Sigler, 1998 This book offers broad coverage of ethnic minority and religious groups and the laws people events court cases and documents involved in their experience Who's Who Among Hispanic Americans Amy L. Unterburger, 1994 All areas of the United States have been surveyed to insure balanced national coverage in this work on Hispanic Americans The work covers individuals from a broad range of professions and occupations including those involved in medicine social issues labour sports entertainment religion business law journalism science and technology education politics and literature Listees have been selected on the basis of achievement in their fields and or for considerable civic responsibility Conversations with Biographical Novelists Michael Lackey, 2018-10-18 How does a writer approach a novel about a real person In this new collection of interviews authors such as Emma Donoghue David Ebershoff David Lodge Colum McCann Colm Tóibín and Olga Tokarczuk sit down with literary scholars to discuss the relationship of history truth and fiction Taken together these conversations clarify how the biographical novel encourages cross cultural dialogue promotes new ways of thinking about history politics and social justice and allows us to journey into the interior world of influential and remarkable people The Theologian and the Empire: A Biography of José de Acosta (1540-1600) Andrés I. Prieto, 2024-02-06 Although Jesuit contributions to European expansion in the early modern period have attracted considerable scholarly interest the legacy of Jos de Acosta 1540 1600 is still defined by his contributions to natural history The Theologian and the Empire presents a new biography of Acosta focused on his participation in colonial and imperial politics The most important Jesuit active in the Americas in the sixteenth century Acosta was fundamentally a political operator His actions on both sides of the Atlantic informed both Peruvian colonial life and the Jesuit order at the dawn of the seventeenth century Doing What the Day Brought Mary Logan Rothschild, Pamela Claire Hronek, 2015-10-19 I've seen many changes during the years says Irene Bishop from horse and buggy to automobiles and planes from palm leaf fans to refrigeration They talk about the good old days but I do not want to go back I d like to go back about twenty years but not beyond that Life was too hard Drawing on interviews with twenty nine individuals Doing What the Day Brought examines the everyday lives of women from the late nineteenth century to the present day and demonstrates the role they have played in shaping the modern Arizona community Focusing on ordinary women the book crosses race ethnic religious economic and marital lines to include Arizona women from diverse backgrounds Rather than simply editing each woman s words Rothschild and Hronek have analyzed these oral histories for common themes and differences and have woven portions into a narrative that gives context to the individual lives The resulting life course format moves naturally from childhood to home life community service and participation in the work force and concludes with reflections on changes witnessed in the lifetimes of these women For the women whose lives are presented here it may have been common to gather dead saguaro cactus ribs to make outdoor fires to boil laundry water or to give birth on a dirt floor Their stories capture not only changes in a state where history has overlooked the role of women but the changing roles of American women over the course of this century
