God As Father Concilium Religion In The Eighties:

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume Two Jeff B. Pool, 2010-01-01 This book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering vol 2 Evil and Divine Suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love The second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion The suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage In divine grief God suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief In divine self sacrifice God suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human's infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice Western Buddhist Feminists'

Contribution to Christian Theology Dong Jin Kim, 2022-12-06 This book discusses gender injustice and justice in religious institutions and spiritual life Fixed as a gender God Goddess leads those who have the same gender to subordinate anyone who differs In this sense the patriarchal and androcentric system has caused many religious women to lose their spiritual and faithful equality and identities in a church This book details how Western Buddhist feminists find that after recuperating women's equivalent rights and identities both religious men and women need to meditate to achieve the emptiness of gender ego gender privilege and prejudice which then leads to awakening and enlightenment from ignorance To apply such skills in Christian theology gender justice comes from spiritual equality and courage awakening and repentance in their contemplative and meditative lives This book suggests that for women's spiritual and real liberation and happiness both inner trainings and external social actions have to go together Narratives and Numbers: Empirical Studies of Pentecostal and

Charismatic Christianity Mark J. Cartledge, 2017-06-06 In Narratives and Numbers Empirical Studies of Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity Mark J Cartledge provides a rich set of essays on key themes in Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity Using empirical research methods drawn from the social sciences he interrogates his originally gathered data by means of theology and sociology These studies address such issues as glossolalia prophecy spirituality gender and the family the doctrine of the Trinity socialization altruism and the practice of healing Collectively they provide original insight into one of the most vibrant forms of Christianity today Additionally these studies model how empirical research in religion can be brought into conversation with theological discourse The findings of this research can be used by scholars and students from different perspectives and disciplinary contexts

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume One Jeff B. Pool, 2009-01-01 This book constitutes the first volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Divine Vulnerability and Creation This study first develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Thus the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God Through this approach this volume of studies into the Christian symbol of divine suffering then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation

Ancient Near Eastern Literature and the Hebrew Scriptures about the Fatherhood of God David Tasker, 2004 Ancient Near Eastern Literature and the Hebrew Scriptures About the Fatherhood of God discusses some of the main father god concepts of the people of the Ancient Near East then examines the eighteen occurrences of God's fatherhood specifically mentioned in Hebrew Scripture From these sources the book develops a theology of God's fatherhood that honors both ancient and modern scrutiny Although many studies have explored the subject of the fatherhood of God mostly from the perspective of nonbiblical disciplines and through the lens of Greco Roman mythology this book takes into account the wealth of material from the ancient Near East the birthplace of the Hebrew Scriptures

God's Wounds Jeff B Pool, 2011-07-28 God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Volume I Divine Vulnerability and Creation is the first of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry on the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely The goal is then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God In this first volume the author develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Through this approach to the Christian symbol of divine suffering he then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation

What did Jesus Mean? Anna Wierzbicka, 2001-04-05 In this highly interdisciplinary work linguist Anna Wierzbicka casts new light on the words of Jesus by taking her well known semantic theory of universal human concepts concepts which are intuitively understandable and self explanatory across languages and bringing it to bear on Jesus parables and the Sermon on the Mount Her approach results in strikingly novel interpretations of the Gospels Written in dialogue with other biblical commentators What Did Jesus Mean is both scholarly rigorous yet accessible

Christianity in the Modern World Ambrose Mong, 2022-01-27 The influence of religion on culture is as strong as ever but the shape of that influence is unique in today s pluralistic society In Christianity in the Modern World Ambrose Mong examines critically themes of religious commitment and tolerance attitudes towards other religions and the sociological aspects of religion and inter religious dialogue He provides an overview of factors that challenge traditional religion from the relationship between monotheistic and polytheistic beliefs to the history of tolerance and intolerance in the church and the future of secularism Following the global ethics formulated by the late Hans Kung Mong also engages with the dialogue between Jurgen Habermas and Joseph Ratzinger to provide an extensive defence of the importance of inter religious dialogue with particular relevance to multiple religious belonging in the Asian context Scholars of world religions will find Mong s analysis compelling while students will find his introduction to the historical dialectics underlying many of today s tensions illuminating

