Knowing God to Make Him Known Ed Scheuerman, 2021-04-20 Christians are all too familiar with the dichotomy between being a Mary sitting at Jesus' feet and being a Martha being active in ministry We have been told that before we can do we first need to be And this is well and good But it is insufficient Before we can be we first need to know We need to know who God is God's attributes so that we can then be who we are intended to be in Christ Only then should we seek to do what he has called and equipped us to do for his glory This book focuses on knowing God in his many attributes so that we can become conformed to his image in order to do what he's called us to do to bring the gospel to the world

A View Worth Teaching Tim Tyler, 2014-08-21 This commentary is not based on other commentaries It is an attempt to dare to see Jesus as he said he is Care has been taken to remain monotheistic Liberty has been taken to view women as equal to men something that hasn't been successfully done in any culture since Jesus walked the earth We have dared to look with fresh eyes at the Bible especially the gospel of John and assume nothing that is based solely on Christian tradition This is a view there are many views This one demands thinking and challenges the way we have been influenced to think about the Bible You may not agree with everything you read here but if you read the entire commentary you will never read the Bible the same again Interestingly the very first word Jesus said in his public ministry was the Greek word that means change your thinking
