio Ocampo, Juan Martín, 2003-09-29 Award-winning title Globalization and Development was selected as a 2003 Notable Government Document by the American Librarian Association (ALA) and GODORT Government Documents Round Table. In this book, the UNECLAC (United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean) draws upon the Latin American and Caribbean region's experience in order to formulate a historical and multidimensional assessment of the globalization process from the perspectives of developing countries. Globalization and Development José Antonio Ocampo, Juan Martín, United Nations. Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean, 2003. Globalization and Development draws upon the experiences of the Latin American and Caribbean region to provide a multidimensional assessment of the globalization process from the perspective of developing countries. Based on a study by the United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC), this book gives a historical overview of economic development in the region and presents both an economic and noneconomic agenda that addresses disparity, respects diversity, and fosters complementarity among regional, national, and international institutions.
