Globalization At What Price Economic Change And Daily Life:

Globalization at what Price? Pamela Brubaker, 2007 Brubaker explains the dynamics of globalization and the ways this issue affects our daily lives and the lives of others She identifies the ethical questions the global economy raises and she lifts up the resources that Christian faith offers to equip people to work for economic justice Drawing from Scripture as well as her many experiences with people around the globe and exploring successful economic justice efforts she provides options for addressing this critical topic This revised and expanded edition includes updated statistics and the state of the debate on globalization new stories from recent experiences in Guatemala Thailand Hong Kong and Brazil and an updated report on the work of the World Council of Churches BOOK JACKET Colonialism, Han, and the Transformative Spirit Grace Ji-Sun Kim, 2013-04-18 Globalism colonialism and consumerism have caused unjust suffering han for the earth s exploited peoples and the exploited lands To reverse this tragedy we need to work for a safer sustainable planet and renew our inspiration from God as the transforming Spirit who gives sustains and empowers life to all The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theology Mary McClintock Fulkerson, Sheila Briggs, 2012 This volume highlights the relevance of globalization and the insights of gender studies and religious studies for feminist theology It focuses on the changing global contexts for the field and its movement towards new models of theology distinct from the forms of traditional Christian systematic theology and of secular feminism New & Enlarged Handbook of Christian Theology Donald W. Musser, Joseph Price, 2011-09-01 This handbook provides thorough introductory articles on important themes in Christian theology Along with cross references and select bibliographies it is an indispensable reference source The Handbook consists of 148 topical entries arranged alphabetically Instead of a Table of Contents a Routes For Reading page suggests related entries and cross referencing makes surfing this volume easier than ever Theology that Matters Darby Kathleen Ray, What difference does theological thinking make Does Christianity have any relevance for our secular globalized environmentally threatened world Specifically formulated for undergraduate and seminary courses in theology this volume answers a resounding yes Gathering many respected and original Christian thinkers who have been inspired by the example and work of theologian Sallie McFague this book engages such topics as God Christ revelation eschatology and church in three intertwined and pressing areas 1 our religious life and language in a secularized pluralistic society 2 our newly globalized economic life and 3 our threatened environmental life Emerging Perspectives in Health Communication Heather Zoller, Mohan J. Dutta, 2009-02-23 This volume provides the theoretical methodological and praxis driven issues in research on interpretive critical and cultural approaches to health communication It includes an international collection of contributors and highlights non traditional non Western perspectives on health communication Justice in a Global Economy Pamela Brubaker, Rebecca Todd Peters, Laura A. Stivers, 2006-01-01 Today s complex social and economic problems leave many people in the affluent world feeling either overwhelmed or ambivalent Even the small percentage of us who have examined the ethics behind our financial decisions and overcome the often deterring factors of self interest rarely know what to do to make any difference By providing tools for examination and concrete actions for individuals communities and society at large Justice in a Global Economy guides its readers through many of today s complex societal issues including land use immigration corporate accountability and environmental and economic justice Beginning with a basic introduction to the impact of economic globalization the book provides both critical assessments of the current political economic structures and examples of people and communities who are actively working to transform society Each chapter concludes with questions for discussion and reflection

Women and Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille,Jillian Maxey,2013-09-26 Though women have been objects more often than subjects of interreligious dialogue they have nevertheless contributed in significant ways to the dialogue just as the dialogue has also contributed to their own self understanding This volume the fifth in the Interreligious Dialogue Series brings together historical critical and constructive approaches to the role of women in the dialogue between religions These approaches deal with concrete examples of women s involvement in dialogue critical reflections on the representation of women in dialogue and the important question of what women might bring to the dialogue Together they open up new avenues for reflection on the nature and purpose of interreligious dialogue

The Holy Spirit, Chi, and the Other Grace Ji-Sun Kim,2011-09-20 There appears to be a hierarchy of cultures with the West perceiving the East as inferior so much so that it is referred to simply as the Other Because today s world is globally interdependent inter woven and integrative it is pertinent to be open to the cultural spiritual and religious understandings of the East

