God And The Uncreated Heaven:

Reading the Gospel of John's Christology as Jewish Messianism Benjamin Reynolds, Gabriele Boccaccini, 2018-07-17
The essays in Reading the Gospel of John's Christology as Jewish Messianism Royal Prophetic and Divine Messiahs seek to interpret John's Jesus as part of Second Temple Jewish messianic expectations The Fourth Gospel is rarely considered part of the world of early Judaism While many have noted John's Jewishness most have not understood John's Messiah as a Jewish messiah The Johannine Jesus who descends from heaven is declared the Word made flesh and claims oneness with the Father is no less Jewish than other messiahs depicted in early Judaism John's Jesus is at home on the spectrum of early Judaism's royal prophetic and divine messiahs The life and doctrines of Jacob Boehmen, the God-taught philosopher Franz Hartmann, 1891 The Complete Poetry and Selected Prose of John Donne John Donne, 2001-08-14 This Modern Library edition contains all of John Donne's great metaphysical love poetry Here are such well known songs and sonnets as A Valediction Forbidding Mourning The Extasie and A Nocturnall Upon S. Lucie's Day along with the love elegies Jealousie His Parting From Her and To His Mistress Going to Bed Presented as well are Donne's satires epigrams verse letters and holy sonnets along with his most ambitious and important poems the Anniversaries In addition there is a generous sampling of Donne's prose including many of his private letters Ignatius His Conclave a satiric onslaught on the Jesuits excerpts from Biathanatos his celebrated defense of suicide and his most famous sermons concluding with the final Death's Duell We have only to read Donne wrote Virginia Woolf to submit to the sound of that passionate and penetrating voice and his figure rises again across the waste of the years more erect more imperious more inscrutable than any of his time The Works of President Edwards Jonathan Edwards, 1830 Leaves of Healing, 1929 Bride of the Lamb Sergej Nikolaevič Bulgakov, Sergius Bulgakov, 2002-02-14 Sergius Bulgakov is thought by many to be the twentieth century's foremost Russian Orthodox theologian The Bride of the Lamb is widely regarded as Bulgakov's magnum opus and even more as one of the greatest works ever produced in the modern Orthodox church This book is now available for the first time in English complete with an introduction to Bulgakov and his theological context For readers new to Russian religious thought The Bride of the Lamb presents a fresh approach to Christian doctrine Bulgakov examines issues of ecclesiology and eschatology from a sophiological perspective This distinctive Russian approach based on the doctrine of Sophia the wisdom of God sees the Creator and creation intimately linked as Divine humanity The Bride of the Lamb explores the nature of created beings the relationship between God and the world the role of the church and such eschatological themes as the second coming of Jesus resurrection and judgment and the afterlife Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved A Commentary Robert Jamieson, 1884 A Critical, Practical and Explanatory Commentary on the Old and New Testaments Jamieson, Fausset, Brown, 1864 God at Play Daniel Soars, 2025-07-01 The first comparative treatment of the topic of l l in Hindu and Christian traditions this volume explores what it means to consider divine and human action under the categories of play wit drama grace and compassion God at Play presents a theological exploration of the multifaceted motif of l l across diverse Hindu and Christian landscapes and its wide ranging connections to divine and human creativity Given its ubiquity in Hindu theologies and life forms l l offers a rich comparative framework for exploring certain ways of understanding divine and human action as expressed in Hindu and Christian sacred texts philosophical theology and ritual practices Though l l is often interpreted simply as play the essays in this volume reflect a far richer semantic and conceptual field ranging from spontaneity and gratuitousness through joy and humor to mercy and compassion By focusing on the different contexts in which l l is found in Hindu traditions and resisting any uniform translation of the term the contributors to this volume avoid the risk of using predominantly western or Christian categories to understand the Hindu other The volume thus explores how l l functions in a variety of distinctive philosophical theological and devotional ways across Hindu traditions and listens for echoes in Christian understandings of the gratuitousness of the created order in relation to God God at Play is a genuine experiment in deep learning across traditions Each chapter reflects on what is learned by taking l l as the category of comparison and invites the reader to think about what these conversations add confirm or change in relation to earlier twentieth century scholarship on play not least in terms of what difference it might make to understand human life as an imitation and a participation in the divine life of a playful deity
