Women in World History Anne Commire, 2002 Presents biographical profiles of significant women from throughout the history of the world each with birth and death dates when known a time line quotation and references Arranged alphabetically from Sul Vica Through a Designer's Eye Matthew Patrick Smyth, 2020-09-15 A sumptuous presentation of impeccably designed classic interiors by Matthew Patrick Smyth Matthew Patrick Smyth is renowned for elegant sophisticated rooms that combine sumptuous fabrics well selected antiques and contemporary comfort In Through a Designer's Eye he reveals his design process emphasizing his commitment to exploring the world through travel and in the imagination of the theater and to recording scenes and vignettes in photographs Through a Designer's Eye presents Smyth's recent work ranging from a traditional Park Avenue apartment and an edgy Tribeca loft in Manhattan to waterfront houses in Florida New England and Long Island that demonstrate his skills in responding to context and eliciting preferences of clients to create a unique environment for each. Nowhere is this better seen than in his own house in Salisbury Connecticut an unexpected 1970s prefabricated deck house now elegantly appointed with an eclectic mix of furniture objects and works of art he and his partner have collected over many years. Smyth's engaging first person narrative references formative experiences with theater and photography and focuses on five elements of interior design: appreciating of artisanal and handcrafted elements, understanding of history and context, evaluating light and seasonal change, weaving furnishings and art into a coherent mise en scene creating an inviting atmosphere that contribute to successful spaces. Illustrating the text are lush photographs of completed rooms interspersed with Smyth's own vignettes and details which add a unique visual layer to the presentation.

Beyond The Back Room Marian Womack, 2011 This collection of essays examines current trends in scholarly research on Spanish author Carmen Mart n Gait e 1925-2000. It concentrates on the least explored areas of Mart n Gait e's oeuvre such as her collage artwork, the relationship between image and text in her work and her close relationship with themes such as genre writing, the fairy tale and textual physical notions of space as well as her personal theories on orality and narration. As we pass the tenth anniversary of her death, Mart n Gait e continues to be an increasing focus of study as scholars start to identify and comprehend the breadth and scope of her work. The essays in the volume complement previous studies of Mart n Gait e's major works from the 1960s and 1970s by focusing largely on her later novels together with in depth analysis of the manuscripts and artistic materials that have been made available since her death.

When I started this book, I couldn't keep help wondering if I was doing it the right way. After all, it was so very different from the other books. One afternoon, I ran into Shirley MacLaine in a florist shop in Malibu. She'd never seen my Malibu place so I invited her over. While we were having a drink I discovered she had just completed her book Dancing in the Light What a coincidence I said I m just starting to write my fourth book She described a private place she had up in Washington where she liked to sit outside particularly when it was raining She would sit under an umbrella and jot down the material in longhand The solace and quietude of the place were very inspiring to writing in this personal style I told here I was doing mine in longhand as well just as if I was writing a letter to someone She smiled encouragingly But that s exactly how you should do it So here it is a very personal letter from me to you sharing an intimate glimpse into The Wonderful Private World of Liberace