Women and Christianity Cheryl A. Kirk-Duggan,Karen Jo Torjesen,2009-12-22 This work explores the impact of Christian women as scholars and leaders representing the ethnic national racial and denominational diversity of Christianity today on all aspects of life Women and Christianity explores the experiences of women and how their daily lives interface with their spirituality and faith Beginning with a historical overview the book presents essays grouped under five broad headings women family and environment socioeconomics politics and authority body mind and spirit sex power and vulnerability and women world view and religious practice These essays focus on multiple aspects of women s experiences and contemporary Christian realities involving the interrelatedness of faith thought and activism across many strata of global society They wrestle with the daily experiences and challenges women face integrating their lives as women of faith as they are advocates experience agency and work for mutuality It shows how in all these roles women must negotiate power injustice and the impact of sexism as they work within systemic oppression amid a patriarchal system nevertheless championing change and refusing to be severely compromised Beyond Christendom Jehu Hanciles,2008 Hanciles does yeoman work in part one synthesizing studies on the impact of globalization revealing that its outcomes will likely not be determined by the Euro American heartlands that sparked this movement Instead in parts two he shows that migration in general is having an enormous effect on shaping a new world order and in part three Mobile Faith he advances the case for the migration of Christians as carrying within it the seeds of renewal for the whole church and also the potential to reshape church state and religion and culture relations globally Ethics Miguel A. De La Torre,2013-01-01 This survey text for religious ethics and theological ethics courses explores how ethical concepts defined as liberationist which initially was a Latin American Catholic phenomenon is presently manifest around the globe and within the United States across different racial ethnic and gender groups Authored by several contributors this book elucidates how the powerless and disenfranchised within marginalized communities employ their religious beliefs to articulate a liberationist liberative religious ethical perspective Students will thus comprehend the diversity existing within the liberative ethical discourse and know which scholars and texts to read and will encounter practical ways to further social justice The Donghak Concept of God/heaven Kiyul Chung,2007 Original Scholarly Monograph Sex and Gender Mary Jo Iozzio,Patricia Beattie Jung,2017-11-09 Sex and Gender Christian Ethical Reflections contains some of the subject s most important analyses in recent decades The collection covers a wide range of topics same sex marriage sexual minorities and biblical interpretation sex and power sexual harassment and sexual abuse HIV AIDS and prevention strategy the military and masculinities mobile porn and sexting human trafficking moral discernment and more Contributors represent various theological traditions and draw on scriptural texts as well as such disciplines as philosophy sociology psychology and the life sciences Each essay is followed by a set of discussion questions for the classroom or for students to use as an assignment outline and suggestions for further reading and research Teachers and students of Christian ethics will appreciate this multidisciplinary approach to one of the most divisive and controversial issues in contemporary culture Interfaith Just Peacemaking S. Thistlethwaite,2012-01-02 Interfaith Just Peacemaking is a collected work by 27 Jewish Muslim and Christian scholars and religious leaders on the ten practice norms of the peacemaking paradigm called Just Peace Just Peace theory like the paradigm it most resembles Just War theory is a list of specific practices that are applied to concrete contexts Human Trafficking in Thailand Siroj Sorajjakool,2013-10-15 Few subjects elicit greater moral outrage than human trafficking Media reports of dehumanizing practices such as slavery abduction child prostitution and torture along with shocking statistics form the basis of public knowledge Those who work closely with victims acknowledge the complexity of the issue and it is this complexity rather than loose statistics and conjecture that deserves our attention With sensitivity and candor this book addresses the reality of human trafficking in Thailand dissecting studies presenting facts and dismissing stereotypes It focuses on the areas of fishing agriculture domestic work sex work and the trafficking of children weaving individual narratives and official studies into the wider history of Thailand's changing economy and labor situation. It also details how the Thai government has addressed the issue, reflects on the roots of human exploitation, and suggests a way forward. This book raises much needed awareness of commonly held misconceptions and clarifies what we know and what we have yet to discover about the trafficking of persons to and from Thailand. Highlights Concise and accessible study of the reality of human trafficking in Thailand. Thorough critical analysis of current policies and public discourse on trafficking. Details relevant Thai and international laws. Discusses the relationship between the modern economic system and exploitation. Analyzes the changing face of the Thai labor market and the impact of industrialization on the Thai population. Religion, Theology, and Class J. Rieger, 2015-12-11 This important collection of essays addresses the question of why scholars can no longer do without class in religious studies and theology and what we can learn from a renewed engagement with the topic. This volume discusses what new discourses regarding notions of gender, ethnicity, and race might add to developments on notions of class. Reimagining with Christian Doctrines Grace Ji-Sun Kim, J. Dagg, 2014-01-10 This collection demonstrates a constructive potential in reimagining with doctrines which unlocks them from centuries of patriarchal constraint. It opens the way for glimpsing divine action in the economy of salvation while human struggles for justice are placed within a wider arena when discrete theological resources are deployed in this way. Discerning Ethics Hak Joon Lee, Tim Dearborn, 2020-02-25 The number of ethical issues that demand a response from Christians today is almost dizzying. How can Christians navigate such matters? With an unflinching yet irenic approach, this volume invites engagement with the biggest ethical issues by drawing on real life experiences and offering a range of responses to some of the most challenging moral questions confronting the church today.
