Goa Portugal Their Cultural Links:

Goa and Portugal Charles J. Borges, Helmut Feldmann, 1997 Collection of twenty one papers presented at an international symposium on the theme cultural relations between Portugal and Goa at the University of Cologne 29 May 2 June 1996 chiefly covers the 16th 18th centuries Goa-Kanara Portuguese Relations, 1498-1763 Bhagamandala Seetharama Shastry, 2000 Goa's Foremost Nationalist José Inácio Candido de Loyola, 2000 Writings mainly relate to various topics on 20th century Goa includes a brief biography of the author Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World Pamila Gupta, 2018-10-18 Pamila Gupta takes a unique approach to examining decolonization processes across Lusophone India and Southern Africa focusing on Goa Mozambique Angola and South Africa weaving together case studies using five interconnected themes Gupta considers decolonization through the twined lenses of history and ethnography accessed through written oral visual and eyewitness accounts of how people experienced the transfer of state power She looks at the materiality of decolonization as a movement of peoples across vast oceanic spaces demonstrating how it was a process of dispossession for both the Portuguese formerly in power and ordinary colonial citizens and subjects She then discusses the production of race and class anxieties during decolonization which took on a variety of forms but were often articulated through material objects The book aims to move beyond linear histories of colonial independence by connecting its various regions using the theme of decolonization offering a productive and new approach to writing post national histories and ethnographies Finally Gupta demonstrates the value of using different source materials to access narratives of decolonization analyzing the work of Mozambican photographer Ricardo Rangel and including lyrical prose and ethnographical observations Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World provides a nuanced understanding of Lusophone decolonization revealing the perspectives of people who experienced it This book will be highly valuable for historians of the Indian Ocean world and decolonization but also those interested in ethnography diaspora studies and material culture Connecting Seas and Connected Ocean Rims, 2011-04-11 Long distance migration of peoples have been a central if little understood factor in global integration The essays in this collection contribute to a new history of world migrations written by specialists of particular areas of the world Collectively these essays point towards a shift from the regional migrations of individual seas and oceans of the early modern era toward nineteenth century labor migrations that connected the Pacific and Indian to the Atlantic Oceans Detailed case studies demonstrate the importance of human migration in the development consolidation and critique of empire building theories of race modern capitalism and large scale commercial agriculture and industry on every continent Indo-Mozambicans in Maputo, 1947-1992 Nafeesah Allen, 2022-11-01 This book explores the experiences of Indo Mozambicans citizens and residents of Mozambique who can trace their origins to the Indian subcontinent a region affected by competing colonialisms during the twentieth century Drawing from ethnographic interviews the author illustrates why migration developed as both an identity marker and a survival tool for Indo Mozambicans living in Maputo in response to the series of independence movements and prolonged period of geo political uncertainty that extended from 1947 to 1992 A unique examination of post colonialism the book argues that four pivotal moments in history forced migratory patterns and ethnic identity formations to emerge among Indo Mozambicans namely the end of the British empire in India and the subsequent partition of India and Pakistan in 1947 the end of the Portuguese empire in India with the annexation of Goa Daman and Diu in 1961 the independence of Mozambique from Portugal in 1975 and the civil war of Mozambique from 1977 to 1992 Framing these historical markers as trigger points for shifts in migration and identity formation this book demonstrates the layered experiences of people subject to Portuguese colonialism and highlights the important perspective of those left behind in migration studies Traversing
