followed by the advent of pay for play when the Boston Red Stockings dominated baseball's first major league. Turning next to the 1870s, 1880s and 1890s decades that saw pro baseball establish itself in especially the larger cities of the Northeast, Soos demonstrates that the amateur game became a fixture of the towns, schools and even the factories. Success at the game's highest level followed as Boston won five NL championships in the 1890s before taking the first modern World Series in 1903. When five more world championships came during the 1910s, New Englanders could justifiably argue that the country's oldest region sat atop the baseball world. By the close of 1918, New England was baseball mad and the 86 years of collapses, near misses and outright struggles that lay ahead would do nothing to diminish the game's high place in the regional culture.

Never Forget Your First Josh Lewin, 2014-05-27. Having already penned Getting in the Game, his inside scoop on the mayhem within baseball's winter meetings, Josh Lewin once again gives baseball fans a window into the big leagues. By interviewing big league ballplayers about their first day in the majors, Lewin creates fascinating mini biographies of the players, highlighting the personalities hidden behind the on-field accomplishments. He lets the players recount their own memories of how they made it to the big leagues. In You Never Forget Your First, Lewin shares the stories of players great and less so. Tony Gwynn recalls singling in his first at bat and finding Pete Rose waiting for him at first base with a wink and a warning: "Don't break my record all at once, kid." Bob Brenly heard of his call-up on the car radio while on a family trip to the Grand Canyon. He then stood helplessly in the middle of the Arizona desert after his transmission gave out, trying to convince passersby he was a ballplayer heading to the big leagues and needed a lift to the airport Duane Kuiper witnessed a fight both on the field and in his own clubhouse his first day in Cleveland Greg Maddux recalls being stuck at the Chicago River drawbridge convinced he'd never make it to Wrigley Field in time for his debut Lewin interviews modern star players such as A Rod Barry Bonds and Manny Ramirez as well as Hall of Famers such as Jim Palmer Don Sutton and George Brett More than 100 popular baseball players are profiled complete with the box scores of their big league debuts The Baseball Book of Lists Phil Pepe, Zander Hollander, 1983 Weekly World News, 2002-02-26 Rooted in the creative success of over 30 years of supermarket tabloid publishing the Weekly World News has been the world's only reliable news source since 1979 The online hub www.weeklyworldnews.com is a leading entertainment news site The Seventh-Day Adventist Hymn and Tune Book General Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, 1893 The Church Music of Fifteenth-century Spain Kenneth Kreitner, 2004 He moves on from this to set Penalosa's work written in a more mature northern oriented style which influenced Iberian composers for generations after his death BOOK JACKET Theater Voices Steve Capra, 2004-11-19 This collection of interviews with twenty six leaders of the stage explores their personal visions of the theater By representing a wide range of disciplines directors actors playwrights critics and teachers the book allows for a variety of opinions and offers an examination of issues from every perspective Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay, 2021-11-22 Women are rarely if ever mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters Why is this so Does it matter Don't people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine regardless of their gender Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in malestream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women's autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women's spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women's spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women's religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point Is Wrestling Fixed? I Didn't Know It Was Broken! Bill Apter, Jerry ÓThe KingÓ Lawler, 2015-10-01 The anticipated memoir from a sports entertainment fandom legend As a kid growing up in New York in the late 50s Bill Apter fell in love with professional wrestling and it wasn't long before he was rubbing shoulders with the greats as a young reporter and photographer. He's since become the world's best known wrestling magazine personality and he's had professional and personal relationships with a who's who of the business like Triple H, Hulk Hogan, The Rock, Sting and Ric Flair. In his fun loving memoir Bill Apter takes us from the dressing rooms of the Bruno Sammartino era and the last days of the territories to the birth of WrestleMania, the emergence of Stone Cold Steve Austin and the Attitude Era to today's WWE Superstars like John Cena, Daniel Bryan and Roman Reigns. He also shares stories of his days photographing boxing stars like Muhammad Ali and other champions and he documents his appearances on the WWE Network and his work as editor of 1wrestling.com. Find out which wrestler threatened him, learn about the dead wrestler who was really alive and discover how hanging out with Andy Kaufman led to the comic's notorious feud with Jerry 'The King' Lawler. Still intimately involved in the wrestling business, the award winning Apter has a story on everybody.

The NGO Factor in Africa Maurice N. Amutabi, 2013-09-13. The book breaks new ground in understanding the role of Non Governmental Organizations (NGOs) in Africa. The book historicizes NGOs using the Rockefeller Foundation as a case study, looking at its tripartite paradoxical roles as an agent of colonialism, globalization and development, underdevelopment. It deploys interdisciplinary devices to show how the RF projects have engaged in marginalization, patronage and othering of African values and customs and the ensuing controversies. Using globalization, postmodern and postcolonial theories, the book deconstructs the long held myths about NGO inviolability and opens ground for understanding their strengths. It interrogates sites of contestation, apprehension and possibilities that the RF has produced. Using RF projects, it looks at structures of hegemony, race, power, class and gender that the RF has created. The book illustrates the extent to which the RF has been instrumental in spreading capitalism, imperialism in economic, political, cultural and social realms through globalization. It desists from the grand narrative approach that has dominated African history in the past but instead gives agency and voice to those that have previously been marginalized.