Beyond the Evangelical Gender Roles Gridlock Paul J. Palma, 2024-11-30 Present day Evangelicalism represents a microcosm of broader tensions over male and female gender roles with some denominations carefully delimiting women leadership roles especially the female pastor and many others supporting them The letters attributed to Paul the Apostle contain several divisive passages on the meaning of manhood and womanhood Dated and dubious readings of these have led some Christians and non Christians alike to conclude that Paul wrote with misogynistic intent Others quote them to justify Christian patriarchalism Beyond the Evangelical Gender Roles Gridlock Reimagining Paul s Views on Women Marriage and Ministry reassesses what Paul said about women reinterpreting his claims on marriage and ministry leadership in light of his first century worldview This book proposes a nuanced theological egalitarian approach with significant implications for renewing twenty first century congregations homes and society

The Loss and Recovery of Transcendence John C. Robertson, 1995-01-01 This long standing series provides the guild of religion scholars a venue for publishing aimed primarily at colleagues It includes scholarly monographs revised dissertations Festschriften conference papers and translations of ancient and medieval documents Works cover the sub disciplines of biblical studies history of Christianity history of religion theology and ethics Festschriften for Karl Barth Donald W Dayton James Luther Mays Margaret R Miles and Walter Wink are among the seventy five volumes that have been published Contributors include C K Barrett Francois Bovon Paul S Chung Marie Helene Davies Frederick Herzog Ben F Meyer Pamela Ann Moeller Rudolf Pesch D Z Phillips Rudolf Schnackenburgm Eduard Schweizer John Vissers The Christology of Rosemary Radford Ruether Mary Hembrow Snyder, 1988 Thinkers of the Twentieth Century Roland Turner, 1987 Major thinkers in various intellectual disciplines are featured in Thinkers of the Twentieth Century Your patrons will find this guide a perfect start to their studies on 450 intellectuals from philosophy theology literary criticism aesthetics history social sciences politics and the sciences Entries are divided into two parts Part One includes a biography complete bibliography and reading list of the major books and articles written about the entrant Part Two consists of an extended 1 000 to 3 000 word essay on the entrant These essays explain in clear comprehensible language the work of the entrant and his her influence on the intellectual of the 20th century Mission and the Coming of God Tim Chester, 2006-10-01 How does the eschatological future impinge on the present Is the kingdom of God present outside the confession of Christ in movements towards social justice Is Christian hope a stimulus to social involvement or an alternative And how does the present impinge on the eschatological future What is the relationship between our actions now and the new creation Is there eschatological continuity between the two J rgen Moltmann one of our most influential contemporary theologians has had much to say both on eschatology and its relationship to mission This book explores his thought along with evangelical responses to it Eschatology has been central to evangelical debates about social involvement ever since the Lausanne Congress in 1974 The book examines how evangelicals themselves have related hope and mission The book highlights the important contribution Moltmann has made while offering a critique of his thought from an evangelical perspective In so doing it touches on pertinent issues for evangelical missiology The conclusion takes John Calvin as a starting point proposing ean eschatology of the crossi which offers a critique of the over realized eschatologies in liberation theology and triumphalistic forms of evangelicalism iThis is a work of major importance engaging with crucial themes and leading Christian thinkers A must read for all reaective evangelicals Tim Chesteris work is always good but this is the best yet i Martyn Atkins Principal Cliff College Calver UK Despite the attention of Moltmann and despite intra evangelical debate on the nature of mission over the last three decades the task of bringing Moltmann and evangelicalism into dialogue has remained on the table for some time Tim Chester takes up the agenda His combination of practical experience in mission and theological ability equip him well for this task and the result is a study which brings academic reasoning to bear on Christian thought about eschatology and its vital connection with the missionary responsibility of the church It rewards our careful attention Stephen Williams Professor of Systemic Theology at Union Theological College Belfast iEschatology in relation to mission is often reduced to plans for Ohishingi the Great Commission as soon as possible or to lurid end time scenarios that feed our fantasy more than they fuel biblical mission So it is refreshing to have this wide ranging in depth study of the theme that engages with one of the most well known theologians of biblical hope J rgen Moltmann alongside a number of renowned evangelical scholars yet stays rooted in the text and vision of the Bible itself This is searching theology in the service of biblical mission as all theology ultimately should be Chris Wright International Director Langham Partnership International

