God And Man In The Koran:

God and Man in the Koran Toshihiko Izutsu, 1964      God and Man in the Koran Toshihiko Izutsu, 1998      Repentance and the Return to God Atif Khalil, 2018-09-21

The first major study of the idea of repentance or tawba in Islam. This book offers the first extensive treatment in a European language of tawba in Islam. Conventionally translated as repentance, tawba includes the broader sense of returning to God. Khalil examines this wider notion in the early period of Sufism with a particular focus on the formative years of the tradition between Muṣib and Abī al-Makk. Beginning with an extensive survey of the semantic field of the term as outlined in Arabic lexicography, Khalil offers a detailed analysis of the concept in Muslim scripture. He then examines tawba as a complex psychological process involving interior conversion and a complete unwavering commitment to the spiritual life. The ideas of a number of prominent figures from the first few centuries of Islam are used to illuminate the historical development of tawba and its role in early praxis-oriented Sufism. In this exemplary study, Khalil lays bare the contours of the key concept of repentance in the spiritual psychology of early Islam with admirable sensitivity and ease, a remarkable achievement.

Ahmet T. Karamustafa, author of Sufism: The Formative Period, Atif Khalil's Repentance and the Return to God is an illuminating account of the idea of tawba as attested to in the early Sufi literature from the ninth through the tenth centuries. Starting with a painstaking semantic examination of the Qur'anic passages related to repentance from sin and turning to God in remorse and search of pardon, the author traces the development of these motifs from early Sufi didactic adages to their subsequent rearticulation in the sophisticated psychological discourses of such major lights of classical Sufism such as al-Muṣib, Sahl al-Tustar, al-Kharraz, al-Junayd, and Abī al-Makk. A must read for both lay readers interested in comparative mysticism, religions, and specialists on Islam, Sufism, and Islamic spiritual and intellectual history.

Alexander Knysh, author of Islamic Mysticism: A Short History and Sufism: A New History of Islamic Mysticism.

The Quran, a book which brings glad tidings to mankind along with divine admonition, stresses the importance of man's discovery of truth on both spiritual and intellectual planes. Every book has its objective, and the objective of the Quran is to make man aware of the Creation plan of God. That is to tell man why God created this world, what the purpose is of settling man on earth, what is required from man in his pre-death life span, and what he is going to confront after death. The purpose of the Quran is to make man aware of this reality, thus serving to guide man on his entire journey through life into the afterlife. The main themes of the Quran are enlightenment, closeness to God, peace, and spirituality. The Quran uses several terms: tawassum, tadabbur, and tafakkur, which indicate the learning of lessons through reflection, thinking, and contemplation on the signs of God scattered across the world. The present translation of the Quran and its explanatory notes are written keeping in mind these very themes.