The Active Participation of the Faithful in the Eucharist on the Basis of Common Priesthood Stella Adamma Nneji, 2018-06-15 One of the significant points of the Second Vatican Council is its emphasis on the status of the lay faithful in the church which includes active participation in the life of faith The council spoke of the active participation of all the faithful in liturgical celebrations on the basis of the common priesthood of the faithful which is conferred during baptism and through which every believer shares in the priestly kingly and prophetic offices of Christ In this book Stella Nneji develops an ecclesiological critical reflection on the teaching of the Second Vatican Council with regard to active participation Focusing especially on the church as people of God Nneji shows how the idea of participation is not merely a passive action but an active one Based on the ecclesiological reflection on the church as people of God and its relevance for active participation she maintains that Vatican II's vision on active participation is relevant to the upbuilding of the body of Christ church This vision integrates a critical thinking especially regarding those places where the implementation of Vatican II's teachings seems difficult

The ^AOxford Handbook of Latin American Christianity David Thomas Orique, Susan Fitzpatrick-Behrens, Virginia Garrard, 2020-03-23 Latin America where 90% of the population is Christian and where nearly 40% of the world's Catholics reside has its own unique brand of Christianity The Oxford Handbook of Latin American Christianity offers a survey of Latin American Christianity from thirty three leading scholars The volume systematically introduces and examines dramatic shifts in Catholic and Protestant Christianity over the course of several centuries Its four sections explore the emergence of colonial Christianity its institutional and popular evolution and its dynamic role the region's contemporary developments

New Horizons in Hermeneutics Anthony C. Thiselton, 1992 This book explores the rapidly growing interdisciplinary area of hermeneutics and its significance for biblical studies combining wide fundamental rigorous and creative theoretical concerns with practical questions about how we read biblical texts

Disavowing Constantine Nigel G. Wright, 2007-01-01 Disavowing Constantine draws upon the work of two highly influential modern theologians J rgen Moltmann and John Howard Yoder to develop an independent and constructive understanding of the relation of the church to the state Its aim is to restate for modern understanding the insights of the Believers Church tradition and to work out their implications for Christian participation in the civil order In this complex realm positive insights are located in traditions usually regarded as incompatible but the thesis of the book concerns

disavowing Constantine renouncing the reliance of the church upon coercive power to further its mission in order to rediscover how a faithful church might nonetheless participate as a witness within the power structures of human society

Treasure in Earthen Vessels Ambrose Mong, 2025-01-28 Throughout history and literature priests have been depicted as heroic figures battling evil and confronting moral dilemmas These portrayals highlight their unwavering faith and commitment even in the midst of personal sacrifices In movies and novels priests are often portrayed as flawed characters struggling to fulfill their religious duties These depictions aim to showcase priests as human beings with imperfections navigating their own challenges while remaining faithful to their calling The media has recently highlighted scandals involving Catholic priests including cases of sexual and financial misconduct These stories reveal the dark side of the institution with attempts to cover up wrongdoing to protect the Church's reputation The danger is that misleading negative stereotypes of priests can come to dominate public consciousness We need to find ways to acknowledge the dreadful seriousness of these acts while also recognizing the many priests who genuinely strive to fulfill their vocation and serve the people of God This volume attempts to depict priests in both factual and fictional scenarios to convey the complexity of their roles as shepherds of the flock

Tertullian's Theology of Divine Power Roy Kearsley, 1998 This book traces Tertullian's handling of key doctrines and draws implications for some of today's crucial issues Trinitarian faith the status of creation gender authority and power abuse It takes the agenda of early Christian thought seriously and finds it profoundly relevant today
